EDITOR'S PREFACE

THE following pages contain a reprint, verbatim et literatim, of the First Prayer Book of Edward the Sixth—the first English Book of Common Prayer—issued in the year 1549. The text adopted is that of an impression of the book printed by Edward Whitchurche, Mense Martii, as being in all probability the earliest edition. Internal evidence points to this edition having been issued part by part, before the publication of the more uniformly printed book bearing the date Mense Maii. In the present reprint the pagination proceeds regularly; but in the original the Litany and Suffrages are not mentioned in the Table of Contents, but are inserted, without foliation, between the Service for the Holy Communion and the Occasional Offices: the Order for Evensong ends with fol. vii: the Introits, etc., begin with a folio also numbered vii, from which the foliation extends regularly through the Communion Service to fol. cxxxiiii: the Occasional Offices begin a new foliation which extends to fol. xxxvii. In contrast to this irregularity, the foliation of the book dated Mense Maii proceeds without interruption throughout the whole volume.

Important historical evidence in favour of an edition dated March 1549 being considered the first edition of the First Prayer Book of Edward the Sixth, will be found in the words of the Rev. Thomas Lathbury, quoted from The British Magazine, 1849, vol. xxxvi. pp. 278, 279, note:—

‘For a long time, there has been much difficulty in deciding which of the Books of Common Prayer of 1549 was actually the first. Usually, however, the book dated in May has been so regarded; and it has been thought that the Book dated in March was published last, and that, according to our reckoning, it would properly be March, 1550. The arguments in favour of the May edition were chiefly two: first, the difficulty of getting the Book ready sooner; and, secondly, the fact that the Act fixed the Feast of Pentecost, which, in that year, fell on the ninth of June, though a provision was made for an earlier use, in case the Book should be possessed. In a Life of Jeremy Collier, prefixed to a new edition of his history, published by Straker, in nine volumes 8vo, I have proved, by direct evidence, that the Book was used in London on Easter Day, which, in that year, fell on the 21st of April; consequently the Book must have been printed before that day: and, therefore, the March edition must be the first, since the next did not appear till May. In addition to the evidence there collected, I may add, that Bishop Williams directly asserts, that the March Book was the first. Alluding to an epistle of Calvin to Bucer, Williams says: “It appears to me that this epistle to Bucer hath no date at all, and if we give it a date from the printer's placing of the letter, you shall finde it between November 19, 1548, and January 16, 1549, and consequently before the publishing of the first Liturgie, which was March 7, 1549" (p. 143). This is decisive testimony. I refer the reader to the Life of Collier for the other evidence, which is of such a character that no doubt can any longer remain respecting the first edition of the Book of 1549.'

The Editor would merely add that, in the fourth volume of the present Library of Liturgiology and Ecclesiology for English Readers will appear an important essay by Mr. Cuthbert Atchley, on the history of the preparation and design of the First Prayer Book of Edward the Sixth.

THE PREFACE

THERE was neuer any thing by the wit of man so well deuised, or so surely established, which (in continuance of time) hath not been corrupted: as (among other things) it may plainly appere by the common prayers in the Church, commonly called diuine seruice: the firste originall and grounde whereof, if a manne woulde searche out by the auncient fathers, he shall finde that thesame was not ordeyned, but of a good purpose, and for a great aduancement of godlines: For they so ordred the matter, that all the whole Bible (or the greatest parte thereof) should be read ouer once in the yeare, intending thereby, that the Cleargie, and specially suche as were Ministers of the congregacion, should (by often readyng and meditation of Gods worde) be stirred vp to godlines themselves, and be more able also to exhorte other by wholsome doctrine, and to confute them that were aduersaries to the trueth. And further, that the people (by daily hearyng of holy scripture read in the Church) should continuallye profite more and more in the knowlege of God, and bee the more inflamed with the loue of his true religion. But these many yeares passed this Godly and decent ordre of the auncient fathers, hath bee so altered, broken, and neglected, by planting in vncertain stories, Legēdes, Responses, Verses, vaine repetitions, Commemoracions and Synodalles, that commonly when any boke of the Bible was begon: before three or foure Chapters were read out, all the rest were vnread. And in this sorte, the boke of Esaie was begon in Aduent, and the booke of Genesis in Septuagesima; but they were onely begon, and neuer read thorow. After a like sorte wer other bokes of holy scripture vsed. And moreouer, whereas S. Paule would haue suche language spoken to the people in the church, as they might vnderstande and haue profite by hearyng the same: the seruice in this Church of England (these many yeares) hath been read in Latin to the people, whiche they vnderstoode not, so that they haue heard with theyr eares onely: and their hartes, spirite and minde, haue not been edified thereby. And furthermore, notwithstanding that the auncient fathers had deuided the psalmes into seuen porcions: wherof euery one was called a nocturne: now of late tyme a fewe of them haue been dailye sayed (and ofte repeated) and the rest vtterly omitted. Moreouer, the nobre and hardnes of the rules called the pie, and the manifold chaunginges of the seruice, was the cause, y^t to turne the boke onely, was so hard and intricate a matter, that many times, there was more busines to fynd out what should be read, then to read it when it was founde out.

These inconueniences therfore considered: here is set furth suche an ordre, whereby thesame shalbe redressed. And for a readines in this matter, here is drawn out a Kalender for that purpose, whiche is plaine and easy to be vnderstanded, wherin (so muche as maie be) the readyng of holy scripture is so set furthe, that all thynges shall bee doen in ordre, without breakyng one piece therof from another. For this cause be cut of Anthemes, Responses, Inuitatories, and suche like thynges, as did breake the continuall course of the readyng of the scripture. Yet because there is no remedy, but that of necessitie there must be some rules: therfore certain rules are here set furth, whiche as they be fewe in nōbre: so they be plain and easy to be vnderstanded. So y^t here you haue an ordre for praier (as touchyng the readyng of holy scripture) muche agreable to the mynde and purpose of the olde fathers, and a greate deale more profitable and commodious, then that whiche of late was vsed. It is more profitable, because here are left out many thynges, whereof some be vntrue, some vncertein, some vaine and superstitious: and is ordeyned nothyng to be read, but the very pure worde of God, the holy scriptures, or that whiche is euidently grounded vpon the same: and that in suche a language and ordre, as is moste easy and plain for the vnderstandyng, bothe of the readers and hearers. It is also more cōmodious, bothe for the shortnes thereof, and for the plaines of the ordre, and for that the rules be fewe and easy. Furthermore by this ordre, the curates shal nede none other bookes for their publike seruice, but this boke and the Bible: by the meanes wherof, the people shall not be at so great charge for bookes, as in tyme past they haue been.

And where heretofore, there hath been great diuersitie in saying and synging in churches within this realme: some folowyng Salsbury vse, some Herford vse, some the vse of Bangor, some of Yorke, and some of Lincolne: Now from hēcefurth, all the whole realme shall haue but one vse. And if any would iudge this waye more painfull, because that all thynges must be read vpō the boke, where as before by the reason of so often repeticion, they could saye many thinges by heart: if those men will waye their labor, with the profite in knowlege, whiche dayely they shal obtain by readyng vpon the boke, they will not refuse the payn, in consideration of the greate profite that shall ensue therof.

And forsomuche as nothyng can, almoste, be so plainly set furth, but doubtes maie rise in the vse and practisyng of the same: to appease all suche diuersitie (if any arise) and for the resolucion of all doubtes, concernyng the maner how to vnderstande, do, and execute the thynges conteyned in this booke: the parties that so doubt, or diuersly take any thyng, shall alwaye resort to the Bishop of the Diocese, who by his discrecion shall take ordre for the quietyng and appeasyng of the same: so that thesame ordre be not contrary to any thyng conteyned in this boke.

Though it be appointed in the afore written preface, that al thinges shalbe read and sōg in the churchē, in the Englishe tongue, to thende y^t the congregacion maie be therby edified: yet it is not meant, but when men saye Matins and Euensong priuately, they maye saie thesame in any language that they themselues do vnderstande. Neither that anye man shalbe bound to the saying of them, but suche as from tyme to tyme, in Cathedrall and Collegiate Churches, Parische Churches, and Chapelles to thesame annexed, shall serue the congregacion.

THE ORDRE

how the Psalter is appoynted to bee redde

THE Psalter shalbe red through, once euery Moneth, and because that some Monethes, be longer then some other be: it is thought good, to make thē euen by this meanes.

To euery Moneth, as concernyng this purpose, shalbe appointed iust xxx. dayes.

And because January and Marche hath one daye, aboue the sayd noumbre, and February whiche is placed betwene them bothe, hath onely xxviii. daies, February shall borowe of either of the Monethes of January and Marche one daie, and so the Psalter whiche shalbe red in February, muste bee begon the last daie of January, and ended the first daie of Marche.

And whereas Maie, July, August, October, and December, haue xxxi. dayes a peece, it is ordered that thesame Psalmes shalbe redde the laste daye of the saied Monethes, whiche were red the daie before: so that the Psalter maye bee begon agayne the firste daye of the nexte Monethes ensuyng.

Now to knowe what Psalmes shalbe red euery daye, loke in the Kalendar the nombre that is appoynted for the Psalmes, and then finde thesame nombre in this Table, and vpon that nombre shall you se, what Psalmes shalbe sayd at Matyns, and Euensong.

And where the Cxix. Psalme is deuided into xxii. porcions, and is ouer long to be red at one tyme: it is so ordered that at one tyme shall not be red aboue iiii. or v. of the saied porcions, as you shall perceiue to be noted in this Table.

And here is also to bee noted, that in this Table, and in all other partes of ye seruice, where any Psalmes are appointed, the nombre is expressed after the greate English Bible, whiche from the ix Psalme vnto the Cxlviii. Psalme (folowyng the diuision of the Ebrues) doth vary in nombres from the comō Latyn translacion.

THE ORDRE

howe the reste of holy Scripture (beside the Psalter) is appoynted to bee redde

The olde Testamēt.

THE olde Testament is appoynted for the first Lessons, at Matins and Euensong, and shal bee redde through euery yere once, except certain boke and Chapiters, whiche bee least edifying, and might best be spared, and therefore are left vnred.

The newe
Testamēt.

The newe Testament is appoynted for the second Lessons, at Matins and Euensong, and shalbe red ouer orderly euery yere thrise, beside the Epistles and Gospelles: except the Apocalips, out of the whiche there be onely certain Lessons appoynted vpon diuerse proper feastes.

Lessons.

And to knowe what Lessons shall bee red euery daye: finde the daye of the Moneth in the Kalendar folowyng: and there ye shal perceiue the booke and Chapiters, that shalbe red for the Lessons, bothe at Matins and Euensong.

Proper Psalmes.

And here is to be noted, that whensoever there bee any proper Psalmes or Lessōs, appoynted for any feast, moueable or vnmoueable: then the Psalmes and Lessons appoynted in the Kalendar, shalbe omitted for that tyme.

Ye muste note also that the Collect, Epistle and Gospell appoynted for the Sundaie, shall serue all the weeke after, except there fall some feast that hath his propre.

The leape Yere.

This is also to bee noted, concernyng the leape yeres, that the xxv. daye of February, whiche in leape yeres is coumpted for twoo dayes, shall in those twoo dayes, alter neither Psalme nor Lesson: but thesame Psalmes and Lessons, whiche be sayed the first daye, shall serue also for the seconde daye.

Also, wheresoeuer the beginnyng of any Lesson, Epistle, or Gospell is not expressed, there ye must begin at the beginnyng of the Chapter.

AN ORDRE

for Mattyns dayly through the yere.

The priest beeyng in the quier shall begynne with a loude voyce the Lordes prayer, called the Pater noster.

OURE father whiche arte in heauen, hallowed be thy name. Thy kyngdom come. Thy wyll be done in earth as it is in heauen. Geue vs this daye oure dayly bread. And forgeue vs oure trespases, as we forgeue them that trespasse agaynst vs. And leade vs not into temptacion. But deliuer vs from euell. Amen.

Then lykewyse he shall saye.

O Lorde, open thou my lyppes.

Aunswere.

And my mouthe shall shewe forth thy prayse.

Priest.

O God, make spede to saue me.

Aunswere.

O Lorde, make haste to helpe me.

Priest.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne, and to the holye ghost. As it was in the begynning, is now, and euer shalbe world without ende. Amen.

Prayse ye the Lorde.

And from Easter to Trinitie Sondaye.

Alleluya.

Then shalbe saied or song without any Inuitatori this Psalme, Venite exultemus, etc. in Englishe, as foloweth.

OCOME, lette vs syng vnto the Lorde : lette vs Psal. xcvi.
hartely reioyce in the strengthe of oure salua-cion.

Let vs come before his presence with thankesgeuing : and shewe oure selfe glad in hym with Psalmes.

For the Lord is a great God : and a great kyng aboue all goddes.

In his hande are all the corners of the yearth : and the strength of the hylles is his also.

The sea is his, and he made it : and his handes prepared the drye lande.

O come, let vs worship and fall downe : and kneele before the Lorde oure maker.

For he is (the Lord) oure God : and we are the people of his pasture, and the shepe of his handes.

To daye, yf ye wyll heare his voyce, harden not your hartes : as in the prouocation, and as in the daie of temptation in the wildernes.

When your fathers tempted me : proued me, and sawe my workes.

Fourtye yeares long was I greued with this generation, and sayed : it is a people that do erre in their hartes : For they haue not knowen my wayes.

Unto whom I sware in my wrath : that they shoulde not entre into my rest.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne : and to the holy ghost. As it was in the beginnyng, is now, and euer shalbe : worlde without end. Amen.

¶ Then shal folow certaine Psalmes in ordre as they been appointed in a table made for y purpose, except there be propre Psalmes appointed for that day. And at the ende of euery Psalme throughout the yeare, and lykewyse in the ende of Benedictus, Benedicite, Magnificat, and Nunc dimittis, shalbe repeated.

Glory be to the father and to the sonne. etc.

¶ Then shalbe read. ii. lessons distinctly with a loude voice, that the people maye heare. The fyrst of the olde testament, the second of the newe. Like as they be appoynted by the Kalender, excepte there be propre lessons assigned for that daye: The minstre that readeth the lesson standing and turnyng hym so as he maye beste be hearde of all suche as be present. And before euery lesson, the minister shal saye thus.

The fyrste, seconde. iii. or. iiii. Chapter of Genesis, or Exodus, Matthewe, Marke, or other lyke as is appoynted in the Kalendar. And in the ende of every Chapter he shall saye.

¶ Here endeth suche a Chapter of suche a booke.

¶ And (to thende the people may the better heare) in such places where they doe syng, there shall the lessons be songe in a playne tune after the maner of distincte readying: and lykewyse the Epistle and Gospell.

¶ After the fyrste lesson shall folowe Te deum laudamus in Englyshe, dayly throughout the yeare, excepte in Lente, all the whiche tyme in the place of Te deum shalbe vsed Benedicite omnia opera Domini Domino, in Englyshe as foloweth.

TE DEUM LAUDAMUS

WE praise the, O God, we knowlage thee to be the Lorde.

All the earth doeth wurship thee, the father euerlastyng.

To thee al Angels cry aloud, the heauens and all the powers therin.

To thee Cherubin, and Seraphin continually doe crye. Holy, holy, holy, Lorde God of Sabaoth.

Heauen and earth are replenyshed with the maiestie of thy glory.

The gloryous coumpany of the Apostles, praise thee.

The goodly felowshyp of the Prophetes, praise thee.

The noble armie of Martyrs, praise thee.

The holy church throughout all the worlde doeth knowlage thee.

The father of an infinite maiestie.

Thy honourable, true, and onely sonne.

The holy gost also beeyng the coumforter.

Thou art the kyng of glory, O Christe.

Thou art the euerlastyng sonne of the father.

Whan thou tookest vpon thee to delyuer manne, thou dydest not abhorre the virgins wombe.

Whan thou haddest ouercomed the sharpenesse of death, thou diddest open the kyngdome of heauen to all beleuers.

Thou sittest on the ryghthande of God in the glory of the father.

We beleue that thou shalt come to be our iudge.

We therfore praye thee, helpe thy seruauntes whom thou haste redemed with thy precious blood.

Make them to be nombred with thy saintes, in glory euerlastyng.

O Lorde saue thy people : and blesse thyne heritage.

Gouerne them, and lift them vp for euer.

Day by day we magnifie thee.

And we wurship thy name euer world without ende.

Uouchsafe, O Lorde, to kepe vs this daye without synne.

O Lorde, haue mercy vpon vs : haue mercy vpon vs.

O Lorde, let thy mercy lighten vpon vs : as our trust is in thee.

O Lorde, in thee haue I trusted : let me neuer be confounded.

BENEDICITE OMNIA OPERA DOMINI DOMINO

O ALL ye workes of the Lorde, speake good of the Lorde : prayse hym, and set hym vp for euer.
O ye Angels of the Lorde, speake good of the Lorde : prayse hym, and set hym vp for euer.

O ye nyghtes and dayes, speake good of the Lorde :
prayse him, and set him vp for euer.

O ye light and darkenes, speake good of the Lorde :
prayse him, and set him vp for euer.

O ye lighteninges and cloudes, speake good of the Lorde : prayse him, and set him vp for euer.

O let the yearthe speake good of the Lord : yea, let it prayse him, and set him vp for euer.

O ye mountaynes and hilles, speake good of the Lord :
prayse him, and set him vp for euer :

O al ye greene thynges vpon the earth, speake good of the Lorde : praise him and set him vp for euer.

O ye welles, speake good of the Lord : praise him, and set him vp for euer.

O ye seas and floudes, speake good of the Lorde : praise him, and set him vp for euer.

O ye whales, and all that moue in the waters, speake good of the Lorde : prayse him, and set hym vp for euer.

O all ye foules of the ayre, speake good of the lorde :
prayse him and set him vp for euer.

O all ye beastes and catell, speake ye good of the Lord : prayse him, and set him vp for euer.

O ye children of men, speake good of the lorde : prayse him, and set him vp for euer.

O let Israel speake good of the lorde : prayse him, and set him vp for euer.

O ye priestes of the Lorde, speake good of the Lorde : prayse him, and set him vp for euer.

O ye seruantes of the Lord, speake good of the Lord : prayse him, and set him vp for euer.

O ye spirites and soules of the righteous ; speake good of the Lorde : prayse him, and set him vp for euer.

O ye holy and humble men of heart, speake ye good of the Lorde : prayse ye him, and set him vp for euer.

O Ananias, Asarias, and Misael, speake ye good of the Lorde : prayse ye him and set him vp for euer.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne : and to the holy gost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and euer shalbe : worlde without ende. Amen.

¶ And after the seconde lesson, throughout the whole yere, shalbe vsed Benedictus dominus deus Israel etc. in Englishe as foloweth.

Benedictus
Luc. i.

BLESSED be the lorde God of Israel : for he hath visited and redemed his people.

And hath lyfted vp an horne of saluacyon to vs : in the house of his seruaunt Daud.

As he spake by the mouth of his holy Prophetes : which hath bene syns the world began.

That we shoulde be saued from our enemies : and from the handes of all that hate vs.

To perfourme the mercy promised to our fathers : and to remember his holy couenaunt.

To perfourme the othe whiche he sware to our father Abraham : that he woulde geue vs.

That we being deliuered out of the handes of our enemies : might serue him without feare.

In holynesse and ryghteousnes before him all the dayes of our lyfe.

And thou childe, shalte bee called the prophete of the highest : for thou shalte goe before the face of the Lord, to prepare his wayes.

To geue knowledge of saluacion vnto his people : for the remission of their sinnes.

Through the tender mercie of our god : whereby the daye spryng from an hygh hath visited vs.

To geue lighte to them that sitte in darkenes, and in the shadowe of death : and to guide our fete into the way of peace.

Glory be to the father. etc.

As it was in the beginnyng. etc.

Then shalbe said dailye through the yere, the praiers folowyng, as well at euensong as at Matins, all deuoutely kneelyng.

Lorde haue mercie vpon vs. Christe haue mercie vpon vs. Lorde haue mercie vpon vs.

Then the minister shal say the Crede and the Lordes praier in englishe, with a loude voice. etc.

Answered.

But deliuer vs from euill. Amen.

Prieste.

O Lorde shewe thy mercie vpon vs.

Answered.

And graunte vs thy saluacion.

Prieste.

O Lorde saue the kyng.

Answered.

And mercifully heare vs, when we cal vpon thee.

Prieste.

Indue thy ministers with righteousness.

Answered.

And make thy chosen people ioyfull.

Prieste.

O lorde saue thy people.

Answered.

And blesse thyne inheritaunce.

Prieste.

Geue peace in oure time, O Lorde.

Answer.

Because there is none other that fyghteth for vs, but only thou, O God.

Prieste.

O God, make cleane our hartes within vs.

Answer.

And take not thyne holye spirite from vs.

Prieste.

The lorde be with you.

Answer.

And with thy spirite.

Then shall dayly folowe three Collectes. The firste of the day, which shalbe the same that is appointed at the Communion. The seconde for peace. The thirde for grace to lyue wel. And the two laste Collectes shall neuer alter, but dailye bee saide at Matins throughoue al the yere, as foloweth. The priest standyng vp and sayyng.

Let vs praye.

¶ Then the Collect of the daie.

¶ THE SECOND COLLECT : FOR PEACE

O GOD, which art author of peace, and louver of concorde, in knowledge of whome standeth oure eternall life, whose seruice is perfect fredome :
defende vs thy humble seruantes, in al assaultes of our enemies, that wee surely trustyng in thy defence, maye not feare the power of any aduersaries : through the myght of Jesu Christ our lorde. Amen.

THE THYRDE COLLECTE : FOR GRACE

O LORDE oure heauenly father, almightye and euerliuyng God, whiche haste safelye brought vs to the beginning of this day : Defend vs in the same with thy mighty power, and graunt that this daye wee fall into no synne, neyther runne into any kinde of daunger, but that al our doinges may be ordred by thy gouernaunce, to do alwaies that is righteous in thy sight : through Jesus Christe our lorde.
Amen.

AN ORDRE

For Euensong throughout the yeare.

The prieste shall saye.

OVRE FATHER. etc.

Then likewise he shall saye.

O God make spede to saue me.

Answer.

O Lorde, make haste to helpe me.

Prieste.

Glorye be to the father, and to the sonne : and to the holy ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now : and euer shall be, worlde without ende. Amen. Prayse ye the lorde.

And from Easter to Trinitie sonday.

Alleluya.

As before is appointed at Matins.

Then Psalmes in ordre as they bee appointed in the Table for Psalmes, except there be proper psalmes appointed for that daye. Then a lesson of the olde testamente as is appointed likewise in the kalender, except there be proper lessons appointed for that daye. After that (Magnificat anima mea dominum) in Englishe, as foloweth.

MY soule doth magnifie the lorde.

Magnificat
Luc. i.

And my spirite reioysed in God my sauoure.

For he hathe regarded the lowelinesse of hys handemaiden.

For beholde from henceforth all generacions shal cal me blessed.

For he that is mightye hath magnified me, and holy is his name.

And his mercie is on them that feare him throughoute al generacions.

He hath shewed strength with his arme, he hath scatered the proude in the imaginacion of their hartes.

He hath put down the mightie from their seate : and hath exalted the humble and meeke.

He hath filled the hungrye, with good thynges : and the riche he hath sente away emptye.

He remembring his mercie, hath holpen his seruaunt Israel : as he promised to oure fathers, Abraham and his seede for euer.

Glory be to the father and to the sonne and to the holy gost.

As it was in the beginning, and is now, and euer shall be worlde without ende. Amen.

Then a lesson of the newe testamente. And after that (Nunc dimittis seruum tuum) in Englishe as foloweth.

Nunc dimittis
Luc. ii.

LORDE, nowe lettest thou thy seruaunte departe in peace, accordyng to thy woorde.

For myne iyes haue sene thy saluacion.

Whiche thou haste prepared, before the face of all thy people.

To be a lyght for to lighten the Gentiles : and to bee the glorie of thy people of Israel.

Glorye be to the father. etc.

As it was in the beginnyng. etc.

Then the suffrages before assigned at Matins, the clerkes kneelyng likewise, with three Collectes. Fyrst of the daye: Seconde of peace: Thirde for ayde agaynste all perilles, as here foloweth. Whiche ii. laste collectes shall bee daylye saide at Euensong without alteration.

THE SECONDE COLLECTE AT EUENSONG

O GOD from whom al holy desyres, all good counsayles ; and all iuste workes do procede : Geue vnto thy seruauntes that peace, which the world cannot geue, that both our hartes maye be sette to obey thy commaundementes, and also that by thee, we being defended from the feare of oure enemies, maye passe oure time in rest and quietnesse, throughe the merites of Jesu Christe our saviour. Amen.

THE THIRDE COLLECT FOR AYDE AGAYNST
ALL PERILS

LYGHTEEN our darkenes we beseche thee, O lord, and by thy great mercy, defende vs from all perilles and daungers of thys nyght, for the loue of thy onely sonne our sauour Jesu Christ. Amen.

¶ In the feastes of Christmas, Thepiphanie, Easter, Thascencion, Pentecost, and vpon Trinitie Sunday, shalbe song or sayd immediatly after Benedictus, this confession of our christian fayth.

WHOSOEUER will be saued: before all things it is necessarye that he holde the Catholyke fayth. Quicumque vult, etc.

Whiche fayth, except euery one dooe kepe holy and vndefyled: without doubt he shal perishe euerlastingly.

And the Catholyke faith is this: that we wurship one God in Trinitie, and Trinitie in vnitie.

Neyther confounding the persones: nor deuidyng the substaunce.

For there is one persone of the father, another of the sonne: and an other of the holy gost.

But the godhead of the father, of the sonne, and of the holye Goste, is all one: the glorye equall, the maiestie coeternall.

Such as the father is, suche is the sonne: and suche is the holy gost.

The father vncreate, the sonne vncreate: and the holy gost vncreate.

The father incomprehensible, the sonne incomprehensible: and the holy gost incomprehensible.

The father eternall, the sonne eternall : and the holy gost eternall.

And yet they are not three eternalles : but one eternall.

As also there be not three incomprehensibles, nor three vncreated : but one vncreated, and one incomprehensible.

So lykewyse, the father is almyghtie : the sonne almightie, and the holy gost almightie.

And yet are they not three almyghtyes : but one almightie.

So the father is God, the sonne God : and the holye gost God.

And yet are they not three Goddes : but one God.

So lykewise the father is Lord, the sonne Lord : and the holy gost Lorde.

And yet not three Lordes : but one Lorde.

For like as we be compelled by the christian veritie : to acknowledge euery persone by hymselfe to be god and lord :

So are we forbidden by the Catholike religion : to say there be three goddes, or three lordes.

The father is made of none : neyther created nor begotten.

The sonne is of the father alone : not made nor created, but begotten.

The holy gost is of the father and of the sonne : neyther made nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding.

So there is one father, not three fathers, one sonne, not three sonnes : one holy gost, not three holy gostes.

And in thys trinitie, none is afore nor after other : none is greater nor lesse then other.

But the whole three persones : be coeternall together and coequall.

So that in all thinges as it is aforesayd : the vnitie in trinitie, and the trinitie in vnitie, is to be wurshipped.

He therefore that will bee saued : must thus thinke of the trinitie.

Furthermore, it is necessary to euerlasting saluacion :

that he also beleue ryghtly in the incarnacion of oure Lorde Jesu Christe.

For the ryght fayth is that we beleue and confesse : that our Lorde Jesus Christe the sonne of God, is God and manne.

God of the substaunce of the father, begotten before the worldes : and man of the substaunce of his mother, borne in the worlde.

Perfecte God and perfecte man : of a resonable soule, and humayne fleshe subsisting.

Equall to the father as touchyng his Godhead : and inferior to the father touchyng his manhooode.

Who although he be God and man : yet he is not two, but one Christe.

One, not by conuersion of the Godhead into flesh : but by takyng of the manhooode into God.

One altogether, not by confusion of substaunce : but by vnitie of person.

For as the reasonable soule and fleshe is one man : So God and man is one Christe.

Who suffered for oure saluacion : descended into hell, rose agayne the third daye from the dead.

He ascended into heauen, he sytteth on the right hand of the father, God almighty : from whence he shall come to iudge the quicke and dead.

At whose commyng all men shall ryse agayne with theyr bodyes : and shall geue accompte of theyr owne workes.

And they that haue done good, shall goe into life euerlastyng : and they that haue done euyll, into euerlastyng fyre.

This is the Catholyke fayth : whiche excepte a man beleue faythfully, he cannot be saued.

Glory be to the father and to the sonne. etc.

As it was in the begynnyng. etc.

THVS ENDETH

the ordre of Matyns and Euensong, through the whole yere.

THE INTROITES

Collectes, Epistles, and Gospels, to be used at the celebration of the Lordes supper and holye Communion, throughe the yeare: with proper Psalmes, and lessons for diuers feastes and dayes.

¶ The fyrste Sonday in Aduente

BLESSED is that man that hath not walked in Beatus vir the counsaile of the vngodly : nor stand in Psal. i.
the waye of synners, and hath not sit in the seate of the skornefull.

But his delight is in the law of the lord : and in his law wil he exercise himself day and night.

And he shalbe like a tree planted by the water syde :
that wyll bryng foorth his fruite in due season.

His leafe also shal not wither : and looke whatsoever he doth it shall prospere.

As for the vngodly, it is not so with them : but they are lyke the chaffe, whiche the wynde skatereth awaye (from the face of the yearth.)

Therefore the vngodly shal not be hable to stand in the iudgement : neyther the synners in the congregacion of the righteous.

But the Lorde knoweth the waye of the righteous :
and the waye of the vngodlye shall perishe.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne : and to the holye ghoste.

As it was in the begynnyng, and is nowe : and euer shalbe, worlde without ende. Amen.

And so muste euery Introite be ended.

Let vs praye.

THE COLLECT

ALMYGHTEY God, geue vs grace, that we may cast away the workes of darknes, and put vpon vs the armour of light, now in the tyme of this mortall lyfe (in the whiche thy sonne Jesus Christe came to visite vs in great humilitie :) that in the last day when he shal come again in his glorious maiestye to iudge bothe the quicke and the dead : we maye ryse to the lyfe immortal, through him, who liueth and reigneth with thee and the holy ghoste, now and euer. Amen.

THE EPISTLE

Rom. xiii.

OWE nothing to any man but this, that ye loue one another. For he that loueth another, fulfilleth the law. For these commaundementes: Thou shalt not commit adultry : Thou shalt not kyll : Thou shalte not steale : Thou shalte beare no false witnes : Thou shalt not luste : and so forth (if there be any other commaundement) it is al comprehended in this sayng, namely, loue thy neighbor as thy self. Loue hurteth not his neyghbor : therefore is loue the fulfillyng of the law. This also, we know the season, how that it is tyme that we should now awake out of slepe, for nowe is our saluacion nerer, then when we beleued. The nyght is passed, the day is come nye : let vs therefore caste awaie the dedes of darkenes, and let vs put on the armour of lyght. Let vs walke honestlye, as it were in the day lyght: not in eating and drinking, neither in chouryng and wantonnes, neither in stryfe nor envying : but put ye on the lord Jesus Christe. And make not pro-uision for the fleshe, to fulfill the lustes of it.

THE GOSPELL

AND when they drew nigh to Jerusalem, and Mat. xxi.
 wer come to Bethphage vnto Moũt Oliuet, then sente Jesus two disciples, saying vnto them: Goe into the towne that lyeth ouer agaynst you, and anone ye shall fynde an Asse bound, and a Colte with her: looce them and bryng them vnto me.
 And if any man say ought vnto you, say ye, the lord hath neede of them: and straight way he wil let them goe. All this was done that it myghte bee fulfilled, whiche was spoken by the Prophete, saying: Tell ye the daughter of Sion, behold, thy king cummeth vnto thee, meke, sitting upō an Asse and a colt, the fole of the Asse vsed to the yoke.
 The disciples went and did as Jesus commaūded them, and brought the Asse and the Colte, and put on them theyr clothes, and set him theron. And many of the people spred theyr garmentes in the waye. Other cut downe braunches from the trees, and strawed them in the way. More-ouer the people that wente beefore, and they that came after, cryed saying: Hosanna to the sonne of Dauid: Blessed is he that cummeth in the name of the lorde, Hosanna in the higheste. And when he was come to Jerusalem, all the citie was moued, saying: who is this? And the people sayde, this is Jesus the Prophete of Nazareth a citie of Galile. And Jesus went into the temple of god, and cast out al them that solde and boughte in the temple, and ouerthrew the tables of money chaungers, and the seates of them that solde doues, and said vnto them: It is written: My house shall be called the house of prayer, but ye haue made it a denne of theues.

The second sūday

WHEN I was in trouble, I called vpon the Ad dominum cum tribulare psal. cxx.
 lorde: and he heard me.
 Deliuer my soule, O Lorde, from lying lippes: and from a deceitfull tongue.

What reward shalbe geuen vnto thee, thou false tong.
euen mightie and sharpe arrowes, with hote burnyng coles.

Woe is me that I am constrained to dwel with Mesech :
and to haue mine habitacion amōg the tentes of Cedar.

My soule hath long dwelt among them, that be enemies vnto peace.

I labour for peace, but when I speake vnto them thereof : they make them to battayl.

Glory be to the father. etc.

As it was in the beginning. etc. Amen.

THE COLLECT

BLESSED lord, which hast caused al holy scriptures to bee written for our learnyng: graunte vs that we maye in suche wise heare them, read, marke, learne, and inwardly digeste them : that by pacience and counfort of thy holy woorde, we may embrace and euer holde fast the blessed hope of euerlasting life, which thou hast geuen vs in our sauour Jesus Christe.

THE EPISTLE

Rome, xv.

WHATSOEVER thinges are writtē afore time, they are written for our learning, that we through pacience and comfort of the scriptures, might haue hope. The God of pacience and consolacion, graunt you to be like minded one toward another, after the ensauple of Christ Jesu : that ye all agreeyng together, may with one mouth prayse God the father of our lorde Jesus Christ : wherfore receiue ye one an other as Christ receiued vs, to the prayse of God. And thys I say, that Jesus Christe is a minister of the circumcision for the trueth of god, to confirme the promises made vnto the fathers, and that the Gentiles might praise god for his mercie, as it is written. For this cause I will praise thee among the Gentiles, and sing vnto thy name. And agayne he sayeth : reioyce ye Gentiles with hys people.

And againe : praise the Lorde all ye Gentyles, and laude hym all ye nacions together. And againe Esai sayeth : there shall be the rote of Jesse, and he that shall ryse to reigne ouer the Gentiles : in him shal the Gentiles trust. The God of hope fyll you with all ioy, and peace in beleuyng, that ye may be riche in hope, through the power of the holy gost.

THE GOSPELL

THERE shalbe signes in the Sunne and in the Moone, and in the starres : and in the earth Luc. xxi. the people shalbe at their wittes ende, through despayre. The sea and the water shall roare, and mens heartes shall fayle them for feare, and for loking after those thinges which shall come on the earth. For the powers of heauen shall moue. And then shall they see the sonne of man come in a cloude, with power and great glorie. When these thynges begynne to come to passe, then loke vp, and lyft vp your heades, for your redempcion draweth nye. And he shewed them a similytude : beholde the fygge tree, and all other trees, when they shote furth their buddes, ye see and knowe of your owne selues that sommer is then nye at hāde. So lykewyse ye also (whē ye see these thinges come to passe) be sure, that the kyngdome of God is nye. Uerely I saye vnto you : this generacion shall not passe tyll all be fulfilled. Heauen and earth shall passe : but my worde shall not passe.

The thirde sondaye

HEARE me when I call, O God of my ryghteousnes : thou hast sette me at lybertie when I was in trouble, haue mercy vpon me, and herken Cum inuocarem. psal. iiii. vnto my prayer.

O ye sonnes of menne, howe long will ye blaspheme myne honor : and haue such pleasure in vanitie, and seke after leasing ?

Know this and, that the Lord hath chosen to himselfe the manne that is godly : when I call vpon the Lord, he will heare me.

Stande in awe and synne not : common with your owne hearte, and in your chambre, and be styll.

Offre the sacrifice of righteousnes : and put your trust in the Lorde.

There be many that wyll saye : who wyll shewe vs any good.

Lorde lift thou vp the light of thy countenaunce vpon vs.

Thou hast put gladnes in my heart : sence the tyme that their corne and wyne (and oyle) increased.

I will lay me downe in peace and take my rest : for it is thou Lorde onely, that makest me to dwell in safetie.

Glory be to the father. etc.

As it was in the begynnyng. etc.

THE COLLECT

LORD we besche thee, geue eare to our prayers, and by thy gracious visitacion lighten the darkenes of our hearte, by our Lorde Jesus Christe.

THE EPISTLE

i. Cor. iiii.

LET a man this wise esteeme vs, euen as the ministers of Christ, and stewardestes of the secretes of God. Furthermore, it is required of the stewardestes, that a man be founde faithfull: with me it is but a very small thing that I should be iudged of you, eyther of mannes iudgement : no I iudge not mine owne selfe, for I know nought by my selfe, yet am I not therby iustified. It is the Lorde that iudgeth me. Therfore iudge nothing before the tyme, vntyll the Lorde come, whiche wyll lighten thynges that are hidde in darkenesse, and open the counsayles of the heartes, and then shall euery manne haue prayse of God.

THE GOSPELL

Mat. xi.

WHEN John beeyng in pryson hearde the workes of Christe, he sente two of his disciples, and sayed vnto hym : Art thou he that shall come? or doe we looke for an other? Jesus aunswered and sayd vnto thē : Goe, and shewe John agayne, what ye haue hearde and seen. The blynde receiue their sight, the lame walke, the Lepers are censed, and the deafe heare, the dead aryse vp, and the poore receyue the gladde tydings of the gospel, and happy is he that is not offended by me. And as they departed, Jesus began to say vnto the people cōcernyng John: What went ye out into the wildernes to see: A rede that is shaken with the wynde? or what wēt ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft rayment? behold, they that weare soft clothing, are in kinges houses. But what went ye out for to see? a Prophete? verely I saye vnto you, and more then a Prophete. For this is he of whom it is wrytten: beholde, I sende my messenger before thy face, whiche shall prepare thy waye before thee.

¶ The fourth sondaye

PONDER my woordes O Lorde: considre my Verba mea meditacion. auribus. psal. v.

O herken thou vnto the voyce of my calling, my kyng and my God: for vnto thee wyll I make my prayer.

My voyce shalt thou heare betimes, O Lord: early in the morning will I direct my prayer vnto thee, and will looke vp.

For thou art the God that hathe no pleasure in wickednes: neither shall any euill dwell with thee.

Suche as be foolishe shall not stande in thy sight: for thou hatest all them that worke vanitie.

Thou shalt destroy thē that speake leasing: the Lord will abhorre both the bloud thirsty, and deceitful man.

But as for me I will come into thy house, euen vpon the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy feare I wil wurship towarde thy holy temple.

Leade me, O Lorde, in thy righteousnes, because of myne enemies: make thy waye playne before my face.

For there is no faythfulnes in his mouthe: their inwarde partes are very wickednes.

Their throte is an open sepulchre: they flatter with their tongue.

Destroy thou them, O God, let them peryshe through theyr owne imaginacions : cast thē out in the multitude of their vngodlines, for they haue rebelled against thee.

And let all them that put their trust in thee reioyce : they shall euer be geuing of thankes, because thou defendest them, they that loue thy name shalbe ioyfull in thee.

For thou Lord wylt geue thy blessing vnto the righteous : and with thy fauorable kyndnes wylt thou defende hym, as his shelde.

Glory be to the father. etc.

As it was in the begynnyng. etc.

THE COLLECT

LORDE rayse vp (we pray the) thy power ; and come among vs, and with great might succour vs, that where as through our synnes and wickednes we be soore lette and hyndred, thy bountifull grace and mercye, through the satisfaccion of thy sonne, our Lord may spedily deliuer vs : to whom with thee, and the holy gost be honor and glory worlde without ende.

THE EPISTLE

Philipp. iiii.

REIOYCE in the Lord alway, and againe I saye, reioyce. Let your softnes be knowen vnto all men : the Lord is euen at hand. Be careful for nothing : but in all praier and supplicacion let your petitions be manifest vnto God ; with geuyng of thankes. And the peace of God (whiche passeth all vnderstandyng) kepe your heartes and myndes through Christe Jesu.

THE GOSPELL

John. i.

THIS is the recorde of Jhon : whē the Jewes sent priestes and Leuites frō Jerusalem, to aske him : what art thou? and he confessed and denied not, and sayd playnly : I am not Christ. And they asked him : what then? art thou Helyas? and he sayeth : I am not. Art thou that Prophete? and he aunswered, no. Then sayed they vnto him : what art thou, that we may geue an aūswer vnto thē that sēt vs? what sayest thou of thy selfe?

he said : I am the voyce of a cryer in the wildernes : make straight the way of the lorde, as said the prophete Esai. And they whiche were sente were of the Phariseis, and they asked hym and sayde vnto hym : why baptisest thou then, if thou be not Christe nor Helyas, neither that prophet? John aunswered them, saying : I baptise with water, but there standeth one among you, whome ye know not : he it is which though he came after me, was before me, whose shooe latchet, I am not woorthie to vnlooce. These things were doen in Bethabara beyonde Jordane, where John did baptise.

Psal. xiv.
Psal. lxxxv.

¶ AT THE FIRST COMMUNION

O SING vnto the lorde a newe song : for he hath done meruaylous thinges. *Cantate domino.

With his owne right hande and with his holy arme : hath he gotten himselfe victorie.

The lorde declared hys saluacion : his righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.

He hath remembred his mercie and trueth toward the house of Israell : and all the endes of the worlde haue seene the saluacion of our God.

Shewe your selues ioyfull vnto the lorde, all ye landes : sing, reioyce, and geue thanks.

Prayse the lorde vpon the Harpe : syng to the Harpe with a Psalme of thankesgeuing.

With trumpettes also and shawmes : O shewe your selues ioyfull before the Lorde the king.

Let the sea make a noyse, and all that therein is : the round worlde and they that dwell therein.

Let the fluddes clap theyr handes, and let the hilles bee ioyfull together before the Lorde, for he is come to iudge the yearth.

With righteousnes shall he iudge the worlde : and the people with equitie.

Tit. ii.

THE grace of god that bringeth saluacion vnto all men hath appeared, and teacheth vs that we should denye vngodlines, and worldly lustes, and that we shoulde liue soberlye, and ryghteously, and godlye in this present world, looking for that blessed hope, and appering of the glory of the great god, and of our sauour Jesu Christ, which gaue himselfe for vs, to redeme vs from all vnrighteousnes, and to purge vs a peculiar people vnto himselfe, feruently geuen vnto good woorkes. These thynges speake and exhorte, and rebuke with all feruentnes of commaundyng. See that no man despise thee.

THE GOSPEL

Luc. ii.

AND it chaunsed in those dayes, that there wente out a commaundemente from Augustus the Emperour, that all the worlde shoulde be taxed. And this taxing was the firste, and executed when Sirenus was leutenaunt in Siria. And euery man wente vnto hys owne citie to bee taxed. And Joseph also ascended frō Galile, out of a citie called Nazareth into Jury, vnto the citie of Daud, which is called Bethleem, because he was of the house and linage of Daud, to be taxed wyth Mari his spoused wyfe, which was with childe. And it fortuneth that while they were there, her tyme was come that she shoulde be deliuered. And she brought furth her first begotten sonne, and wrapped hym in swadlyng clothes and layde hym in a Maungier, because there was no rounge for them in the Inne. And there were in the same region shepeherdes watchyng and kepyng theyr flocke by nyght. And loe, the Angel the Lorde stode harde by them, and the bryghtnesse of the Lorde shone rounde about them, and they were sore affrayd. And the angel said vnto them : Be not affraid, for behold, I bring you tidinges of great ioy, that shal come to al people : for vnto you is borne this daie, in the cite of Daud, a sauour, which is Christ the lorde. And take this for a signe : ye shall fynde the childe wrapped in swadlyng clothes, and layde in a maungier. And strayght waye there was with the angel a multitude of heauenly souldiers, praisyng God, and saying : Glory to God on hye, and peace on the yearth, and vnto men a good wyll.

For I wyll consider thy heauens, euen the woorkes of thy fyngers : the Moone and the starres whiche thou hast ordeyned.

What is man that thou art so mindeful of hym ? and the sonne of man, that thou visitest him ?

Thou madest him lower then the angels : to croune him wyth glory and woorship.

Thou makeste hym to haue dominion of the workes of thy handes : and thou haste put all thynges in subiection vnder his feete.

All shepe and oxen : yea, and the beastes of the feld.

GOD in tymes paste, dyuerslye and manye waies spake vnto the fathers by Prophetes : but in these last dayes, he hathe spoken to vs by his owne sonne, whome he hath made heyre of al thynges, by whome also he made the worlde. Whiche (sonne) beeing the brightnesse of his glorye, and the very image of his substaunce, rulyng al thynges wyth the woorde of his power, hath by his owne person poured oure synnes, and sytteth on the righte hande of the maiestye on hygh : being so much more excellēt then the Angels, as he hath by inheritaunce obtained a more excellent name then they. For vnto which of the Angels said he at anye tyme? Thou art my sonne, this daye haue I begotten thee. And agayne, I wilbe his father, and he shall bee my sonne. And agayne, when he bringeth in the first begotten sonne into the worlde, he sayth : and let all the Angels of God wurship him. And vnto the Angels he sayeth : He maketh his Angels spirites, and his ministers a flame of fyer. But vnto the sonne he sayeth : thy seate (O God) shalbe for euer and euer. The scepter of thy kingdome is a ryghte scepter. Thou haste loued righteousnes and hated iniquitie : wherefore God, euen thy God, hath anointed thee with oyle of gladnes aboue thy felowes. And thou lorde in the beginning hast layde the foundation of the yearthe : and the heauens are the woorkes of thy handes. They shall perish ; but thou endurest : But they all shal waxe olde as doeth a garment, and as a vesture shalt thou chaunge them, and they shalbe chaunged. But thou art euen the same, and thy yeares shall not fayle.

THE GOSPEL

IN the begynnyng was the woorde, and the woorde ^{John. i.} was with God : and God was the worde. The same was in the beginning with God. All thinges were made by it, and without it, was made nothyng that was made. In it was life, and the lyfe was the light of men, and the light shineth in darke-nes, and the darkenes cōprehended it not. There was sente from God a manne, whose name was John. The same came as a witnes, to beare witnes of the light, that al mē through him might beleue. He was not that light, but was sent to beare witnes of the light. That light was the true lyghte, whiche lighteth euerye man that cometh into the worlde. He was in the world, and the world was made by him : and the worlde knew him not. He came among his owne, and his owne receiued him not : But as many as receiued him, to thē gaue he power to be the sonnes of god : euen thē that beleued on his name, whiche were borne, not of bloud, nor of the will of the fleshe, nor yet of the will of man: but of God.

And the same worde became flesh and dwelt among vs:
and we sawe the glory of it, as the glory of the onely begotten sonne of the father, full of grace and trueth.

THE GOSPEL

THE Angel of the lorde appeared to Joseph in Mat. ii. a slepe, saying: aryse and take the childe and his mother, and flye into Egipt, and be thou there til I bring thee worde. For it will come to passe, that Herode shall seke the childe to destroy him. So when he awoke, he tooke the chylde and his mother by night, and departed into Egipte, and was there vnto the death of Herode: that it myghte be fulfilled whiche was spoken of the lorde by the prophete, saying: out of Egipt haue I called my sonne. Then Herode when he sawe that he was mocked of the wise men, he was exceeding wroth, and sent furthe men of warre, and slewe all the chyldeen that were in Bethleem and in all the coastes (as many as were ii. yere olde and vnder) according to the time whiche he had diligently knowen out of the wisemen. The birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When his mother Mary was married to Joseph (beefore they came to dwell together) she was founde with childe by the holy goste. Then Joseph her husbande (because he was a righteous man, and would not put her to shame) was minded prierily to departe from her. But while he thus thought, beholde, the Angell of the lord appeared vnto hym in slepe saying : Joseph, thou sonne of Dauid, feare not to take vnto the Mary thy wife : for that which is conceiued in her, cummeth of the holy gost. She shall bring furth a sonne, and thou shalt call his name Jesus : for he shall saue his people from theyr sinnes.

THE EPISTLE

BLESSED is that mā to whom the lord wil not impute sinne. Came this blessednes then vpon the vncircūcisiō, or vpon the circūcision also ? for we say that faith was rekoned to Abrahā for righteousness. How was it then rekoned ? when he was in the circūcision, or whē he was in the vncircūcisiō ? not in the time of circumcision : but when he was yet vncircūcised. And he receiued the signe of circumcision as a seale of the righteousness of fayth, whiche he had yet being vncircūcised : that he should be the father of al thē that beleue, though they be not circumcised, that righteousness might be imputed to them also : and that he mighte be the father of circūcisiō, not vnto them only which came of the circumcised, but vnto them also that walke in the steppes of the faythe that was in our father Abraham, before the time of circumcision. For the promise (that he shoulde be the heyre of the world) happened not to Abraham, or to his seede, through the law, but through the righteousnes of faith. For if they which are of the law be heyres, then is faith but vayne, and the promise of none effect.

Ephe. iii.

FOR thys cause I Paule am a priesoner of Iesus Christe for you heathen : yf ye haue heard of the ministracion of the grace of God, which is geuē me to youward. For by reuelacion shewed he the misterie vnto me, as I wrote afore in few woordes, wherby when ye reade ye maye vnderstande my knowledge in the misterye of Christe : which misterie in times passed was not opened vnto the sonnes of men, as it is now declared vnto his holy apostles and prophetes by the spirite : that the Gentiles should be inheritors also, and of the same bodye, and partakers of his promise in Christ, by the meanes of the Gospel, whereof I am made a minister, accordyng to the gifte of the grace of god, which is geuē vnto me after the workyng of his power. Unto me the leaste of all saintes is this grace geuen, that I shoulde preache amonge the Gentiles, the vnsearcheable riches of Christe, and to make all men see what the felowship of the misterie is, whiche from the beginnyng of the worlde, hath bene hyd in God whiche made al thinges through Iesus Christe, to then-tente, that nowe vnto the rulers and powers in heauenly thinges, might be knowē, by the congregaciō, the manifolde wisdom of God accordyng to the eternall purpose which he wrought in Christ Jesu our lord, by whō wee haue beldenesse and entraunce, with the confidence which is by the faith of him.

THE GOSPEL

Mat. ii.

WHEN Iesus was borne in Bethleē a city of Iury, in the tyme of Herode the kyng : Beholde there came wise men from the East to Ierusalē, sayyng : where is he that is borne king of Jewes? For we haue sene his starre in the East, and are come to worship him. When Herode the kyng had heard these thynges, he was troubled and all the citie of Ierusalem with him. And when he had gathered al the chief priestes and scribes of the people together, he demaunded of them where Christe shoulde be borne. And they said vnto him : at Bethleem in Iurie. For thus it is written by the prophete: And thou Bethleē in the land of Jury, art not the least among the princes of Iuda, for oute of thee there shall come vnto me the capitain that shal gouerne my people Israel. Then Herode (when he had priuely called the wise men) he inquired of them diligentely what time the starre appeared, and he bad them go to Bethleem, and said: go your waie thither and serche diligentelye for the childe. And when ye haue found him bring me woord again, that I maie come and worship him also. Whē they had heard the king, they departed: and loe, the starre whiche thei sawe in the Easte, wente beefore them tyll it came and stode ouer the place where the child was. When thei saw the starre, thei were exceedyng glad and wente into the house, and founde the child with Marie his mother, and fel downe flat and woorshipped him, and opened their treasures and offred vnto hym gyftes: Golde, Frankinsence and Mirre. And after they were warned of God in slepe (that they shoulde not go again to Herode) they returned into their owne countrey another waie.

HOW long wilt thou forget me, O Lord, for euer? Usque quo domine. Psal. xiii.
 howe long wilt thou hide thy face from me?
 Howe long shall I seke counsaile in my soule, and be so vexed in my heart? how long shal mine enemye triumph ouer me?

Consider and heare me, o lorde my God : lighten myne eyes that I slepe not in death.

Leste myne enemye saie, I haue preuailed againste him for if I be caste downe, they that trouble me will reioyce at.

But my trust is in thy mercye : and my harte is joyful in thy saluacion.

I wil sing of the lord, because he hath dealt so louingly with me : (ye I wyll prayse the name of the Lorde the moste highest.)

Glory be to the father. etc.

IBESECHE you therefore brethren, by the mercyfulnesse of God, that ye make youre bodies a quicke sacrifice ; holy and acceptable vnto God, which is your resonable seruyng of god, and fashion not your selves like vnto this world : but be ye chaunged in your shape by the renuing of your minde, that ye maie proue what thing that good and acceptable and perfect wil of god is. For I saye (throughe the grace that vnto me geuen is) to euerye man amonge you, that no man stand hygh in his owne conceite, more then it becommeth him to esteme of himself : but so judge of hym selfe, that he be gentle and sobre, accordyng as God hath dealt to euery man the measure of faith : for as we haue many membres in one body, and all membres haue not one office : so we being many, are one body in Christ, and euery mā amōg our selues, one anothers members.

THE GOSPEL

Luke. ii.

THE father and mother of Jesus wente to Hierusalem after the custome of the feast day. And whē they had fulfilled the dayes : as they returned home, the child Jesus abode stil in Jerusale ; and his father and mother knewe not of it : but they supposyng hym to haue beene in the cumpanye, came a dayes iourney, and sought him among their kinsfolke and acquaintaūce. And when they found him not, they went backe agayn to Jerusalem, and soughte him. And it fortuned that after three dayes, they founde him in the temple sitting in the middest of the doctours, hearyng them and posing them. And all that heard him were astonied at his vnderstanding and answers.

And when they saw him, they merueiled, and his mother sayd vnto hym : Sonne, why haste thou thus dealte with vs? Beholde thy father and I have sought thee sorow-
ing. And he said vnto them : how happened it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must go about my fathers busines? And they vnderstode not that saying, which he spake vnto them. And he went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient vnto them: but his mother kept all these sayinges together in her heart. And Jesus prospered in wisdō and age, and in fauour with god and mē.

AND the third daye was there a mariage in Cana a Iohn. ii. citie of Galyle, and the mother of Jesus was there. And Jesus was called (and hys disciples) vnto the mariage. And when the wine fayled, the mother of Jesus sayde vnto hym : they haue no wine. Jesus said vnto her : womā, what haue I to do with the? mine houre is not yet come. His mother said vnto the ministers : whatsoeuer he saieth vnto you, do it. And there were standing there vi. waterpottes of stone, after the maner of the purifying of the Jewes, conteinig ii. or iii. fyrkyns a peece. Jesus saide vnto them : fil the water pottes with water. And thei filled them vp to the brimme. And he saide vnto them : draw out now, and beare vnto the Gouvernour of the feast. And they bare it. Whē the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was turned into wine, and knew not whence it was (but the ministers, which drewe the water, knewe) he called the bridegrome, and said vnto him : Euerie man at the beginning doth set forth good wine, and when men be dronke, then that whiche is woorse, but thou hast kepte the good wine vntil now. This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galile, and shewed hys glorie, and his dysciples beleued on him.

And Jesus putte foorth his hande and touched hym, saying : I wil, bee thou cleane : and immediately his Leprosye was cleansed. And Jesus saide vnto hym, tell no manne, but goe and shew thy selfe to the priest, and offer the gift (that Moses commaunded to bee offered) for a witness vnto them.

And when Jesus was entred into Capernaum, there came vnto him a Cēturion, and besought him, saying : Maister, my seruauent lyeth at home sicke of the palsey, and is greuously pained. And Jesus said, whē I come vnto him I wil heale him. The Centurion aunswered, and said : Sir I am not woorthie that thou shouldeste come vnder my roofe: but speake the woorde onely, and my seruauent shal be healed. For I also am a mā subiect to the autoritie of another, and haue souldiers vnder me: and I say to this man, goe, and he goeth: and to an other man, come, and he cummeth: and to my seruauent doe thys, and he doeth it. When Jesus heard these wordes he merueiled, and saide to them that folowed him: verely I say vnto you, I haue not founde so great faith in Israel. I saye vnto you, that many shal come from the East, and Weste, and shall reste with Abraham, and Isaac and Jacob, in the kyngdome of heauen: but the children of the kyngdome shalbe caste out into vtter darkenes, there shalbe weping and gnashing of teeth. For rulers are not feareful to them that do good, but to them that do euil. Wylt thou be without feare of the power? do well then, and so shalt thou be praysted of the same: for he is the minister of God, for thy wealth. But and yf thou do that which is euill, then feare, for he beareth not the swerde for naught: for he is the minister of God to take vengeance on hym that doth euill. Wherefore, ye must nedes obey, not onely for feare of vengeance, but also because of conscience: and euen for this cause paye ye tribute, for they are Goddes ministers seruyng for the same purpose. AND when he entred into a ship, his disciples Mat. viii. folowed him. And behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuche that the ship was couered with waues, but he was a slepe. And his disciples came to him, and awoke hym, saying: Maister saue vs, we perishe. And he sayeth vnto them: why are ye fearfull; O ye of litle fayth? Then he arose, and rebuked the wyndes and the sea, and there folowed a great calme. But the men meruailed, saying: what maner of man is this, that both wyndes and sea obey hym? And when he was come to the other syde, into the countrey of the Gergesites, there met hym ij. possessed of deuils, whiche came out of the graves, and were out of measure fierce, so that no man might go by that way. And beholde; they cryed out, saying: O Jesu, thou sonne of God, what haue we to do with thee? Art thou come hither to torment vs before the tyme? And there was a good way of from them, a heerd of many Swine feding. So the deuils besought him saying: If thou cast vs out; suffre vs, to goe into the heerde of Swine. And he sayd vnto thē: go your wayes.

Then went they out and departed into the heerde of swyne. And behold, the whole heerde of swyne was caryed hedlong into the sea, and perished in the waters. Then they that kept them; fled, and went theyr wayes into the citie, and tolde euery thing, and what had happened vnto the possessed of the deuils. THE kyngdome of heauen is like vnto a manne Mat. xx. that is an housholder, whiche went out early in the mornyng to hyre laborers into his vyneyarde. And when the agrement was made with the laborers for a peny a day, he sent them into his vyneyarde. And he went out about the third houre and sawe other standyng idle in the market place, and sayd vnto them : Go ye also into the vyneyarde, and whatsoeuer is right, I will geue you. And they went theyr way. Againe he went out about the vj. and ix. houre, and did lykewise. And about the xi. houre he went out, and founde other standyng idle, and sayd vnto them : why stande ye here all the day idle? They sayd vnto hym : because no man hath hyred vs. He sayeth vnto them : Go ye also into the vyneyarde, and whatsoeuer is right, that shall ye receyue.

So, when euen was come, the lorde of the vyneyarde sayd vnto his steward : call the laborers and geue them their hyre, beginnyng at the last vntill the first. And when they did come that came about the xi. houre, they receiued euery man a penny : But when the first came also, they supposed they should haue receyued more, and they lykewyse receyued euery man a penny. And when they had receyued it, they murmured against the good man of the house, saying : these last haue wrought but one houre and thou hast made them equall with vs, whiche haue borne the burthen and heate of the day. But he answered vnto one of them, and sayd : Frende I do thee no wrong, diddest thou not agree with me for a penny? Take that thyne is, and go thy way : I wyll geue vnto this last, euen as vnto thee. Is it not lawfull for me to do as me lusteth with myne owne goodes? Is thyne eye euill because I am good? So the last shalbe first, and the first shalbe last. For many be called and fewe chosen.

Luc. viii.

WHEN muche people were gathered together, and were come to hym out of all cities, he spake by a similitude. The sower went out to sowe his seede : and as he sowed, some fell by the way syde, and it was troden doune, and the foules of the ayre deuoured it vp. And some fell on stones and assone as it was sprong vp, it withered awaye, because it lacked moystnes. And some fell among thornes and the thornes sprang vp with it and choked it. And some fell on good ground, and sprong vp and bare fruite an hundreth folde. And as he sayd these thinges, he cryed : he that hath eares to heare, let him heare. And his disciples asked hym, saying : what maner of similitude is this? And he sayd : vnto you it is geuen to know the kyngdome of God, but to other by parables, that when they see, they should not see, and when they heare, they should not vnderstande. The parable is this : The seede is the worde of God : those that are beside the way, are they that heare : then commeth the deuil and taketh the worde out of their hartes, leste they should beleue and be saued. They on the stones, are they whiche when they heare, receiue the woorde with ioye : and these haue no rotes, whiche for a while beleue, and in tyme of temptacion go away. And that whiche fell among thornes, are they whiche when they haue heard, go furth, and are choked with cares and riches, and voluptuous luyng, and bryng furth no fruite. That whiche fell in the good grounde, are they whiche with a pure and good heart, heare the woorde and kepe it and bryng furth fruite through pacience.

BE thou my iudge, O lorde, for I haue walked innocently : my trust hath been also in the lorde, therefore shal I not fal. Indica me domine. psal. xxvi.

Examyne me, O lorde, and proue me : trye out my reynes and my heart.

For thy louyng kyndnes is before myne eyes : and I will walke in thy trueth.

I haue not dwelt with vaine persons : neither wil I haue felowship with the deceiptful.

I haue hated the congregacion of the wicked : and will not syt among the vngodly.

I will washe my handes in innocency, O lorde : and so will I go to thine aulter.

That I may shewe the voyce of thankesgeuyng : and tell of all thy wonderous workes.

Lorde, I haue loued the habitation of thy house : and the place where thyne honor dwelleth.

O shut not vp my soule with the synners : nor my life with the bloudthursty,

In whose handes is wickednes : and their right hande is ful of giftes.

But as for me I will walke innocently : O lorde deliuer me, and be mercyful vnto me.

My foote standethe righte : I will praise the Lorde in the congregacions.

Glory be to the father. etc. As it was in the. etc.

i. Cor. xiii.

THOUGH I speake with the tongues of men and of angels, and haue no loue, I am euen as sounding brasse, or as a tynklyng Cimbal. And thoughe I could prophecy, and vnderstande all secretes, and al knowlege : yea, if I haue al faith, so that I could moue mountaines out of their places, and yet haue no loue, I am nothyng. And thoughe I bestowe all my goodes to fede the poore, and thoughe I gaue my bodye euen that I burned, and yet haue no loue, it profyteth me nothyng. Loue suffreth longe, and is curteous : loue enuieth not : loue dothe not frowardly, swelleth not, dealeth not dishonestly, seketh not her owne, is not prouoked to anger, thynkethe none euyl, reioysethe not in iniquitie. But reioyseth in the trueth, suffereth all thynges, beleueth all thynges, hopeth all thynges, endureth all thynges. Thoughe that prophecying fayle, either tongues cease, or knowlege vanishe awaye, yet love falleth neuer awaye. For our knowlege is vnperfecte, and our prophecying is vnperfecte : But when that, which is perfect, is come, then that whiche is vnperfect shallbee done awaye. When I was a childe I spake as a chylde : I vnderstode as a childe : I imagined as a chylde. But assone as I was a man, I put away childishnes. Nowe we see in a glasse, euen in a darke speakyng : but then shall wee see face to face. Nowe I knowe vnperfectely, but then shall I know euen as I am knowen. Nowe abideth fayth, hope, and loue : euen these thre : but the chiefe of these is loue.

IESUS toke vnto him the xii. and sayd vnto them : beholde, we go vp to Jerusalem, and all shalbe full-fylled that are written by the Prophetes, of the sōne of man. For he shalbe deliuered vnto the gentyles, and shalbe mocked and despitefully intreated and spitted on. And when they haue scourged him, they will put hym to death, and the third day he shall ryse again. And they vnderstode none of these thinges. And this saying was hyd from them, so that they perceyued not the thynges whiche were spoken. And it came to passe, that as he was come nigh vnto Hierico, a certain blinde mā sate by the hye way side, beggyng. And when he heard the people passe by, he asked what it meant. And they sayd vnto him, that Jesus of Nazareth passed by. And he cried saying : Jesu thou sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on me. And they whiche went before rebuked hym, that he should holde his peace. But he cryed so muche the more, thou sonne of Dauid haue mercy on me. And Jesus stode styll, and commaunded him to be brought vnto hym. And when he was come nere, he asked hym, saying : what wilt thou that I do vnto the ? and he sayd : Lord, that I may receyue my sight. And Jesus sayd vnto him, receiue thy syght, thy fayth hath saued thee. And immediatly, he receyued his syght, and folowed hym, praysing God. And all the people when they saw it, gaue praise vnto God.

WE as helpers exhort you, that ye receiue not ii. Cor. vi. the grace of God in vayne. For he sayeth, I haue heard thee in a tyme accepted : and in the daye of saluacion haue I succoured thee. Beholde nowe is that accepted time : beholde nowe is that daye of saluacion. THEN was Iesus led awaye of the spirite into Math. iiii. wyldernes, to be tempted of the deuyll. And when he had fasted fourty dayes and fourty nightes, he was at the last an hungred. And when the tempter came to hym, he sayd : yf thou be the sonne of God, commaunde that these stones be made bread. But he aunswered and sayd : it is wrytten, man shall not lyue by bread only, but by euery worde that procedeth out of the mouthe of God.

Then the deuill taketh hym vp into the holy cytye, and setteth hym on a pynacle of the temple, and sayeth vnto him : if thou be the sōne of God, cast thy self downe hedlong. For it is wrytten : he shall geue his Aungels charge ouer thee, and with their hādes they shall holde thee vp, leste at any tyme thou dashe thy foote against a stone. And Jesus sayed vnto hym : it is written agayne : Thou shalt not tempte the Lorde thy God.

Agayne, the deuill taketh hym vp into an excedyng high mountayne, and sheweth hym all the kyngdomes of the worlde, and the glory of them, and sayeth vnto hym : all these wyll I geue thee, if thou wylt fall downe and wurship me. Then sayeth Jesus vnto hym : Auoide Sathā, for it is wrytten : Thou shalt wurshyp the Lord thy God, and hym onely shalt thou serue. Then the deuill leaueth hym, and beholde, the Aungels came and ministred vnto hym.

For this is the wyll of God, euen youre holynes, that ye should abstayne from fornicacion, and that euery one of you should knowe howe to kepe his vessel in holines and honoure, and not in the luste of concupiscence as do the Heathen, whiche knowe not God : that no man oppresse and defraude his brother in bergaining : because that the lorde is the auenger of all suche thynges, as we tolde you before and testified. For God hath not called vs vnto vncleennesse, but vnto holines. He therfore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, whiche hathe sente his holye spirite among you.

JESUS went thence, and departed into the coastes of Tyre and Sidon: and behold, a woman of Canaan (whiche came out of the same coastes) cried vnto hym, saying: haue mercye on me, O Lorde, thou sonne of Dauid: My daughter is pyteously vexed with a deuell. But he aunswered her nothing at all. And his disciples came and besought hym, saying: sende her awaye, for she cryeth after vs. But he aunswered, and saied: I am not sent, but to the lost shepe of the house of Israell. Then came she and worshipped hym, saying: Lorde, helpe me. He aunswered and saied: it is not mete to take the childrens bread and cast it to dogges. She aunswered and saied: trueth Lorde, for the dogges eate of the crummes whiche fall from their maisters table. Then Jesus aunswered and sayed vnto her: O woman, great is thy faith, be it vnto thee, euen as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole euen at the same tyme.

BE you the folowers of God as dere children, and Eph. v. walke in loue, euen as Christe loued vs, and gaue himselfe for vs an offering and a sacrifice of a swete sauour to god. As for fornicacion and all vnclennes or couetousnes, let it not be once named among you, as it becommeth saintes: or fylthynes or folishe talking or iesting, whiche are not comely, but rather geuing of thanks. For this ye knowe, that no whoremōger, either vncleane person, or couetous persō (which is a worshipper of ymages) hathe anye inheritaunce in the kingdome of Christ and of God. Let no man deceiue you with vaine wordes. For because of suche thynges, commeth the wrath of God vpon the chyldren of disobedience. Be not yetherfore companions of them. Ye were sometime darckenes, but nowe are ye light in the lorde: walke as children of light, for the fruite of the spirite consisteth in all goodnes, and righteousnesse, and truthe.

Accepte that whiche is pleasyng vnto the Lorde, and haue no felowship with the vnfruitful workes of darcknes, but rather rebuke them. For it is a shame euen to name those thynges, whiche are done of them in secrete: but all thinges when they are brought forth by the light are manifest. For whatsoever is manifest, thesame is lyght : wherfore he sayeth, awake thou that slepest, and stande vp from death, and Christ shall geue thee light.

JESUS was casting out a deucl that was dōme. And when he had cast out the deucl, the dōme spake, and the people wondered. But some of them saied : he casteth out deuils through Belzebub the chiefe of the deuils. And other tempted him, and required of him a signe from heauen. But he knowyng their thoughtes, sayed vnto them : Euery kyngdome deuided against it selfe, is desolate : and one house doth fall vpon another. If Sathan also be deuided againste hymselfe, howe shall his kyngdome endure ? Because ye saye that I cast out deuils through Belzebub : If I by the helpe of Belzebub caste oute deuils, by whose helpe do your chyldren caste them oute ? Therfore shall they be youre iudges. But if I with the fynger of God caste out deuils, no doubt the kingdome of God is come vpon you. When a strong man armed watcheth his house: the thinges that he possesseth are in peace. But when a stronger then he commeth vpon hym, he taketh from hym all his harnes (wherin he trusted) and deuideth his goodes. He that is not with me, is against me. And he that gathereth not with me, scattereth abroad. When the vncleane spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through drye places, sekyng rest. And when he fyndeth none, he sayeth : I wyll returne agayne into my house whence I came out. And when he commeth, he fyndeth it swepte and garnished. Then goeth he and taketh to hym vii. other spirites worse then himselfe : and they entre in and dwell there. And the ende of that man is worse then the beginning. And it fortuneth that as he spake these thinges, a certaine woman of the company lifte vp her voice, and saied vnto hym : happy is the wombe that bare thee, and the Yea, and he which was borne of the bond woman, was borne after the fleshe : but he whiche was borne of the frewoman, was borne by promes : Whiche thinges are spoken by an allegory. For these are two testamētes, the one from the mount Sina, whiche gendreth vnto bondage, whiche is Agar : For mount Sina is Agar in Arabia, and bordreth vpon the citie, which is now called Jerusalem, and is in bondage with her children. But Jerusalem, whiche is aboue, is free whiche is the mother of vs al. For it is wrytten, reioyce thou barren that bearest no children : breake forth and crye, thou that trauiylest not. For the desolate hath many moe children then she whiche hath an husbande. Brethren, we are after Isaac the chyldren of promes. But as then, he that was borne after the fleshe persecuted hym that was borne after the spirite : Euen so is it now. Neuerthelesse, what sayeth the scripture? put awaye the bonde woman and her sonne. Philip aunswered him : two hundreth peniwoorthe of bread are not sufficient for them, that euery manne may take a litle. One of his disciples (Andrew, Simō Peters brother) saith vnto him : There is a lad here which hath fyue barley loaues and twoo fyshes: but what are they among so many? And Jesus sayde : make the people sit downe. There was muche grasse in the place : so the men sate downe, in number about fyue thousand. And Jesus toke the bread, and when he had geuen thankes, he gaue to the Discyple, and the Discyple to them that were set downe : and lykewyse of the fyshes asmuche as they woulde. When they had eaten inough, he sayde vnto his Discyple : gather vp the broken meate whiche remayneth, that nothing be lost. And they gathered it together and filled xii. baskets with the broken meate of the fyue barly loaues : which broken meate remayned vnto them that had eaten. Then those men (when they had seene the miracle that Jesus did) sayde : this is of a trueth the same prophete that shoulde come into the worlde.

THE COLLECT

ALMIGHTIE and euerlastyng God, whiche of thy tender loue towarde man, haste sente our sauior Jesus Christ to take vpon him oure fleshe, and to suffre death vpon the crosse, that all mankynde shoulde folowe the example of his greate humilitie : mercifully graunte, that we both folowe the example of his pacience, and be made partakers of his resurreccion, thorough the same Jesus Christ our lorde.

THE EPISTLE

LET thesame mynde bee in you, that was also in Christ Jesu : which when he was in the shape of God, thought it no robbery to be equal wyth God : neuerthelesse he made himselfe of no reputacion, takyng on him the shape of a seruaunte, and beecame like vnto men, and was founde in his apparel as a man. He humbled himselfe and became obediente to the death, euen the death of the crosse. Wherefore, God hath also exalted him on high, and geuen him a name whiche is aboue all names : that in the name of Jesus euery knee shoulde bowe, both of thinges in heauen, and thynges in yearth, and thinges vnder the yearth, and that all tōgues shoulde confesse that Jesus Christe is the lorde, vnto the prayse of God the father.

THE GOSPELL

AND it came to passe, when Jesus had finished all these sayinges, he sayd vnto his disciples: ye knowe that after two dayes shalbe Easter, and the sonne of man shalbe deliuered ouer to bee crucified. Then assembled together the chiefe Priestes, and the Scribes, and the Elders of the people vnto the palace of the high priest (which was called Cayphas) and helde a counsayl that they might take Jesus by subteltie, and kill him. But they sayd: not on the holy daye, leste there be an vproare among the people. Mat. xxvi.

When Jesus was in Bethany in the house of Simon the Leper, there came vnto hym a woman hauyng an Alabaster boxe of precious oyntment, and powred it on his head, as he sate at the bourde. But when his disciples sawe it, they had indignacion, saying: whereto serueth this wast? This oyntment might haue been well solde and geuen to the poore. When Jesus vnderstode that, he sayd vnto them: why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good worke vpon me. For ye haue the poore alwayes with you: but me ye shall not haue alwayes. And in that she hath cast this oyntment on my body, she did it to bury me. Verely I say vnto you: whersoever this gospell shalbe preached in al the worlde, there shall also this that she hath done, be tolde for a memoriall of her. Then one of the xii. (whiche was called Judas Iscarioth) went vnto the chiefe priestes, and sayd vnto them: what will ye geue me, and I will deliuer hym vnto you? And they appointed vnto him xxx. pieces of siluer. And from that tyme furth he sought oportunitie to betray hym. The first day of swete bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying vnto him: where wilt thou that we prepare for thee, to eate the Passeouer? And he sayd: Go into the citie, to suche a man, and say vnto him, the Maister sayth: my tyme is at hand, I will kepe my Easter by thee with my disciples. And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them, and they made ready the passeouer. When the euen was come, he sate doune with the xii. And as they did eate, he sayd: Verely I say vnto you, that one of you shall betray me. And they were exceding sorowful, and began euery one of them to say vnto him: Lorde, is it I? he answered and sayd: he that dippeth his hād with me in the dishe, thesame shal betraye me. The sonne of man truely goeth, as it is written of him: but woe vnto that man by whom the sonne of man is betrayed. It had been good for that man, if he had not been borne. Then Judas, which betraied him, answered and sayd: Maister, is it I? He said vnto him: thou hast sayd. When they were eatyng, Jesus toke bread, and when he had geuen thanks, he brake it and gaue it to the disciples, and sayd: Take, eat, this is my body. And he tooke the cuppe, and thanked, and gaue it them, saying: drinke ye all of this: For this is my bloud (whiche is of the newe testament) that is shed for many, for the remission of synnes. But I say vnto you: I will not drinke hencefurth of this fruite of the vyne tree, vntyll that day when I shall drynke it newe with you, in my fathers kyngdome. And when they had sayd grace, they went out vnto mount Oliuete. Then sayth Jesus vnto them: all ye shalbe offended because of me this night. For it is written: I will smyte the shepherde, and the shepe of the flocke shalbe scattered abroad: but after I am rysen again, I will go before you into Galilee. Peter answered and sayd vnto him: though all men be offended because of thee, yet wil not I be offended. Jesus sayd vnto him: verely I say vnto thee, that in this same night before the cocke crowe: thou shalt deny me thrise. Peter sayd vnto him: yea, though I should dye with thee, yet will I not deny thee: lykewyse also said all the disciples.

Then came Jesus with thē vnto a farmeplace, (which is called Gethsemane) and sayd vnto the disciples: Syt ye here, whyle I go and pray yonder. And he tooke with him Peter and the two sonnes of Zebede, and began to waxe sorowfull and heauy. Then sayd Jesus vnto thē : My soule is heauy euen vnto the death : Tary ye here and watche with me. And he went a little farther and fell flat on his face, and prayed, saying : O my father if it be possible, let this cup passe from me : neuerthelesse, not as I will, but as thou wilt. And he came vnto the disciples and found them a slepe, and sayd vnto Peter: what, could ye not watche with me one houre? Watche and praye, that ye entre not into temptacion : the spirite is willyng, but the fleshe is weake. He went away once againe and prayed, saying: O my father, yf this cup may not passe away frō me except I drinke of it, thy wil be fulfilled: and he came and found them a slepe agayne, for their eyes were heauy. And he left them, and went againe and prayed the third tyme, saying thesame woordes. Then cōmeth he to his disciples, and sayth vnto them: Slepe on now and take your rest. Behold, the houre is at hand, and the sonne of man is betrayed into the handes of synners. Ryse, let vs be goyng: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

While he yet spake : lo, Judas one of the nombre of the xij. came, and with him a great multitude with sweordes and stauies sent from the chief priestes and elders of the people. But he that betrayed hym, gaue them a token, saying : whomsoeuer I kysse, thesame is he, holde hym fast. And furthwith he came to Jesus, and sayd : hayle Maister, and kyssed him. And Jesus sayd vnto hym: frend, wherfore art thou come? Then came they and layde handes on Jesus, and toke him. And beholde, one of them whiche were with Jesus, stretched out his hand and drew his sworde, and stroke a seruaunt of the hye Priest, and smote of his eare. Then sayd Jesus vnto hym : put vp thy sworde into the sheath, for all they that take the sworde, shall perishe with the sworde. Thynkest thou that I cannot nowe pray to my father, and he shall geue me euen nowe more then xij. legions of Angelles? But howe then shall the scriptures bee fulfilled? For thus must it be. In that same houre sayd Jesus to the multitude : ye be come out as it were to a thefe with swordes and staues, for to take me. I sate dayly with you teaching in the temple, and ye tooke me not. But all this is done that the scriptures of the Prophetes might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsoke him, and fled. And they toke Jesus and led him to Cayphas the hye Priest, where the Scribes and the Elders were assembled.

But Peter folowed hym a far of vnto the hye priestes palace : and went in and sate with the seruauntes to see thende. The chiefe priestes and the elders and all the counsail sought false wytnesse against Jesus (for to put hym to death) but found none : yea, when many false wytnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came ij. false wytnesses, and sayd : This felow sayd : I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to buylde it againe in iij. dayes. And the chiefe priest arose, and sayd vnto him : aunswerest thou nothing ? Why do these beare wytnes against thee ? But Jesus helde his peace. And the chiefe priest aunswered and sayd vnto him. I charge thee by the lyuing God, that thou tel vs, whether thou be Christ the sonne of God. Jesus sayd vnto hym : thou hast sayd. Neuerthelesse I say vnto you : hereafter shall ye see the sonne of man sitting on the right hand of power, and comming in the cloudes of the skye. Then the hye priest rent his clothes, saying : he hath spoken blasphemy, what nede we of any mo wytnesses ? Behold, now ye haue heard his blasphemy : what thinke ye ? They aunswered and sayd : he is worthy to dye. Then did they spyt in his face, and buffeted him with fystes. And other smote him on the face with the palme of theyr handes, saying : tel vs thou Christ, who is he that smote thee ? Peter sate without in the palace, and a damosel came to him, saying : thou also wast with Jesus of Galile : but he denied before thē al, saying : I wot not what thou sayest. When he was gone out into the porche, another wenche sawe him, and sayd vnto them that were there : This felow was also with Jesus of Nazareth. And agayne he denied with an othe, saying: I do not know the man. And after a while came vnto him they that stode by, and sayd vnto Peter: surely thou art euē one of thē, for thy speche bewrayeth thee. Then began he to curse and to sweare, that he knewe not the man. And immediatly the cocke krew. And Peter remembred the worde of Jesu, whiche sayd vnto him: before the cocke krow, thou shalt deny me thrise: and he went out and wept bitterly.

When the mornynge was come, all the chiefe priestes and the elders of the people helde a cōsail against Jesus, to put hym to death, and brought him bound, and deliuered hym vnto Pontius Pylate the deputie. Then Judas (whiche had betrayed him) seyng that he was cōdemned, repēted himselfe, and brought againe the xxx. plates of siluer to the chief priestes and elders, saying: I haue synned, betraying the innocent blood. And they sayd: what is that to vs? Se thou to that. And he cast downe the siluer plates in the temple, and departed, and went and hāged him selfe. And the chief Priestes toke the siluer plates, and said: It is not lawfull for to put them into the treasure, because it is the price of blood. And thei toke councell and bought with them a potters felde to burie straungers in. Wherefore the felde is called Haceldema, that is, the felde of blood, vntill this day. Then was fulfilled that whiche was spoken by Jeremie the prophet, saying: and thei toke xxx. siluer plates, the price of him that was valued, whom they bought of the children of Israel, and gaue them for the potters felde, as the Lord appointed me. Mat. xxvii.

Jesus stode before the deputie, and the deputie asked hym, saying: Art thou the king of the Jewes? Jesus sayde vnto hym: thou sayest. And when he was accused of the chief priestes and elders, he answered nothyng. Then said Pilate vnto hym: hearest thou not howe many witnesses they laye agaynste thee? And he answered him to neuer a worde: in so muche that the deputie maruayled greatly. At that feaste, the deputie was woont to delyuer vnto the people a prisoner, whom they would desire. He had then a notable prisoner called Barrabas. Therefore, when they were gathered together, Pylate sayd : whether wyll ye that I geue loce vnto you Barrabas, or Jesus whiche is called Christ? For he knewe that for enuy they had deliuered him. When he was set doune to geue iudgement, his wyfe sent vnto him, saying : haue thou nothyng to do with that iust man : For I haue suffred many thynges this day in my slepe, because of hym. But the chiefe priestes and Elders perswaded the people that they shoulde aske Barrabas, and destroy Jesus. The deputie answered, and sayd vnto them : whether of the twayne wyll ye that I let loce vnto you? They sayd : Barrabas. Pylate sayd vnto them : what shal I do then with Jesus, which is called Christ? They all sayd vnto hym : let hym be crucified. The deputie sayd : what euill hath he done? But they cried the more, saying : let hym be crucified. When Pylate sawe that he could preuayle nothyng, but that more busynes was made, he toke water and washed his handes before the people, saying : I am innocent of the bloud of this iust person, ye shall see. Then answered all the people and sayd : his bloud be on vs, and on our children.

Then let he Barrabas loce vnto them, and skourged Jesus, and deliuered hym to be crucified. Then the souldiers of the deputie toke Jesus into the common hall, and gathered vnto hym all the company : and they stripped hym, and put on hym a purple robe, and platted a croune of thornes, and put it vpon his head, and a rede in his right hāde, and bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying : hayle kyng of the Jewes : and when they had spyt vpō him, thei toke the rede and smote him on the head. And after that they had mocked him, they toke the robe of him agayne, and put his owne rayment on him, and led him away to crucifie him. And as they came out they found a mā of Cirene (named Symon) him they compelled to beare his crosse. And they came vnto the place whiche is called Golgotha, that is to say (a place of dead men sculles) and gaue hym vyneger to drynke myngled with gall. And when he had tasted therof, he would not drynke. When they had crucified hym, they parted his garmentes, and did cast lottes: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophet: They parted my garmentes among them and vpon my vesture did they cast lottes. And they sate and watched hym there, and set vp ouer his head the cause of his death written: This is Jesus the kyng of the Jewes. Then were there ij. theues crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left. They that passed by, reuyled him waggyng their heades, and saying: thou that destroyedst the temple of God, and dyddest buyld it in thre daies, saue thy selfe. If thou be the sonne of God, come doune from the crosse. Likewise also the high Priestes, mockyng hym, with the Scribes and Elders, sayd: he saued other, hymselfe he cannot saue. If he be the kyng of Israel, let hym now come doune from the crosse, and we will beleue hym. He trusted in God, let him deliuer him now, if he wyll haue him, for he sayd: I am the sonne of God. The theues also whiche were crucifyed with him, cast the same in his teethe. From the sixt houre was there darkenesse ouer all the lande, vntill the nynth houre. And aboute the nynth houre, Jesus cryed with a loude voyce, saying: Ely, Ely, lamasabathany? that is to say: My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? Some of them that stode there, when they heard that, sayd: This man calleth for Helias. And straight way one of them ranne and toke a sponge, and when he had fylled it full of vyneger, he put it on a reede, and gaue hym to drinke. Other sayd: let be, let vs see whether Helias will come and deliuer hym. Jesus, when he had cried agayne with a loude voyce, yelded vp the ghost. And beholde, the vayle of the temple did rent into two partes, from the top to the botome, and the yerth did quake, and the stones rent and graues did open, and many bodies of saintes, whiche slept, arose and went out of the graues after his resurreccion, and came into the holy citie, and appeared vnto many.

When the Centurion, and they that were with him watchyng Jesus, sawe the yerthquake and those thynges whiche happened, they feared greatly, saying: Truely, this was the sōne of God. And many women were there (beholdyng him a farre of) whiche folowed Jesus from Galilee, ministring vnto him: Emong whiche was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedes children.

THE EPISTLE

Esai. xliiii.

WHAT is he this, that commeth from Edom, with red colored clothes of Bosra? (whiche is so costly clothe) and commeth in so mightely with all his strength? I am he that teacheth righteousnes and am of power to help. Wherefore then is thy clothyng red, and thy rayment lyke his that treadeth in the wyne presse? I haue troden the presse my selfe alone, and of all people there is not one with me.

Thus will I tread doune myne enemies in my wrath, and sette my feete vpon them in mine indignacion. And their blood shall bespryng my clothes, and so wil I stayne all my rayment. For the day of vengeance is assigned in my heart, and the yere when my people shalbe deliuered is come. I looked aboute me, and there was no man to shewe me any helpe. I meruayled that no man helde me vp. Then I helde me by myne owne arme, and my feruentnes sustayned me. And thus will I tread doune the people in my wrath, and bathe theim in my displeasure, and vpon the eyarth will I lay their strength.

I wil declare the goodnes of the lorde, yea and the praise of the Lorde for all that he hath geuen vs, for the great good that he hath done for Israel: whiche he hath geuen them of his owne fauor, and accordyng to the multitude of his louyng kyndnesses. For he sayd: these no doubt are my people and no shrinkyng children, and so he was their sauior. In their troubles, he was also troubled wyth them: and the Angell that wente furth from his presence, deliuered them. Of very loue and kyndnes that he had vnto them, he redemed them. He hath borne them and caried them vp, euer sence the worlde began: But after they prouoked him to wrath and vexed his holy mynde, he was their enemy and fought againste them hymselfe. Yet remembred Israell the olde tyme of Moses and hys people, sayng: where is he that broughte them from the water of the sea, with them that fedde his shepe? where is he that hath geuen his holy spirit among them? he led thē by the righthand of Moses, with his glorious arme: deuidyng the water before them (whereby he gate hym selfe an euerlastyng name) he led them in the depe, as an horsse is led in the playne, that they shoulde not stumble, as a tame beast goeth in the felde: and the breath geuen of God, geueth him rest.

Thus (O God) hast thou led thy people, to make thy selfe a glorious name withall. Looke doune then from heauen, and beholde the dwellyng place of thy sanctuary and thy glory. Howe is it that thy gelousy, thy strengthe, the multitude of thy mercyes and thy louynge kyndnes, will not be intreated of vs? yet art thou oure father. For Abraham knoweth vs not, neither is Israell acquaynted with vs: But thou Lord, art our father and redemer, and thy name is euerlastyng. O Lorde, wherefore haste thou led vs out of thy way? wherefore hast thou hardened our heartes that we feare thee not? Be at one with vs againe for thy seruauntes sake, and for the generacion of thyne heritage. Thy people haue had but a litle of thy Sanctuary in possession, for oure enemyes haue troden doune the holy place. And we were thyne from the beginnyng, when thou wast not their Lorde, for they haue not called vpon thy name.

THE GOSPEL

Mar. xiii.

AFTER two daies was Easter, and the dayes of swet bread. And the hie priestes and the Scribes sought how they might take him by crafte, and put him to death. But they sayde : not in the feast daye, leste any busines arise among the people. And when he was at Bethany in the house of Symon the leper, euen as he sate at meat, there came a womā hauyng an Alabaster boxe of oyntmente called Narde, that was pure and costly : and she brake the boxe and powred it vpon his head. And there were some that were not contente within them selues, and sayde : what neded this waste of oyntment? for it mighte haue been solde for more then ccc. pence, and haue been geuen vnto the poore. And they grudged agaynste her. And Jesus sayde : let her alone, why trouble ye her? She hath done a good worke on me : for ye haue poore with you alwayes, and whensoever ye wyll, ye may do them good : but me haue ye not alwayes. She hath done that she coulde, she came afore hād to anoynte my body to the buriyng. Verely I saye vnto you : whersoever this Gospell shalbe preached throughout the whole worlde, this also that she hath done, shalbe rehearsed in remembraunce of her.

And Judas Iscariot, one of the xii. went awaye vnto the hie priestes to betraye hym vnto them. When they hearde that, they were glad, and promised that they woulde geue him money. And he soughte howe he mighte conueniently betraye hym. And the fyrste daye of swete bread (when they offered Passeouer) his disciples sayde vnto him : where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou maōest eat the Passeouer? And he sēt furth two of his disciples, and sayd vnto them : go ye into the citie, and there shall mete you a man bearyng a pitcher of water, folowe him. And whithersoever he goeth in, saye ye vnto the goodman of the house, the master sayth : where is the gest chāber, where I shall eate Passeouer with my disciples?

And he wil shew you a great parlour pauer and prepared : there make ready for vs. And hys Disciples wente furth and came into the citie, and founde as he had sayd vnto them : and they made ready the passeouer. And whē it was now euentide, he came with the xii. And as they sate at boorde and did eate, Jesus sayd : verely I say vnto you, one of you (that eateth with me) shall betraye me. And they began to be sory, and to say to him one by one : is it I? and an other sayd : is it I? he aunswered and sayd vnto them : it is one of the xii. euen he that dippeth with me in the platter. The sonne of man truely goeth as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whome the sonne of man is betrayed : Good were it for that man if he had neuer bene borne. And as they dyd eate, Jesus tooke breade, and when he had geuen thanks he brake it, and gaue to them, and sayd : Take, eate, this is my bodye. And he toke the cup, and when he had geuen thanks, he tooke it to them, and they all dranke of it. And he sayd vnto them : Thys is my bloude of the new testament, whiche is shed for many. Verelye I saye vnto you : I will drynke no more of the fruycte of the vyne, vntyll that day that I drinke it newe in the kingdome of God. And when they had sayde grace, they wente oute to the mount Oliuete.

And Jesus sayeth vnto them : all ye shall be offended because of me, this night. For it is written : I will smite the shepeherd and the shepe shall bee skatered : but after that I am risen agayn, I will goe into Galile before you. Peter sayd vnto him : and though all men be offended, yet wil not I. And Jesus sayth vnto him : verely, I say vnto the, that this day, euen in this night before the Cocke krowe twice, thou shalt denie me thre times. But he spake more vehementlye : no, if I shoulde dye with thee, I will not deny thee. Lykewise also sayde they all. And they came into a place whiche was named Gethsemany, and he sayd to his disciples: sit ye here while I goe asyde and pray. And he taketh with hym Peter, and James, and John, and began to waxe abashed and to be in an agonye, and sayd vnto them. My soule is heauy, euē vnto the death: tary ye here and watche. And he wente furth a litle and fell downe flat on the ground, and prayed: that if it were possible, the houre might passe from hym. And he sayd: Abba father, al thinges are possible vnto the, take away this cup from me: neuerthelesse, not that I will, but that thou wilte bee doone. And he came and founde them sleping, and sayth to Peter: Simon slepest thou? Couldste thou not watche one houre? watche ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptacion, the spirite truely is ready, but the flesh is weake. And again he went aside and praied and spake the same wordes. And he returned and found them a slepe agayne, for they iyes were heauye, neyther wiste they what to aunswere him. And he came the third time and sayde vnto them: slepe hencefoorth and take your ease, it is inoughe. The houre is come, beholde the sonne of man is betrayed into the handes of sinners: Rise vp, let vs goe: loe, he that betrayeth me is at hande. And immediately while he yet spake, cummeth Judas (which was one of the xii.) and with him a great nounge of people with sweordes and staues, from the hye priestes, and Scribes, and elders. And he that betrayed hym, had geuen them a generall token, sayng: whosoeuer I doe kysse, thesame is he: take hym and leade hym awaye warely. And assone as he was come, he goth streght way to him, and saith vnto him: Master, Master, and kissed him: and they layed their handes on hym, and toke hym. And one of them that stode by drewe out a sweord, and smote a seruante of the hye prieste, and cut of his eare. And Jesus aūswered, and said vnto them: ye be come out as vnto a thefe with sweordes and staues for to take me: I was dayly with you in the temple teachyng, and ye toke me not:

but these thynges come to passe that the Scriptures shoulde be fulfilled. And they al forsooke hym and ranne awaie. And there folowed him a certaine yong man clothed in linnen vpon the bare, and the yong men caughte hym, and he left his linnen garmente and fled from them naked. And they led Jesus awaye to the higheste pryeste of all, and with hym came all the hie priestes and the Elders and the Scribes. And Peter folowed hym a greate waye of (euen tyll he was come into the palace of the hye prieste) and he sate with the seruauntes, and warmed hymselfe at the fyre. And the hie priestes and all the counsaile sought for witnes against Jesu, to put hym to deathe, and founde none: for manye bare false witnesse againste hym, but theyr witnesses agreed not together. And there arose certayn and brought false witnes against hym, sayng: wee hearde hym saye, I wyll destroye this temple that is made with handes, and within iii. daies I wyll buylde another made withoute handes. But yet their witnesses agreed not together. And the hye prieste stode vppe among them, and asked Jesus, saying: aunswereste thou nothyng? Howe is it that these beare witnesse against the? But he helde his peace, and answered nothing. Againe the hie priest asked him and said vnto him: art thou Christ the sonne of the blessed? And Jesus said: I am. And ye shal see the sonne of manne sitting on the righte hande of power, and comming in the cloudes of heauen. Then the hie priest rent his clothes, and said: what nede we any further of wytresses? ye haue heard blasphemy, what thynke ye? And they all cōdemned him to be worthy of death. And some began to spyt at hym and to couer his face, and to beate him with fistes, and to saye vnto hym: arede, and the seruauntes buffeted hym on the face. And as Peter was beneth in the palace, there came one of the wenches of the hieste prieste, and when she sawe Peter warmyng hymselfe, she loked on hym, and said: waste not thou also with Jesus of Nazareth? And he denied, saying : I knowe hym not, neyther wote I what thou sayest. And he wēt out into the porche, and the Cock krewē. And a damosel (when she sawe him) began again to saye to them that stode by : thys is one of them. And he denied it againe. And anone after they that stode by, said againe vnto Peter : surely, thou art one of them, for thou art of Galile, and thy speche agreeth therto. But he beganne to curse and to sweare, saying : I knowe not this man of whom ye speake. And agayne the Cocke krewē, and Peter remembred the worde that Jesus had sayed vnto hym : before the Cocke crowe twyse, thou shalt deny me thre tymes. And he began to wepe.

THE EPISTLE

Esai. 1.

THE Lorde God hath opened myne eare, therfore can I not saye naye, neither withdrawe my selfe : but I offer my backe vnto the smiters, and my chekes to the nyppers. I turne not my face from shame and spitting, and the Lorde God shall helpe me : therfore shall I not bee confounded. I haue hardened my face lyke a flynte stone, for I am sure that I shall not come to confusion. He is at hande that iustifyeth me, who will then go to lawe with me? Let vs stande one against another : yf there be any that will reason with me, lette hym come here forth vnto me. Beholde the Lorde God standeth by me, what is he then that can condemne me : loe, they shall bee all lyke as an olde clothe, the mothe shall eat them vp.

Therfore, whoso feareth the Lorde among you, lette hym heare the voyce of his seruante. Whoso walketh in darkenesse, and no lyght shyneth vpon him, lette him put his trust in the name of the Lorde, and holde hym by his God : but take hede, ye all kyndle a fyre of the wrath of God, and steare vp the coales : walke on in the glistering of youre owne fyre, and in the coales that ye haue kindled. This commeth vnto you from my hande, namely that ye shall slepe in sorowe.

THE GOSPELL

ANND anone in the dawning, the hye priestes Mar. xv. helde a counsaile with the Elders and the Scribes, and the whole congregacion, and bounde Jesus, and led hym awaye, and delyuered hym to Pilate. And Pilate asked hym : art thou the kyng of the Jewes ? and he answered and said to hym : thou saiest it. And the hie priestes accused him of many thynges. So Pilate asked him again, sayng : aunswerest thou nothing ? Beholde howe many thinges they lay to thy charge. Jesus aunswered yet nothyng, so that Pilate meruailed. At that feast Pilate dyd deliuer vnto them a priesoner, whomesoeuer they woulde desire. And there was one that was named Barrabas, whiche laye bounde with them that made insurreccion : he had committed murther. And the people called vnto him, and beganne to desyre him, that he woulde doe according as he had euer done vnto them. Pilate answered them, sayng : will ye that I lette loce vnto you the king of the Jewes ? For he knewe that the hye priestes had deliuered him of enuye. But the hye pryestes moued the people, that he shoulde rather deliuer Barrabas vnto them. Pilate answered againe, and saide vnto them : what will ye that I then do vnto hym, whom ye cal the kyng of the Jewes ? And they cryed againe, crucifye hym. Pilate saide vnto them : what euill hathe he doone ? And they cryed the more feruentlye, crucifie hym. And so Pilate wylling to contente the people, lette loce Barrabas vnto them, and deliuered vp Jesus (when he had scorged hym) for to be crucified. And the souldiours ledde hym awaye into the common hall, and called together the whole multitude, and they clothed hym with purple, and they platted a croune of thornes and crowned him withall, and began to salute him :

Hayle kyng of the Jewes. And they smote hym on the head with a reede, and did spit vpon him, and bowed their knees and worshyped him. And when they had mocked him, they toke the purple of him, and put hys owne clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him. And they compelled one that passed by called Simō of Cirene (the father of Alexander and Rufus) whyche came out of the feld to beare his crosse. And they brought hym to a place named Golgotha (whiche if a manne interprete it, is the place of dead mens sculles) and they gaue him to drinke, wyne mingled with mirre, but he receaued it not.

And when they had crucified hym, they parted hys garmentes, castyng lottes vpon them what euery man should take. And it was about the third houre, and they crucified him. And the title of hys cause was wrytten : The kyng of the Jewes. And they crucified with hym two theues : the one on his right hand, and the other on hys left. And the scripture was fulfilled, which sayeth : he was couēd among the wicked. And they that went by, rayled on him : wagging their heades and saying : A wretche, thou that destroyest the temple and buildest it againe in thre dayes : saue thy selfe and come doune from the crosse. Lykewyse also mocked hym the hye priestes among them selues with the scribes, and sayd : he saued other men, him selfe he cannot saue. Let Christ the king of Israel descende nowe from the crosse, that we maye see and beleue. And they that were crucified with hym, checked hym also. And when the sixt houre was come, darcknes arose ouer all the earth, vntil the ninth houre. And at the nynth houre Jesus cryed with a loude voyce, saying : Eloy, Eloy, lamasabathany? whyche is (if one interprete it) my God, my God, whyhast thou forsaken me? And some of them that stooode by, when they heard that, sayd : behold he calleth for Helias. And one ranne and fylled a sponge full of vineger, and put it on a reede, and gaue hym to dryncke, sayyng : let him alone, let vs se whether Helias will come and take hym downe. But Jesus cryed with a loude voyce, and gaue vp the gost. And the vayle of the temple rente in ii. peces, from the top to the bottom. And when the Centurion (which stode before him) sawe that he so cryed, and gaue vp the gost, he sayde : truely this man was the sonne of god. There were also weomen a good way of, beholding him : among whome was Marye Magdalene and Marye the mother of James the litle, and of Joses, and Mary Salome (which also whē he was in Galile had folowed him, and ministred vnto him) and many other weomē, which came vp with him to Jerusalem. And nowe when the euen was come (because it was the day of preparyng that goeth before the Sabboth) Joseph of the citie of Aramathia, a noble counsailour, which also loked for the kingdome of God, came and went in boldely vnto Pilate, and begged of hym the body of Jesu. And Pilate merueiled that he was alreedy dead, and called vnto hym the Centurion, and asked of him, whether he had bene any while dead. And when he knewe the trueth of the Centurion, he gaue the bodye to Joseph. And he bought a linnen cloth, and toke him down, and wrapped him in the linnen cloth, and laied him in a sepulchre that was hewen out of a rocke, and rolled a stone before the dore of the sepulchre. And Mary Magdalene, and Mary Joses behelde where he was layde.

THE EPISTLE

WHERE as is a testament, there must also (of Heb. ix. necessitie) be the death of him that maketh the testament. For the testament taketh auctoritie whē men are dead : for it is yet of no value, as long as he that maketh the testament is a liue, for whiche cause also, neither the first testament was ordayned without bloude. For when Moyses had declared all the commaundemente to all the people, according to the lawe, he tooke the bloude of calues and of Goates, with water and purple wolfe, and ysope, and sprinckled both the booke and al the people, saying: this is the blood of the testament, which god hath appoynted vnto you. Moreouer he sprinkled the tabernacle with bloude also, and all the ministring vessels. And almost all thinges are by the lawe purged with blood, and without sheading of bloude is no remission. It is nede then, that the similitudes of heauenlye thynges bee purifyed with suche thinges: but that the heauenly thynges themselves, bee purifyed with better sacrifices thē are those. For Christ is not entred into the holye places that are made with handes (whiche are similitudes of true thynges) but is entred into very heauen, for to appeare now in the sight of god for vs: not to offer himselfe often, as the hie priest entreth into the holye place euerye yere with straunge blood: for then must he haue oftē suffred sence the world began. But now in the end of the world hath he appeared once, to put sinne to flight by the offering vp of hym selfe. And as it is appoynted vnto al men that they shal once dye, and then cometh the iudgement: euen so Christ was once offered to take away the sinnes of many, and vnto them that looke for hym, shall he appeare agayne without sinne, vnto saluacion.

THE GOSPEL

Luke: xxii.

THE feast of swete bread drew nye, which is called Easter, and the hie priestes and Scribes sought howe they myght kill him, for they feared the people. Then entred Sathan into Judas, whose sirname was Iscarioth (whiche was of the numbere of the xii.) and he went his waye and commoned with the hie priestes and officers, how he might betray hym vnto them. And they were glad, and promysed to geue him moneye. And he consented, and sought oportunitie to betraye him vnto them, when the people were awaye. Then came the daye of swete bread, when of necessitie passeouer must be offred. And he sent Peter and John, saying: go and prepare vs the passeouer that we maye eate. They sayed vnto him: where wilt thou that we prepare? And he saied vnto them: behold, when ye entre into the citie, there shall a man mete you bearing a pitcher of water, him folowe into thesame house that he entreth in, and ye shall saye vnto the good man of the house: the maister saieth vnto the: where is the gest chambre where I shall eate the passeouer with my disciples? And he shall shewe you a great parlour paued: there make ready. And they went and found as he had sayed vnto them, and they made ready the passeouer. And when the houre was come, he sate doune, and the xii. Apostles with him. And he sayed vnto them: I haue inwardly desired to eate this passeouer with you, before that I suffre. For I saye vnto you: henceforth I wyll not eate of it any more, vntill it be fulfilled in the kingdome of God. And he tooke the cup, and gaue thankes and sayed: Take this and deuide it amōg you. For I saye vnto you: I wyll not drinke of the fruite of the vine vntill the kingdome of God come. And he toke bread, and when he had geuen thankes, he brake it, and gaue vnto them, saying: This is my body, whiche is geuen for you: This do in the remembraunce of me. Likewise also when he had supped, he tooke the cup, saying: This cup is the new testamente in my bloude, whiche is shed for you. Yet beholde the hande of him that betrayeth me, is with me on the table. And truely the sonne of man gooeth as it is appoynted: but woe vnto that manne, by whome he is betrayed. And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do it.

And there was a striefe among them, whiche of them shoulde seme to bee greatteste. And he sayde vnto them: the kynges of nacions reigne ouer them, and they that haue authoritye vpon them, are called gracious Lordes: but ye shall not so bee. But he that is greatteste among you, shal bee as the yonger, and he that is chiefe shalbe as he that doth minister. For whether is greater he that sitteth at meate, or he that serueth? Is it not he that sitteth at meate? But I am among you, as he that ministreth. Ye are they whiche haue bydden with me in my temptacions. And I appointe vnto you a kyngdome, as my father hath apointed to me, that ye may eate and drynke at my table in my kyngdome, and sitte on seates iudgyng the xii. tribes of Israell. And the lorde said: Simon, Simon behold, Sathan hath desired to sift you, as it were wheat: But I haue praied for thee, that thy faith fayle not. And when thou arte conuerted, strength thy brethren. And he saide vnto hym: Lorde I am readye to go with thee into prieson, and to death. And he said: I tel thee Peter, the Cocke shall not krow this daye, tyl thou haue thrise denied that thou knoweste me. And he sayde vnto them: when I sent you without wallette and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thyng? And they said, no. Then saide he vnto them: but nowe he that hath a wallet, lette him take it vppe, and likewyse hys scrippe. And he that hath no sworde, let hym sell his coate and by one. For I saye vnto you, that yet thesame whiche is written, must be performed in me: euen among the wicked was he reputed: For those thinges whiche are written of me haue an ende. And they sayde: lorde, behold, here are ii. swordes, and he saide to them: it is ynoughe. And he came oute, and wente (as he was wonte) to Mounte Oliuete. And the disciples folowed hym. And when he came to the place, he saide vnto them: pray, leste ye fal into temptacion. And he gate hym selfe from them aboute a stoness cast, and kneled doune and praied, sayng: Father, if thou wylte, remoue thys cup from me: Neuerthelesse, not my will, but thyne bee fulfilled. And there appeared an Aungel vnto hym from heauen, coumfortyng hym. And he was in an agony and prayed the lenger: and his sweate was like droppes of bloud, trickling down to the groūd. And when he arose from prayer, and was come to hys disciples, he founde them slepyng for heauinesse, and he sayde vnto them: why slepe ye? Ryse and praye, leste ye fall into temptacion. Whyle he yet spake, beholde, there came a company, and he that was called Judas, one of the xii. went before them, and preased nye vnto Jesus, to kisse him. But Jesus sayde vnto him: Judas, betrayeste thou the sonne of man with a kysse? When they whiche were about hym sawe what woulde folowe, they sayde vnto him: Lorde, shall we smyte with the sweorde? And one of them smote a seruaunte of the hye prieste, and stroke of his right eare. Jesus aunswered and sayde: suffre ye thus farre foorth. And when he touched hys eare, he healed hym. Then Jesus sayde vnto the hye priestes, and rulers of the temple, and the Elders, whiche were come to him. Ye be come out as vnto a thefe with sweordes and staues. When I was dayly with you in the temple, ye stretched foorth no handes agaynste me: but thys is euen your very houre, and the power of darkenes. Then toke they him and led hym, and brought him to the hye priestes house. But Peter folowed a farre of. And when they had kindled a fyer in the middes of the palace, and were set downe together: Peter also sate downe among them. But when one of the wenches behelde him, as he sate by the fyer (and loked vpon him) she sayd: this same felowe was also with hym. And he denyed him, saying: woman, I knowe him not. And after a litle whyle, another sawe him, and sayde: thou art also of them. And Peter sayd: man, I am not. And about the space of an houre after, an other affirmed, saying: verely, thys felowe was with him also, for he is of Galile. And Peter said: man, I wot not what thou sayeste. And immediately whyle he yet spake, the Cocke krew. And the Lorde turned backe and looked vpon Peter. And Peter remembred the word of the lord, how he had sayde vnto him : before the Cocke krowe thou shalt denye me thrise : and Peter wente out and wept bitterly.

And the men that toke Jesus mocked him, and smote him : and whē they had blindfolded him, they stroke him on the face, and asked hym, saying : arede, who is he that smote thee? And many other thynges despitefully sayde they agaynst him. And assone as it was daye, the Elders of the people, and the hye priestes and Scribes, came together, and led hym into theyr counsell, saying : Art thou very Christ? tell vs. And he sayd vnto them : if I tell you ye will not beleue me, and if I aske you, you will not answer me, nor let me goe : hereafter shal the sonne of mā sit on the right hande of the power of god. Then sayd they all : Art thou then the sonne of god? he sayde : ye saye that I am. And they sayd : what nede we of any further witnes : for we our selues haue heard of his owne mouth.

THE EPISTLE

i Cor. xi.

THIS I warne you of, and commende not, that ye come not together after a better maner, but after a woorse. For fyrste of all, when ye come together in the congregacyon : I heare that there is discencion among you, and I partly beleue it. For there muste bee sectes amonge you, that they whiche are perfecte among you maye be knowen. When ye come together therfore into one place, the lordes supper cānot be eaten, for euery man beginneth afore to eate his owne supper. And onē is hungry, and another is dronken. Haue ye not houses to eate and drynke in? despise ye the congregacion of God, and shame them that haue not? what shall I say vnto you? shall I praise you? In this I praise you not. That whiche I deliuered vnto you, I receyued of the Lord. For the Lord Jesus, thesame night in whiche he was betrayed, tooke bread: and when he had geuen thanks, he brake it, and sayd: Take ye and eate, this is my body, which is broken for you.

This do ye in the remembraunce of me. After thesame maner also, he tooke the cup whē supper was done, saying: this cuppe is the new testament in my blood. This do, as oft as ye drynke it, in remembraunce of me. For as often as ye shall eate this bread, and drinke this cup, ye shall shewe the Lordes death tyll he come. Wherefore, whosoeuer shall eate of this bread, or drynke of the cup of the Lorde vnworthely, shalbe giltye of the bodye and blood of the Lord. But let a man examine himselfe, and so let hym eate of the bread, and drynke of the cuppe. For he that eateth and drynketh vnworthely, eateth and drynketh his owne damnacion, because he maketh no difference of the Lordes body. For this cause many are weake and sicke among you, and many slepe. For if we had iudged our selues, we should not haue been iudged. But when we are iudged of the Lord, we are chastened, that we should not be damned with the worlde. Wherefore my brethren, when ye come together to eate, tary one for another. If any mā hongre, let him eate at home, that ye come not together vnto condemnacion. Other thynges will I set in ordre when I come.

THE GOSPELL

THE whole multitude of them arose, and led hym Luc. xxiii. vnto Pylate. And they began to accuse him, saying: we founde this felowe peruertyng the people, and forbydding to paye tribute to Cesar, saying that he is Christe a kyng. And Pylate apposed hym, saying : art thou the king of the Jewes ? he answered him and sayd : thou sayest it. Then said Pilate to the hye priestes and the people : I fynde no faute in this manne. And they were the more fierce, saying : he moueth the people, teachyng throughout all Jury, and began at Galile, euen to this place. When Pylate heard mencion of Galile, he asked whether the manne were of Galile. And assone as he knew that he belonged vnto Herodes iurisdiccion, he sent hym to Herode, whiche was also at Jerusalem at that tyme. And when Herode sawe Jesus, he was excedyng glad, for he was desirous to see hym of a long season, because he had heard many thynges of hym, and he trusted to haue seen some myracle done by hym. Then he questioned with hym many wordes. But he answered hym nothyng. The hye priestes and Scribes stode furth and accused hym straightly. And Herode with his menne of warre, despised hym. And when he had mocked hym, he arayed hym in whyte clothing, and sente hym againe to Pylate. And thesame daye Pylate and Herode were made frendes together. For before thei were at variaūce. And Pilate called together the hye priestes, and the rulers, and the people, and sayd vnto them : ye haue brought this mā vnto me, as one that peruerteth the people : and behold, I examine him before you, and finde no faute in this mā of those thynges wherof ye accuse him, no nor yet Herode : For I sent you vnto him, and loe, nothing worthy of death is done vnto him : I will therfore chasten him, and let hym looce. For of necessitie he must haue let one loce vnto thē at that feast. And all the people cryed atonce, saying : away with him, and deliuer vs Barrabas : (whiche for a certayne insurreccion made in the citie, and for a murther, was cast in prisō.) Pilate spake again vnto thē, willing to let Jesus looce. But they cryed, saying : crucifye hym, crucifye hym. He sayed vnto them the thirde tyme, what euyll hath he done? I fynde no cause of death in hym : I will therfore chasten him and let him go. And they cried with loude voices : requiring that he myght be crucified. And the voices of them and of the hie priestes preuailed. And Pilate gaue sentence that it shoulde be as they required, and he let loce vnto them him that (for insurreccion and murther) was cast into pryson, whom they had desired: and he deliuered to them Jesus, to do with hym what they would. And as they led him away, they caught one Symon of Ciren commyng out of the felde: and on him laide they the crosse, that he myght beare it after Jesus. And there folowed him a great cōpanye of people, and of womē, which bewayled and lamented him. But Jesus turned backe vnto them, and sayd : ye daughters of Jerusalem, wepe not for me : but wepe for your selves and for your children. For behold, the dayes wyll come, in the which they shall say : Happy are the baren, and the wombes that neuer bare, and the pappes which neuer gaue sucke. Then shall they begynne to saye to the mountaynes : fall on vs, and to the hylles, couer vs. For if they do this in a grene tree, what shalbe done in the drye? And there were two euyll doers led with him to be slaine. And after that they were come to the place (which is called Caluarie) there they crucyfied him and the euill doers, one on the ryght hand, and the other on the left. Then said Jesus, father forgeue them, for they wote not what they do. And they parted hys rayment and cast lottes. And the people stode and behelde. And the rulers mocked hym with them, sayng : he saued other menne, lette hym saue hymselfe yf he be very Christ the chosen of God.

The souldiers also mocked him, and came and offred him vineger, and sayd : if thou be the kyng of the Jewes, saue thy selfe. And a superscripciō was writtē ouer him, with letters of Greke, and Latin, and Hebrue: this is the kyng of the Jewes. And one of the euil doers which wer hanged, railed on him, sayng : If thou be Christ, saue thy selfe and vs. But the other answered and rebuked hym, saiyng : fearest thou not God, seyng thou art in the same damnacion? we are righteously punyshed, for we receiue according to our dedes : but this man hath done nothing amysse. And he sayd vnto Jesus : Lorde, remembre me when thou comdest into thy kyngdom. And Jesus sayd vnto hym : verely I saye vnto thee : to daye shalt thou be with me in Paradise. And it was about the vi. houre : and there was a darkenesse ouer all the earth, vntyll the ix. houre, and the Sonne was darkened. And the vayle of the temple did rent, euē through the middes. And when Jesus had cryed with a loude voice, he sayd : father, into thy handes I commende my spirite. And when he thus had said, he gaue vp the ghost. When the Centurion saw what had happened, he gloryfied God, saiyng : verely, this was a righteous man. And all the people that came together to that syght, and sawe the thynges which had happened, smote their brestes and returned. And all his acquaintaunce, and the women that folowed him from Galilee, stode a farre of beholdyng these thynges. And behold, there was a man named Joseph a consailor, and he was a good man and a iust : the same had not consented to the counsaill and dede of them, which was of Aramathia, a citie of the Jewes, which same also waited for the kyngdome of God : he went vnto Pylate and begged the bodye of Jesus, and tooke it doune, and wrapped it in a lynnē cloth, and layd it in a sepulchre that was hewen in stone, wherin neuer man before had beene layde. And that daye was the prepanyng of the sabboth, and the Sabboth drue on. The women that folowed after, whyche had come with him from Galilee, behelde the sepulchre, and howe hys body was layde. And they returned and prepared swete Odours and ointmentes : But rested on the Sabboth daye, accordyng to the commaundement.

THE COLLECT

ALMIGHTIE god, we beseche thee graciously to behold this thy famely : for the which our lord Jesus Christ was contented to bee betrayed, and geuen vp into the handes of wicked men, and to suffre death vpon the crosse : who liueth and reigneth. etc.

AT THE COMMUNION

MY God, my God (loke vpō me :) why hast thou Deus, deus meus.
forsaken me, and art so farre from my health, Psal. xxii.
and from the wordes of my complaint?

O my God, I cry in the daye time, but thou hearest not : and in the night season also I take no reste.

And thou continuest holy : O thou worship of Israel.

Oure fathers hoped in thee, they trusted in thee : and thou diddest deliuer them.

They called vpō thee, and were helped : they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.

But as for me, I am a worme and no manne : a verye skorne of men, and the outcaste of the people.

All they that see me, laugh me to skorne : they shote out their lippes, and shake the head, saying.

He trusted in God that he would deliuer hym : let hym deliuer him if he will haue hym.

But thou arte he that tooke me oute of my mothers wombe : thou waste my hope when I hanged yet vpon my mothers brestes.

I haue been left vnto thee euer sence I was borne : thou art my God, euen from my mothers wombe.

O, go not from me, for trouble is here at hande : and there is none to helpe me.

Many Oxen are come aboute me : fat Bulles of Ba-san close me in on euery syde.

They gape vpon me with their mouthes : as it were a rampyng and roaryng Lyon.

I am powred out like water, and all my bones are out of ioynt : my heart also in the middes of my body is euen like meltyng waxe.

My strength is dried vp like a potsherd, and my tōgue cleaueth to my gummess : and thou shalte bryng me into the duste of death.

For (many) dogges are come aboute me : and the counsail of the wicked laye siege against me.

They pearsed my handes and my feete : I may tell all my bones, they stande staryng and lokyng vpon me.

They parte my garmentes among them : and cast lottes vpon my vesture.

But be not thou farre from me, O Lorde : thou art my succour, haste thee to helpe me.

Deliuier my soule from the sworde : my derlyng from the power of the dogge.

Saue me from the Lyons mouth : thou hast heard me also from among the hornes of Unicornes.

I will declare thy name vnto my brethren : in the myddes of the congregacion will I prayse thee.

O prayse the Lorde, ye that feare hym : magnifie him all ye of the seede of Jacob, and feare ye him all ye seede of Israel.

For he hath not despised nor abhorred the lowe estate of the poore : he hath not hid his face from him, but when he called vnto him, he heard him.

My prayse is of thee in the greate congregacion : my vowes wil I performe in the sight of them that feare him.

The poore shal eate and be satisfied : they that seke after the Lorde shall praise him, your heart shall liue for euer.

All the endes of the worlde shal remembre themselues and be turned vnto the Lorde : and all the kynreds of the nacions shal woorship before him.

For the kyngdome is the Lordes : and he is the gouernour among the people.

All suche as be fat vpon yearth : haue eaten and woorshipped.

All they that go doune into the dust shal kneele before him : and no man hath quickened his owne soule.

My seede shal serue him : they shalbe counted vnto the Lorde for a generacion.

They shall come, and the heauens shall declare his righteousnes : vnto a people that bee borne, whome the Lorde hath made.

Glory be to the fater, and to the sonne. etc.

As it was in the beginning. etc.

¶ After the ii. Collectes at the Communion, shalbe sayd these
ii. Collectes folowyng.

THE COLLECTE

ALMYGHTEY and euerlastyng God, by whose spirite the whole body of the Churche is gouerned and sanctified : receiue our supplicacions and prayers, whiche wee offre before thee for all estates of men in thy holye congregacion, that euerye membre of thesame, in his vocation and ministerye, maye truelye and godlye serue thee, thoroughe our Lord Jesus Christe.

MERCYFULL God, who hast made all men, and hatest nothyng that thou hast made, nor wouldest the deathe of a synner, but rather that he should be conuerted and liue: haue mercy vpon all Jewes, Turkes, Infidels, and heretikes, and take from the all ignoraunce, hardnes of heart, and contempt of thy word : And so fetcche them home, blessed Lorde, to thy flocek, that they maye bee saued among the remnant of the true Israelites, and be made one folde, vnder one shepherde, Jesus Christ our Lord : who lyueth and reigneth. etc.

THE EPISTLE

Heb. x.

THE lawe (whiche hath but a shadowe of good thynges to come, and not the very fashion of thynges themselues) can neuer with those sacrifices, whiche they offre yere by yere continually, make the cōmers therunto perfite. For woulde not then those sacrifices haue ceased to haue been offred, because that the offerers once purged, should haue had no more consciēce of sinnes: Neuertheles, in those sacrifices is there mencion made of synnes euery yere. For the blood of Oxen and of Goates cannot take away sinnes. Wherefore, when he commeth into the worlde, he sayeth: Sacrifice and offeryng thou wouldest not haue, but a body hast thou ordained me. Burnt offerings also for sinne hast thou not allowed. Then sayed I: lo, I am here. In the beginning of the booke it is written of me, that I should do thy wil, O God. Aboue, when he sayeth, Sacrifice and offeryng, and burnt sacrifices, and synne offerynges, thou wouldest not haue, neither hast thou allowed them (whiche yet are offered by the lawe) then sayed he: lo, I am here to do thy wyll, O God: he taketh awaye the first to establishe the later, by the whiche will, we are made holye, euen by the offeryng of the bodye of Jesu Christ once for all.

And euery priest is ready daily ministring and offering often tymes one manner of Oblacion, whiche can neuer take awaye sinnes. But this man, after he hath offered one sacrifice for sinnes, is set doune for euer on the righte hand of God, and from hencefoorth tarieth tyll his foes be made his footestoole. For with one offeryng hathe he made perfect for euer, them that are sanctified. The holye ghost himselfe also beareth vs recorde, euen when he told before: This is the testament that I wil make vnto thē: After those dayes (sayth the lord) I wil put my lawes in their heartes, and in their myndes wil I write them, and their sinnes and iniquities will I remembre nomore.

And where remission of these thinges is, there is nomore offering for sinnes. Seeing therefore brethren, that by the meanes of the bloud of Jesu, we haue liberty to enter into the holy place by the newe and liuyng waye, which he hath prepared for vs, through the vayle (that is to saye, by his fleshe :) And seing also that we haue an hye priest whiche is ruler ouer the house of God, let vs drawe nye with a true heart in a sure fayth, sprinkeled in our heartes from an euil conscience, and washed in our bodies with pure water : Let vs kepe the profession of our hope, with out wauering (for he is faythfull that promised) and let vs considre one an other, to the intent that we may prouoke vnto loue, and to good weorkes, not forsakyng the felowship that we haue among our selues, as the maner of some is : but lette vs exhorte one an other, and that so muche the more, because ye see that the day draweth nye.

THE GOSPEL

WHEN Jesus had spoken these woordes, he went John, xviii. furth with his disciples ouer the broke Cedron where was a garden, into the whiche he entred with his disciples. Judas also whiche betrayed him, knewe the place : for Jesus ofte tymes resorted thither with hys disciples. Judas then after he had receiued a bend of men (and ministers of the hye priestes and Phariseis) came thither with Lanterns and fyerbrandes and weapons. And Jesus knowing al thinges that should come on him, went furth, and said vnto thē : whome seke ye ? They answered him : Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus sayeth vnto them : I am he. Judas also whiche betrayed him, stode with them. Assone then as he had sayde vnto them : I am he, they went backward, and fel to the ground. Then asked he them again : whome seke ye ? They saide : Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus aunswered : I haue tolde you that I am he. If ye seke me therefore, let these goe theyr way : that the saying might be fulfilled whiche he spake : Of them whiche thou gauest me, haue I not lost one.

Then Simon Peter hauing a sword, drew it, and smote the hye priestes seruauant, and cut of his right eare.

The seruauntes name was Malchus. Therefore sayeth Jesus vnto Peter, put vp thy sweorde into thy sheath: shall I not drinke of the cup whiche my father hath geuen me? Then the cumpany and the capitayne, and the ministers of the Jewes, toke Jesus and bound him, and led him away to Anna first: for he was father in law to Cayphas, whiche was the hye priest the same yere. Cayphas was he that gaue coũsel to the Jewes, that it was expedient that one man shoulde dye for the people. And Simon Peter folowed Jesus, and so dyd another disciple: that disciple was knowen to the hye priest, and wēt in with Jesus into the palace of the hye priest. But Peter stode at the doore without. Then wente out that other disciple (whiche was knowen to the hye priest) and spake to the damosell that kept the doore, and broughte in Peter. Then said the damosel that kept the doore vnto Peter: Art not thou also one of this mā's disciples? he sayd, I am not. The seruauntes and ministers stode there, whiche had made a fyre of coales: for it was colde, and they warmed themselues. Peter also stode among them and warmed himselfe. The hye priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of hys doctryne. Jesus aunswered him: I spake openly in the worlde, I euer taughte in the Synagoge, and in the tēple, whither al the Jewes haue resorted, and in secrete haue I sayd nothing. Why askest thou me? Aske them whiche heard me, what I sayde vnto them. Beholde they can tell what I sayde. When he had thus spoken, one of the ministers, whiche stode by, smote Jesus on the face, saying: Aunswerest thou the hie priest so? Jesus aunswered him: If I haue euill spoken, beare witnesse of the euill: But if I haue well spoken, why smitest thou me? And Annas sent him bounde vnto Cayphas the hye priest. Simon Peter stode and warmed himselfe. Then sayde they vnto him. Art not thou also one of his disciples? he denied it, and said: I am not. One of the seruantes of the hye priestes (his cosin whose eare Peter smote of) said vnto him: did not I se thee in y^e garden with him? Peter therfore denied againe, and immediatly the Cocke crewe. Then led they Jesus from Cayphas into the hal of iudgement. It was in the morning, and they themselves wēt not into the iudgement hall, leste thei should be defiled, but that thei might eate the Passeouer. Pylate then went out to them and sayd: what accusation bryng you against this mā? They answered, and sayd vnto him: If he were not an euil doer, we would not haue deliuered hym vnto thee. Then sayd Pylate vnto them: take ye him and iudge him after your owne lawe. The Jewes therfore sayd vnto him: It is not lawful for vs to put any man to death: that the woordes of Jesus myght bee fulfilled, whiche he spake, signifying what death he should dye. Then Pilate entred into the iudgemēt hal again, and called Jesus, and sayd vnto him: Art thou the king of the Jewes? Jesus answered: sayest thou that of thy self, or did other tel it thee of me? Pilate answered: am I a Jew? Thine owne naciō and hye priestes haue deliuered thee vnto me: what hast thou done? Jesus answered: my kingdome is not of this worlde: if my kingdome were of this worlde, then woulde my ministers surely fight, that I should not be deliuered to the Jewes: but now is my kyngdom not frō hence. Pilate therfore sayd vnto him: Art thou a kyng then? Jesus answered: thou sayest that I am a kyng. For this cause was I borne, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should beare wytnes vnto the trueth. And all that are of the trueth, heare my voyce. Pylate sayd vnto hym: what thyng is truth? And whē he had sayd this, he wēt out again vnto the Jewes, and sayth vnto thē. I finde in him no cause at al. Ye haue a custome that I should deliuer you one loce at Easter: wil ye that I loce vnto you y^e king of the Jewes? Then cryed they all again, saying: Not him, but Barrabas: the same Barrabas was a murtherer. Then Pilate toke Jesus therfore, and scourged hym. And the souldiers ^{John xix.} wōud a croune of thornes, and put it on his head. And thei did on hym a purple garment, and came vnto hym and sayed: hayle kyng of the Jewes: and they smote hym on the face. Pylate went furth againe, and sayed vnto them: behold, I bring him furth to you that ye may know that I finde no faulte in hym. Then came Jesus forth, wearyng a croune of thorne, and a robe of purple. And he sayth vnto them: beholde the man. When the hye priestes therfore and ministers sawe hym, they cryed: crucifye hym, crucifye him. Pylate sayeth vnto them: take ye hym and crucifye hym, for I fynde no cause in hym. The Jewes aunswered hym: we haue a lawe, and by oure lawe, he ought to dye: because he made himselfe the sonne of God. When Pilate heard that saying, he was the more afrayde, and went agayne into the iudgement halle, and sayeth vnto Jesus: whence art thou? But Jesus gaue him none answer. Thē sayd Pilate vnto him: Speakest thou not vnto me? knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, and haue power to looce thee? Jesus answered: Thou couldest haue no power at all against me, except it were giuē thee frō aboue. Therefore he that deliuered me vnto thee, hath the more sinne. And from thēce furth sought Pilate meanes to looce him: but the Jewes cryed, saying: yf thou let hym goe, thou arte not Cesars frende: for whosoeuer maketh hymselfe a kyng is against Cesar. Whē Pilate heard that saying, he brought Jesus furth, and sate downe to geue sentence in a place that is called the Pauemēt, but in the Hebrue tong Gad-batha. It was the preparyng daye of Easter, aboute the vi. houre. And he sayeth vnto the Jewes: beholde youre kyng. They cryed, saying: away with hym, away with hym, crucifye hym. Pylate sayeth vnto them: shall I crucify your king? The hye priestes aunswered: we haue no kyng but Cesar. Then deliuered he him vnto them to be crucified. And they tooke Jesus and ledde hym away. And he bare his crosse, and wente furthe into a place whiche is called the place of dead mennes sculles: but in Hebrue Golgotha : where they crucifyed hym, and two other with hym : on eyther syde one, and Jesus in the midst. And Pilate wrote a tyle and put it on the crosse. The wrytyng was, Jesus of Nazareth kyng of the Jewes. This tyle read many of the Jewes : for the place where Jesus was crucified, was nye to the cytie. And it was wrytten in Hebrue, Greke, and Latyn. Then sayed the hye priestes of the Jewes to Pilate : wryte not kyng of the Jewes, but that he sayed : I am kyng of the Jewes. Pylate aunswered : what I haue written, that haue I written. Then the souldiers, when they had crucifyed Jesus, toke his garmentes and made iiii. partes, to euery souldiour a part, and also his coate. The coate was without seme, wrought vpon throughout : They sayed therfore among themselues : let vs not deuyde it, but cast lottes for it, who shall haue it. That the scripture might be fulfylled, saying : They haue parted my raymente among them, and for my coate did they cast lottes. And the souldiours did suche thynges in dede. There stode by the crosse of Jesus, his mother and his mothers sister Mary the wyfe of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus therfore sawe his mother, and the discyple standyng, whom he loued, he sayeth vnto his mother : woman, behold thy sonne. Then sayd he to the discyple, beholde thy mother. And from that houre the discyple toke hir for his owne.

After these thynges, Jesus knowing that all thynges were nowe performed, that the scripture myght be fulfylled, he sayeth : I thirst. So there stode a vessell by full of vineger : therfore they fylled a sponge with vineger, and wounde it aboute with Isope, and put it to his mouthe. Assone as Jesus then receyued of the vineger, he sayed : It is finished, and bowed his head and gaue vp the gost.

The Jewes therfore, because it was the preparyng of the Sabbath, that the bodyes should not remayne vpon the crosse on the Sabbath daye (for that Sabbath daye, was an hye daye) besought Pylate, that their legges might be broken, and that they might be taken downe.

Then came the souldiours and brake the legges of the firste and of the other whiche was crucified with hym. But when they came to Jesus, and sawe that he was dead already, they brake not his legges: but one of the souldiours with a speare thrust him into the syde, and forth with came there out bloud and water. And he that sawe it bare recorde, and his recorde is true. And he knoweth that he sayeth true, that ye might beleue also. For these thynges were done that the scripture should be fulfilled: ye shall not breake a bone of hym.

And againe an other scripture sayth: they shall loke upon him, whom they haue pearced. After this Joseph of Aramathia (which was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for feare of the Jewes) besought Pylate that he myght take downe the bodye of Jesus. And Pylate gaue hym lycence: He came therfore and tooke the bodye of Jesus. And there came also Nicodemus (whiche at the begynning came to Jesus by night) and brought of Myrre and Aloes mingled together, aboute an hundreth pounce weight. Then tooke they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linnen clothes with the odoures, as the maner of the Jewes is to burye. And in the place where he was crucified, there was a garden, and in the garden a newe Sepulchre, wherein was neuer manne layde. There layde they Jesus therfore, because of the preparying of the Sabbath of the Jewes, for the Sepulchre was nye at hande.

AT THE COMMUNION

O LORDE God of my saluacion, I haue cryed day and nyght before thee : O lette my prayer entre into thy presence, incline thyne eare vnto my callyng. Domine deus salutis. Psal. lxxxviii.

For my soule is ful of trouble : and my lyfe draweth nye vnto hell.

I am counted as one of them that go downe vnto the pytte : and I haue been euen as a man that hathe no strengthe.

Free among the deade, lyke vnto them that bee wounded and lye in the graue, whiche be out of remembraunce : and are cut awaye from thy hande.

Thou hast layed me in the lowest pytte, in a place of darcknes : and in the depe.

Thyne indignacion lyeth harde vpon me : and thou hast vexed me with all thy stormes.

Thou hast put awaye myne acquayntaunce far from me : and made me to be abhorred of them.

I am so fast in pryson : that I can not get forth.

My sight fayleth for very trouble : lorde I haue called dayly vpon thee, I haue stretched oute my handes vnto thee.

Doest thou shewe wonders among the deade? or shall the dead ryse vp agayne and prayse thee?

Shal thy louyng kyndenes be shewed in the graue? or thy faithfulness in destruccion?

Shal thy wonderous workes be knowen in the darke?

and thy righteousnes in the land where all thinges are forgotten?

Unto thee haue I cried, O Lord : and earlye shall my praier come before thee.

Lorde, why abhorrest thou my soule? and hideste thou thy face from me?

I am in misery, and like vnto him that is at the point to dye : (euen from my youth vppe) thy terrours haue I suffred with a troubled minde.

Thy wrathfull displeasure goeth ouer me : and the feare of thee, hath vndone me.

They came rounde aboute me dayely lyke water : and compassed me together on euery syde.

My louers and frendes haste thou put awaye from me : and hyd myne acquayntaunce out of my syght.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne : and to the holy ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and euer shalbe : worlde without ende. Amen.

THE EPISTLE

i. Pet. iii.

IT is better (if the wyll of God be so) that ye suffre for wel doing then for euil doing. Forasmuch as Christe hath once suffered for synnes, the Just for the uniuert, to bring vs to God : and was killed as partaynyng to the fleshe, but was quickened in the spirite. In which spirite he also went and preached to the spirites that were in pryson, which somtyme had bene disobedient, when the long suffryng of God was once loked for in the dayes of Noe, whyle the Arke was a pre-paryng : wherin afewe, that is to saye, eyght soules were saued by the water, lyke as Baptysme also now saueth vs : not the puttyng awaie of the fylth of the fleshe, but in that a good conscience consenteth to God by the resurreccion of Jesus Christ, whiche is on the right hand of God : and is gone into heauen : Angels, powers, and myght subdued vnto hym.

THE GOSPELL

WHEN the Euen was come, there came a riche Mat. xxvii. man of Aramathia named Joseph, whiche also was Jesus disciple. He went vnto Pilate and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commaūded the body to be deliuered. And when Joseph had taken the bodye, he wrapped it in a cleane linnen clothe, and layde it in his newe Tombe, whiche he had hewen out euen in the rocke, and rolled a great stone to the doore of the Sepulchre, and departed. And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary sytting ouer against the Sepulchre. The nexte day that foloweth the day of preparing, the high priestes and Phariseis came together vnto Pilate, saying : Sir, we remembre that this deceyuer sayed while he was yet alyue : After iii. dayes I wil rise agayne : Commaunde therfore, that the Sepulchre be made sure vntyll the thirde daye, leste his disciples come and steale hym awaye, and say vnto the people, he is risen from the dead : and the last erroure shalbe worse then the firste. Pylate sayed vnto thē : ye haue the watche, goe your way, make it as sure as ye can. So thei went and made the Sepulchre sure with the watche menne, and sealed the stone.

¶ Easter daye

¶ In the mornyng afore Mattyns, the people beyng assembled in the Churche : these Anthems shalbe fyrste solemnely song, or sayed.

CHRIST rising again from the dead, nowe dieth not. Death from hence forth hath no power vpon hym. For in that he dyed, he dyed but once to put away sinne : but in that he liueth, he liueth vnto God. And so lykewyse, counte youre selves dead vnto synne, but lyuyng vnto God in Christe Jesus our Lorde. Alleluya, Alleuya.

CHRISTE is risen againe, the firste fruytes of them that slepe : for seyng that by man came death, by man also commeth the resurreccion of the dead : For as by Adam all men do dye, so by Christe all menne shalbe restored to lyfe. Alleluya.

The priest.

¶ Shewe forth to all nacions the glory of God.

The Answer.

¶ And among all people his wonderfull workes.

Let vs praye.

O God, who for our redempciō dyddest geue thyne only begotten sonne to the death of the Crosse : and by his glorious resurreccion haste delyuered vs from the power of our enemye : Graunte vs so to dye daylye from synne, that we maye euermore lyue with hym in the ioy of hys resurreccion, through thesame Christe our Lorde. Amen.

All my delight is vpon the Sainctes that are in the yearth : and vpon suche as excell in vertue.

But they that runne after an other God : shall haue great trouble.

Their dryncke offerynges of bloud wyll not I offer : neither make mencion of their names with my lippes.

The Lord himselfe is the porcion of mine inheritaūce and of my Cuppe : thou shalt mayntayne my lotte.

The lotte is fallen vnto me in a fayre ground : yea, I haue a goodly heritage.

I will thanke the Lorde for geuing me warnyng : my reynes also chasten me in the nyght season.

I haue sette God alwayes before me : for he is on my ryght hand, therefore I shall not fall.

Wherefore my harte was glad, and my glory reioysed : my fleshe also shall rest in hope.

For why ? thou shalt not leaue my soule in helle : neyther shalt thou suffre thy holy one to see corrupcion.

Thou shalt shewe me the pathe of life : in thy presence is the fulnes of ioye, and at thy right hand there is pleasure for euermore.

Colossen. iii.

IF ye be rysen agayne with Christe, seke those thynges which are aboue, where Christ sytteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on heauenly thynges, and not on yearthy thynges. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. Whensoever Christe (which is oure lyfe) shall shewe hym selfe, then shall ye also appeare with hym in glory. Mortifie therefore your earthy membres, fornicacion, vncleannes, vnnaturall lust, euyll concupiscence, and couetousnes, whiche is wurshyppying of ydolles : for whiche thynges sake, the wrath of God vseth to come on the disobedient chyldren, among whom ye walked sometime when ye lyued in them.

THE GOSPELL

John xx.

THE firste daye of the Sabbothes came Mary Magdalene earlye (when it was yet darcke) vnto the Sepulchre, and sawe the stone taken awaye from the graue. Then she ranne and came to Symon Peter, and to the other discyples whom Jesus loued, and sayeth vnto them : they haue taken awaye the Lorde out of the graue, and we cannot tell where they haue layed hym. Peter therfore wente foorth and that other disciple and came vnto the Sepulchre. They ranne both together, and that other disciple dyd out rūne Peter, and came first to the sepulchre. And when he had stowped doune, he sawe the lynnen clothes liyng, yet went he not in. Then came Symon Peter folowyng hym, and went into the sepulchre and sawe the lynnen clothes lye, and the napkyn that was aboute his head, not liyng with the lynnen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by it selfe. Thē went in also that other disciple whyche came first to the sepulchre, and he sawe and beleued. For as yet they knewe not the scripture, that he shoulde ryse agayne from death. Then the disciples went awaye agayne vnto their owne home.

AT THE SECOND COMMUNION

LORDE, howe are they encreased that trouble me? many are they that ryse agaynst me. Domine quid multiplicati. Psal. iii.

Many one there be that saye of my soule : there is no helpe for him in his God.

But thou, O Lorde, art my defender : thou art my worshyp, and the lifter vp of my head.

I dyd call vpon the Lord with my voice : and he heard me out of his holy hyll.

I layde me doune and slept : and rose vp agayne, for the lorde sustayned me.

I wil not be afrajd for ten thousādes of the people : that haue set themselues agaynst me round aboute.

Up Lord and helpe me, O my God : for thou smytteste all myne enemies upon the cheke bone, thou hast broken the teeth of the vngodly.

Saluacion belongeth vnto the lorde : and thy blessing is vpon the people.

Glory be to the father and to the sonne : and to the holy ghost.

THE COLLECT

ALMIGHTY father, whiche hast geuen thy only sonne to dye for our sinnes, and to rise againe for oure iustificacion : Graunte vs so to putte awaye the leauen of malyce and wickednesse, that we maye alwaye serue thee in purenesse of liuing and trueth, through Jesus Christ oure Lorde.

WHEN the Sabboth was paste, Mary Magdalene, and Mary Jacoby and Salome, bought swete odoures, that they mighte come, and annoynt him. And early in the morning, the first daye of the Saboth, they came vnto the Sepulchre when the sonne was risē. And they saied amōg thēselues : who shall rolle awaye the stone frō the dore of the Sepulchre? And whē they looked, they sawe howe that the stone was rolled awaye, for it was a very great one. And they wente into the Sepulchre, and sawe a younge manne syttyng on the ryght syde, clothed in a long white garmente, and they were afrayed. And he sayed vnto them : Be not afrayed, ye seke Jesus of Nazareth whiche was crucified. He is risen, he is not here : Beholde the place where they had put hym. But goe your waye and tell his disciples, and Peter, that he goeth before you into Galile, there shall ye see him as he sayed vnto you. And they went out quykly and fledde from the Sepulchre, for they trembled, and were amased, neyther sayed they any thyng to any man, for they were afrayde.

MY soule truly wayteth styll vpon God : for of him commeth my saluacion. Nonne deo subiecta. psal. lxii.
 He verely is my strength and my saluaciō : he is my defence, so that I shall not greatly fall.

Howe long will ye imagine mischief againste euery man? ye shalbe slaine all the sorte of you, yea, as a totteryng wall shall ye be, and lyke a broken hedge.

Their deuice is only howe to put him out whom God will exalte : their delyght is in lyes, they geue good woordes with their mouth, but curse with their harte.

Neuerthelesse, my soule, waite thou still vpon God : for my hope is in hym.

He truly is my strength and my saluacion : he is my defence, so that I shall not fall.

In God is my health and my glory : the rocke of my myght, and in God is my trust.

O put your trust in hym alwaye ye people : powre out your hartes before hym, for God is our hope.

As for the chyldren of men, they are but vayne, the children of men are deceptfull : vpon the weyghtes, they are altother lighter then vanitie it selfe.

O trust not in wrong and robbery, geue not your selues vnto vanitie : yf ryches encrease, sette not your harte vpon them.

God spake once and twise : I haue also heard thesame, that power belongeth vnto God.

And that thou Lord art mercifull : for thou rewardest euery man accordyng to his worke.

PETER opened his mouth, and sayed: of a trueth Acte. x.
 I perceyue that there is no respecte of persons with God, but in all people, he that feareth him and worketh righteousnes, is accepted with him. Ye knowe the preaching that God sente vnto the children of Israell, preachyng peace by Jesus Christe whiche is lorde ouer all thinges: whiche preachyng was published throughout all Jewry (and began in Galilee after the baptisme whiche John preached) howe God annoynted Jesus of Nazareth with the holy ghoste, and with power. Whiche Jesus went about doying good, and healyng all that were oppressed of the deuell, for God was with him. And we are witnesses of al thinges which he did in the lande of the Jewes, and at Jerusalem: whō they slewe and hanged on tree: Hym God reysed vp the third daie and shewed him openly, not to all the people, but vnto vs witnesses (chosen before of God for thesame intent) whiche dyd eate and drinke with him after he arose from death. And he commaunded vs to preache vnto the people, and to testify, that it is he whiche was ordeyned of God to be the iudge of the quicke and deade. To hym geue all the prophetes witnes, that through his name, whosoever beleueth in hym, shall receyue remissio of sinnes.

THE GOSPELL

Luc. xxiii.

BEHOLDE two of the disciples wente that same daye to a towne called Emaus, whyche was from Jerusalem about lx. furlonges: and they talked together of all the thynges that had happened. And it chaunced while they commoned together and reasoned: Jesus him selfe drue nere and went with them. But their eyes were holden that they shoulde not knowe hym. And he sayd vnto them: what maner of cōmunicacions are these that ye haue one to another as ye walke, and are sad? And the one of them (whose name was Cleophas) aunswered, and saied vnto him: art thou onely a straunger in Jerusalem, and haste not knowen the thynges which haue chaunced there in these dayes? he saide vnto them: what thynges? And they sayd vnto hym: of Jesus of Nazareth, whyche was a Prophete, mightie in dede and worde before God and all the people: and how the hie priestes and oure rulers deliuered him to be condemned to death, and haue crucified him. But we trusted that it had been he whiche shoulde haue redeemed Israel. And as touching all these thinges, to daye is euen the third daye that they were doen. Yea and certeyne women also of oure companye made vs astonyed, whiche came earely vnto the Sepulchre and founde not his body, and came saying, that they had sene a vision of Angels, whiche sayed that he was aliue. And certeyne of them whiche were with vs, wente to the Sepulchre and found it euen so as the women had sayed: but hym they sawe not.

And he sayd vnto them: O fooles and slowe of harte to beleue al that the prophetes haue spoken. Oughte not Christ to haue suffred these thynges, and to entre into his glory? And he began at Moses and all the prophetes, and interpreted vnto them in all Scriptures which wer written of hym.

And it came to passe as he sate at meate with them, he tooke bread and blessed it, and brake and gaue to them. And their eyes were opened, and they knewe hym, and he vanisshed out of their sight. And they sayed betwene themselues : did not oure heartes burne within vs, whyle he talked with vs by the waye, and opened to vs the Scriptures? And they rose vp thesame houre and returned to Jerusalem, and founde the eleuen gathered together, and them that were with them, saying : the Lorde is rysen in dede, and hath appered to Simon. And they tolde what thynges were dooen in the waye, and howe they knewe him in breakyng of bread.

AT THE COMMUNION

PRAYSE the Lord (ye seruauntes :) O prayse the name of the Lorde. Laudate pueri. Psal. cxiii.

Blessed is the name of the Lord : from this tyme furth for euermore.

The Lordes name is praysed : from the rysing vp of the sonne, vnto the goyng doune of thesame.

The lorde is hie aboue all heathen : and his glorie aboue the heauens.

Who is lyke vnto the Lorde our God, that hathe his dwelling so hye : and yet humbleth himselfe, to beholde the thynges that are in heauen and earth.

He taketh vp the symple oute of the duste : and lyfteth the poore out of the mier.

That he may set hym with the princes : euen wyth the princes of hys people.

He maketh the baren woman to kepe house : and to be a ioyful mother of children.

Glory be to the father and to the sonne : and to the holy ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and euer shalbe : worlde without ende. Amen.

THE COLLECT

ALMYGHTY father, whiche haste geuen thy only sonne to dye for our synnes, and to ryse agayne for oure iustificacion: Graunt vs so to put away the leuen of malyce and wyckednes, that we maye alwaye serue thee in purenes of lyuyng and truth, through Jesus Christe oure Lorde.

THE EPISTLE

Actes xiii.

YE men and brethren, Children of the generacion of Abraham, and whosoeuer among you feareth God: to you is this word of saluacion sēt. For the inhabiters of Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voyces of the prophetes, which are read euery Sabboth day, thei haue fulfilled them in condemning him. And when thei found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate to kyll him. And when they hadde fulfilled all that were written of hym, they tooke hym downe from the tree and put hym in a Sepulchre. But God raysed hym agayne from death the thirde daye, and he was seen manye dayes of them whiche wente with hym from Galile to Jerusalem : which are his witnesses vnto the people. And we declare vnto you, howe that the promes (whiche was made vnto the fathers) GOD hath fulfilled vnto their childrē (euen vnto vs) in that he raised vp Jesus agayne : Euen as it is written in the seconde Psalme : Thou arte my sonne, this daye haue I begotten thee. As concernyng that he raised him vp from death, now no more to return to corrupcion, he saied on this wise : The holy promises made to Dauid, will I geue faithfully to you. Wherefore he saieth also in another place : Thou shalte not suffre thyne holy to see corrupcion. For Dauid (after that he had in hys tyme fulfilled the will of GOD) fell on slepe, and was layed vnto hys fathers and sawe corrupcion. But he whome God raised agayne, sawe no corrupcion. Bee it knowen vnto you therefore (ye men and brethren) that throughe thys man, is preached vnto you the forgeuenes of synnes, and that by hym all that beleue, are iustified frome all thynges, frome whiche ye coulde not be iustified by the lawe of Moses. Beware therfore, lest that fall on you, which is spoken of in the Prophetes : beholde ye despisers, and wonder, and perishe ye, for I doe a worke in your daies, whiche ye shall not beleue, thoughe a man declare it you.

THE GOSPEL

IESUS stode in the middes of his disciples, and saied vnto them : peace be vnto you : It is I, feare not. But thei were abashed and afraied, and supposed that they had seen a spirite. And he saied vnto them : why are ye troubled, and why doo thoughtes arise in your heartes ? Beholde my handes and my fete, that it is euen I my selfe. Handle me and see, for a spirite hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me haue. And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his handes, Luc. xxiii.

and his fete. And whyle they yet beleued not for ioye, and wondered, he saied vnto them : Haue ye here any meate ? And they offered hym a pece of a broyled fishe, and of an Honye combe. And he tooke it and did eate before them. And he saied vnto them : these are the wordes whiche I spake vnto you, while I was yet with you : That all muste nedes be fulfilled, whiche were written of me in the Lawe of Moses, and in the Prophetes, and in the Psalmes. Then opened he their wittes, that thei mighte vnderstande the scriptures, and saied vnto them : Thus it is written, and thus it behoued Christe to suffer, and to arise againe from death the thirde daye, and that repentance and remission of synnes, shoulde bee preached in his name emong all nacions, and muste begin at Jerusalem. And ye are witnesses of these thynges.

BLESSED is the man that feareth the lorde : he hath greate delite in his commaundementes.

His seede shalbee mightie vpon yearthe : the generacion of the faithfull shalbee blessed.

Riches and plētousnes shalbe in his house : And hys righteousnes endureth for euer.

Unto the Godly there ariseth vp light in the darke-nes : he is mercifull, louyng and righteous.

A good man is mercifull and lendeth : and wil guyde his wordes with discrecion.

For he shal neuer be moued : and the righteous shalbe had in euerlastyng remembraunce.

He will not bee afraied for any euill tidynges : For hys hearte standeth fast, and beleueth in the Lorde.

His hearte is stablished and will not shrinke : vntill he se his desire vpon his enemies.

He hath sparsed abroad and geuen to the poore : and his righteousnes remaineth for euer, his horne shallbee exalted with honor.

The vngodly shall se it, and it shall greue him : he shall gnashe with his teeth and consume awaye, the desire of the vngodly shall perishe.

THE EPISTLE

AL that is borne of GOD, ouercommeth the world. And i. Ihon v.
 this is the victory that ouercommeth the world, euen our faith. Who is it that ouercommeth the worlde, but he whiche beleueth that Jesus is the sonne of God ? This Jesus Christ is he that came by water and bloud, not by water onely but by water and bloud. And it is the spirite that beareth witnes, because the spirite is truthe.
 For there are three whiche beare recorde in heauen, the father, the woorde, and the holy Ghoste, and these three are
 one. And there are three whiche beare recorde in yearth, the spirite, and water, and bloud, and these iij. are one. If wee receiue the witnes of menne, the witnes of God is greater. For this is the witnes of God that is greater, whiche he testified of his sonne. He that beleueth on the sonne of God, hath the witnes in hymselfe. He that beleueth not God, hath made him a lier because he beleueth not the recorde that God gaue of his sonne. And this is the record, how that God hath geuē vnto vs eternall life, and this lyfe is in his sonne. He that hath the sonne, hath lyfe : and he that hath not the sonne of God, hath not lyfe.

THE GOSPELL

THESAME daye at nyghte : whiche was the firste daye of the Sabbothes, when the doores were shut (where the disciples were assembled together, for feare of the Jewes) came Jesus and stode in the middes, and saide vnto them : Peace bee vnto you. And when he had so saide, he shewed vnto them his handes and hys syde. Then were the disciples glad, when they sawe the lorde. Then saide Jesus to them againe : Peace be vnto you. As my father sente me, euen so sende I you also. And when he had saide those wordes, he breathed on them, and saide vnto them : receiue ye the holy ghoste. Whosoeuers synnes ye remitte, they are remitted vnto them. And whosoeuers synnes ye retaine, they are retained.

Deus in adiutoriu. psal. lxx.

HAST thee O God, to deliuer me : Make haste to helpe me, O Lorde.
 Let them bee ashamed and confounded, that seke after my soule : let them bee turned backward and put to confusion, that wishe me euill.

Let them (for their reward) be sone brought to shame : that crye ouer me, there, there.

But let all those that seke thee, be ioyfull and gladde in thee : and let all suche as delight in thy saluacion saye allwaie, the Lorde be praised.

As for me I am poore and in misery : Haste thee vnto me (O God.)

Thou art my helpe and my redemer : O lorde make no long taryng.

THE COLLECT

ALMIGHTIE God, whiche haste geuen thy holy sonne to bee vnto vs, bothe a sacrifice for synne, and also an example of Godly life : Geue vs the grace that we maie alwaies moste thankfully receiue, that his inestimable benefite, and also dayely indeuor our selves, to folow the blessed steppes of his moste holy lyfe.

THE EPISTLE

THIS is thanke worthie, yf a man for conscience toward God, endure grieve, and suffre wrong vnderued. For what praise is it yf when ye bee buffeted for your fautes ye take it paciently? But and yf when ye doo well, ye suffre wrong and take it paciently, then is there thanke with God. For herunto verely were ye called: For Christ also suffered for vs, leauing vs an ensample, that ye should folowe his steppes, whiche dyd no synne, neyther was there guyle found in his mouthe: whiche, when he was reuled, reuled not again: when he suffered, he threatned not: but committed the vengeaunce to him that iudgeth righteously, whiche his owne selfe bare our synnes in his body on the tree, that we beyng deliuered from sinne, should liue vnto righteousnes. By whose stripes ye were healed. For ye were as shepe going a straie: But are now turned vnto the shephard, and bishop of your soules.

THE GOSPEL

CHRISTE said to his disciples, I am the good shephard, a good shephard geueth his lyfe for the shepe. An hired seruaunt, and he which is not the shepharde (neyther the shepe are his owne) seeth the wolfe commyng, and leaueth the shepe and flieth, and the woulfe catcheth, and skatreth the shepe. The hired seruaunt flieth, because he is an hired seruaunt, and careth not for the shepe. I am the good shephard, and knowe my shepe, and am knowen of myne. As my Father knoweth me, euen so knowe I also my Father. And I geue my lyfe for the Shepe: and other Shepe I haue, whiche are not of this folde. Them also must I bring, and they shall heare my voyce, and there shalbe one folde, and one shepeherde.

VNTO thee (O God) dod we geue thanks :
yea, vnto thee do we geue thanks.
Thy name also is so nye : and that doe thy wonderous workes declare.

When I receyue the congregacion : I shall iudge according vnto right.

The yearth is weake, and all the inhabitours therof :
I beare vp the pillars of it.

I sayed vnto the fooles, deale not so madly : and to the vngodly, set not vp your horne.

Set not vp your horne on hye : and speake not with a stiffe necke.

For promocion commeth neyther from the East, nor from the west : nor yet from the Southe.

And why ? GOD is the iudge : he putteth doune one and setteth vp another.

For in the hand of the lorde there is a cup, and the wine is red : It is full mixte, and he poureth out of thesame.

As for the dregges thereof : all the vngodly of the yearth shall drynke them, and sucke them out.

But I will talke of the GOD of Jacob : and praise hym for euer.

All the hornes of the vngodly also will I breake : and the hornes of the righteous shalbe exalted.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne. etc.

As it was in the beginnyng. etc.

THE COLLECTE

ALmighty God, whiche shewest to all men that be in errour, the light of thy truth, to the intent that they maie returne into the waye of right-ousnes : Graunt vnto all them that bee admitted, into the felowship of Christes religion, that they maye exchew those thinges that be contrary to their profession, and folow all such thinges as be agreable to thesame : through our Lorde Jesus Christ.

THE EPISTLE

DEREPLY beloued, I beseche you as straungiers and pilgremes, abstain frō fleshly lustes, which ^{i. Peter ii.} fight against the soule? and see that ye haue honest conuersacion among the Gentiles, that where as they backbite you as euill doers, they maye see your good workes, and prayse God in the day of visitacion. Submit your selves therfore, vnto all maner ordinaunce of man, for the Lordes sake, whether it bee vnto the kyng as vnto the chief head : either vnto rulers, as vnto thē that are sent of him, for the punishment of euill doers, but for the laude of them that do well. For so is the will of God, that with well doing, ye maie stop the mouthes of foolishe and ignorant men : as free, and not as hauing the libertie for a cloke of maliciousnes, but euen as the seruauntes of God. Honor all men, loue brotherly felowship, feare God, honor the Kyng.

THE GOSPEL

IESUS sayed to his disciples : After a while ye ^{Iohn xvi.} shall not see me, and again after a while ye shall se me : for I go to the father. Then saied some of his disciples betwene thēselfes : what is this that he sayth vnto vs, after a while ye shall not se me, and again after a while ye shall se me, and that I go to the father? Thei saied therefore : what is this that he sayeth, after a whyle? We cānot tel what he saith. Jesus perceyued that they would aske hym, and saied vnto them : ye inquire of this betwene your selves, because I sayed, after a whyle ye shall not se me, and again after a while ye shall se me. Verely, verely, I saye vnto you : ye shall wepe and lament : but contrary wyse, the worlde shall reioyse. Ye shall sorowe, but your sorowe shalbee turned to ioye. A woman when she trauayleth, hath sorow : because her houre is come. But assone as she is deliuered of the child, she remembreth no more the anguish, for ioye that a man is borne into the world. And ye now therfore haue sorowe : but I will se you again, and your hartes shall reioyse, and your ioye shall no manne take from you.

GOD standeth in the congregacion of princes.
He is iudge emong Goddes.
How long wyll ye geue wrong iudgement :
and accept the persones of the vngodly ?

Defende the poore and fatherlesse : se that suche as be in nede and necessitie haue right.

Deliuier the outcast and poore : Saue them from the hande of the vngodly.

They will not be learned nor vnderstande, but walke on still in darkenes : all the foundations of the yearth be out of course.

I haue sayd, ye are Goddes : and ye all are children of the most highest.

But ye shall die like men : and fall like one of the princes.

Arise, O God, and iudge thou the yearth : For thou shalt take all the Heathen to thyne inheritaunce.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne. etc.

As it was in the beginnyng, is now. etc.

THE COLLECT

ALmightie God, whiche doest make the myndes of all faythfull men, to be of one wil : graunt vnto thy people, that they maye loue the thyng, whiche thou commaundest, and desyre that, whiche thou doest promes, that emong the sondery and manifold chaunges of the worlde, oure hartes maye surely there bee fixed, where as true ioyes are to be founde : Through Christe our Lorde.

THE EPISTLE

EVERY good gift, and every perfect gift, is from ^{Iames i.} above, and commeth doune from the father of lightes, with whom is no variablenes, nether is he chaunged vnto darkenes. Of his owne will begat he vs, with the worde of truthe, that we should be the first frutes of his creatures. Wherefore (dere brethren) let every man be swift to heare, slowe to speake, slowe to wrath. For the wrathe of man worketh not that whiche is righteous before God. Wherefore laye apart all filthines, and superfluitie of maliciousnes, and receiue with mekenes the worde that is graffed in you, whiche is able to saue your soules.

THE GOSPELL

IESUS saied vnto his disciples: now I go my waie ^{Iohn xvi.} to him that sent me, and none of you asketh me whither I go. But because I haue sayed suche thinges vnto you, youre heartes are ful of sorow. Neuertheles, I tel you the truth, it is expedient for you that I go awaye. For if I go not away, that comforter will not come vnto you. But if I depart, I wil sende him vnto you. And when he is come he wil rebuke the worlde of sinne, and of righteousness and of iudgement. because they beleue not on me: Of righteousness because I go to my father and ye shall se me nomore. Of Iudgement because the Prince of this worlde is iudged already. I haue yet many thynges to saye vnto you, but ye cannot beare them awaye now: howbeit, when he is come (whiche is the spirite of truth) he will leade you into all truth. He shall not speake of hymselfe, but whatsoever he shall heare, that shall he speake, and he wyll shewe you thynges to come. He shall glorifie me, for he shall receyue of myne, and shall shewe vnto you. All thynges that the father hath, are mine: therfore sayed I vnto you, that he shall take of myne, and shewe vnto you.

¶ The v. Sondaie

tabernacula, psal. lxxxiii.*

O HOWE amiable are thy dwellinges : Thou Lorde of Hostes ?

My soule hath a desire and longing to entre into the courtes of the Lorde : My heart and my flesh reioise in the liuing God.

Yea, the Sparowe hath found her an house, and the Swalowe a neste where she maie laie her young : Euen thy altares, O Lorde of Hostes, my kyng and my God.

Blessed are thei that dwell in thy house : thei will be alwaie praising thee.

Blessed is that manne whose strength is in thee : In whose hearte are thy waies.

Whiche goyng throughe the vale of misery, vse it for a well : and the pooles are filled with water.

Thei will go from strength to strength : and vnto the God of Goddes appeareth euery one of them in Syon.

O Lorde God of Hostes, heare my praier : Harken O God of Jacob.

Beholde, O God, our defender : and loke vpon the face of thyne annoynted.

For one daie in thy courtes : is better then a thousand.

I had rather be a dore keper in the house of my God : then to dwell in the tentes of vngodlynes.

For the Lorde God is a light and defence : the Lorde will geue grace and worship, and no good thyng shall he withhold from them that liue a godly life.

O Lorde God of Hostes : blessed is the man that putteth his trust in thee.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne. etc.

As it was in the beginnyng. etc.

THE COLLECT

LORDE, from whom all good thynges do come : graunte vs thy humble seruauntes, that by thy holy inspiration, wee maie thynkethosethyngesthatbeegood, and by thy mercifull guydyng maye perfourme thesame :

thorowe our Lorde Jesus Christ.

THE EPISTLE

SE that ye bee doers of the worde, and not ^{Iames i.} hearers onely, deceiuyng youre owne selves. For if any man heare the worde, and declareth not thesame by his workes, he is like vnto a man beholding his bodely face in a glasse. For assone as he hath looked on hymselfe, he goeth his waie, and forgetteth immediatly what his fashion was. But whoso looketh in the perfect lawe of libertie, and continueth therin (if he bee not a forgetfull hearer, but a doer of the woorke) thesame shalbee happie in his deede. If any man emong you seme to be deuoute, and refraineth not his toungue, but deceiueth his owne harte, this mannes deuocion is in vaine. Pure deuocion, and vndefiled before God the father, is this : to viset the fatherles and widowes, in their aduersitie, and kepe hymselfe vnspotted of the worlde.

THE GOSPELL

VERELY, verely, I saye vnto you, whatsoeuer ye ^{Iohn xvi.} shall aske the father in my name, he will geue it you. Hitherto haue ye asked nothyng in my name. Aske and ye shall receiue, that your ioye maye be full. These thinges haue I spokē vnto you by prouerbes. The tyme will come, when I shall no more speake vnto you by prouerbes : but I shall shewe you plainly from my father. At that daye shall ye aske in my name. And I saye not vnto you that I wyl speake vnto my father for you. For the father hymself loueth you, because ye haue loued me, and haue beleued that I came out from God. I wente out from the father, and came into the worlde. Againe, I leaue the world, and go to the father.

His disciples sayed vnto hym : Lo, nowe talkest thou plainly, and speakest no Prouerbe. Nowe are we sure that thou knowest all thinges, and nedest not that any man should aske thee any question : therefore beleue we, that thou camest from God. Jesus aunswered them : now ye do beleue. Beholde, the houre draweth nye, and is already come, that ye shalbee skatered euery man to his owne, and shall leaue me alone. And yet am I not alone : for the father is with me. These woordes haue I spoken vnto you, that in me ye might haue peace, for in the worlde shall ye haue tribulacion : but be of good chere, I haue ouercome the worlde.

THE COLLECT

GRAUNTE we besече thee almightie god, that like as we doe beleue thy onely begotten sonne our lord to haue ascended into the heauens : so we may also in heart and mind thither ascende, and with him continually dwell.

THE EPISTLE

IN the former treatise (deare Theophilus) we haue ^{Act. i.} spoken of all that Jesus began to dooe and teache, vntil the day in which he was takē vp, after that he through the holy goste, had geuen commaundementes vnto the Apostles, whome he had chosen : to whome he also shewed himselfe aliue after his passion (and that by many tokens) appearyng vnto them xl. dayes, and speaking of the kingdom of god, and gathered them together, and commaūded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem : but to wayte for the promes of the father, wherof (sayth he) ye haue heard of me. For John truely baptised with water : but ye shalbe baptised with the holy gost, after these fewe dayes. When they therfore were come together, they asked of him, saying : lord, wilt thou at this time restore agayn the kingdome to Israell ? And he sayde vnto them : it is not for you to knowe the times or the seasons whiche the father hath put in hys owne power. But ye shall receyue power after that the holy gost is come vpon you. And ye shall bee witnesses vnto me, not onely in Jerusalem, but also in all Jewry, and in Samaria, and euen vnto the worldes ende. And when he had spoken these thynges, while they behelde, he was taken vp on hye, and a cloud receiued him vp out of their sight. And while they loked stedfastly vp toward heauen as he went, beholde two men stode by them in white apparel, whiche also sayde : ye men of Galile, why stand ye gasyng vp into heauē? This same Jesus which is taken vp from you into heauen, shall so come, euen as ye haue sene him goe into heauen.

THE GOSPELL

Mar. xvi.

IESUS appeared vnto the eleuen as they sate at meate: and cast in their teth their vnbelefe, and hardnes of heart, because they beleued not them which had sene that he was risen agayn from the dead: and he sayd vnto them: goe ye into all the world, and preache the gospel to all creatures: he that beleueth and is baptised, shalbee sauēd. But he that beleueth not shall bee damned. And these tokens shal folowe them that beleue. In my name they shall cast out deuils, they shal speake with newtonges, they shall dryue away serpentes. And if they drinke any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them. They shall laye their handes on the sycke, and they shall recouer. So then when the lord had spoken vnto thē, he was receiued into heauen, and is on the right hand of God. And they wente furth, and preached euery where: The lord working with them, and confirming the word with miracles folowing.

These things haue I said vnto you, because ye should Iohn xvi. not be offended. They shall excommunicate you : yea the tyme shall come, that whosoeuer kylleth you, wyll thinke that he doeth God seruice. And such things will they do vnto you, because they haue not knowen the father, neyther yet me. But these things I haue told you,

AT THE COMMUNION

Exultate iusti in domino. psalm. xxxiii.

REIOICE in the Lorde, O ye righteous : for it becommeth well the iuste to be thankfull.
 Prayse the Lorde with harpe : syng psalmes vnto him wyth the lute, and instrumente of ten stringes.

Syng vnto the Lorde a new song : sing prayses lustely (vnto hym) with a good courage.

For the worde of the Lord is true : and al his workes are faythfull.

He loueth ryghteousnes and iudgement : the earth is full of the goodnes of the Lorde.

By the worde of the Lord were the heauens made : and all the hoostes of them, by the breath of hys mouth.

He gathereth the waters of the sea together, as it were vpon a heap : and layeth vp the depe as it were in a treasure house.

Let all the earth feare the Lorde : stande in awe of him all ye that dwell in the worlde.

For he spake and it was done : he commaunded and it stooode faste.

The Lorde bringeth the counsayll of the heathen to noughte : and maketh the deuyses of the people to be of none effect (and casteth out the counsailes of prynces.)

The counsaill of the Lord shal endure for euer : and the thoughtes of hys harte from generacion to generacion.

Blessed are the people whose God is the Lorde Jehouah : and blessed are the folke that haue chosen hym to be theyr inheritaunce.

The lorde loked downe from heauen, and beheld all the chyldren of menne : from the habitacion of hys dwelling, he considereth all them that dwell in the earth.

He fashyoneth all the heartes of them : and vnderstandeth all theyr workes.

There is no king that can be saued by the multitude of an hoste : neyther is anye myghtye man delyuered by muche strength.

A horse is counted but a vayne thyng to saue a man : neither shall he deliuer any man by hys great strength.

Beholde, the eye of the lorde is vpon them that feare him : and vpon them that put theyr truste in his mercye.

To deliuer theyr soules from deathe : and to feade them in the tyme of derth.

Our soule hath patiently taryed for the lorde : for he is our helpe and our shielde.

For our heart shall reioyce in him : because we hoped in his holy name.

Let thy mercifull kyndenes, O lorde, be vpon vs : lyke as we haue put our trust in thee.

Glory be to the father. etc.

As it was in the beginning. etc.

THE COLLECT

GOD, whiche as vpon this daye haste taughte the heartes of thy faithful people, by the sending to them the lyght of thy holy spirite : graunt vs by the same spirite to haue a right iudgement in al thinges, and euermore to reioyce in hys holy coumforte, through the merites of Christ Jesus our sauour : who liueth and reigneth with thee in the vnitie of the same spirite one God, worlde without ende.

THE EPISTLE

Act. ii.

WHEN the fiftie dayes were come to an end, they were al with one accorde together in one place. And sodenly there came a soūd from heauen, as it had bene the cumming of a mighty wind, and it filled al the house where they sate. And there appered vnto them clouen tonges, like as they had bene of fyre, and it sate vpon eche one of them: and they were al filled with the holy gost, and began to speake with other tonges, euen as thesame spirite gaue them vtteraūce. There were dwelling at Jerusalem Jewes, deuout men, out of euery nacion of them that are vnder heauen. When thys was noysed about, the multitude came together and were astonied, because that euery man heard them speake with his owne language. They wondred all and marueiled, saying among themselves: behold, are not al these, which speake, of Galile? And how heare we euery mā his own tong, wherin we were borne? Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the inhabiters of Mesopotamia, and of Jewry, and of Capadocia, of Pontus and Asia Phrigia and Pamphilia, of Egipte, and of the parties of Libia, whiche is beside Siren, and straungers of Rome, Jewes and Proselites, Grekes and Arrabians, we haue heard them speake in our owne tongues the great weorkes of God.

THE GOSPEL

Iohn xiiii.

IESUS sayde vnto his disciples: If ye loue me kepe my commaundementes, and I wil pray the fater, and he shall geue you an other cōforter, that he maye abyde with you for euer: euen the spirite of trueth, whome the worlde can not receiue, because the worlde seeth him not, neither knoweth hym. But ye knowe hym: for he dwelleth with you, and shalbe in you. I will not leaue you cōmfortles: but will come to you. Yet a litle while and the worlde seeth me no more : but ye se me. For I lyue, and ye shall lyue. That daye shall ye knowe that I am in my father, and you in me, and I in you. He that hath my commaundementes and kepeth them, the same is he that loueth me. And he that loueth me, shalbe loued of my father : and I will loue him, and wil shewe mine owne selfe vnto hym.

Be ye sure that the lord he is God : it is he that hath made vs, and not we our selves, we are hys people and the shepe of his pasture.

O goe your way into his gates with thankesgeuing, and into his courtes with praise : be thankful vnto him, and speake good of his name.

THE EPISTLE

THEN Peter opened his mouth and sayd: of a truth Act. x.
I perceyue that there is no respecte of persones with God, but in all people, he that feareth hym, and woorketh righteousnesse, is accepted with hym. Ye knowe the preachyng that God sente vnto the children of Israell, preachyng peace by Jesus Christe, whiche is Lorde ouer all thynges : whiche preachyng was published throughoute all Jewrye (and began in Galile after the baptisme whiche John preached) how God annointed Jesus of Nazareth with the holye goste, and with power. Whiche Jesus went about doying good, and healing all that were oppressed of the deuill. For God was with hym. And we are witnesses of all thynges whiche he did in the land of the Jewes and at Jerusalem, whome they slewe and hanged on tree : Hym God raysed vp the thirde day, and shewed him openly, not to all the people, but vnto vs witnesses (chosen before of god for the same entente) whiche dyd eate and drynke with hym, after he arose from deathe. And he commaunded vs to preache vnto the people, and to testifye that it is he, whiche was ordayned of God to be the iudge of quicke and dead. To hym geue all the Prophetes witnesse, that through his name whosoever beleueth in him, shall receyue remission of synnes.

Whyle Peter yet spake these woordes, the holy goste fel on all them whiche heard the preachyng. And they of the circumcision which beleued, were astonied, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentyles also, was shed out the gift of the holy goste. For they hearde them speake with tongues and magnifye God. Then aunswered Peter : can any man forbid water, that these shoulde not be baptised whiche haue receyued the holy goste as well as we ? And he commaunded them to bee baptised in the name of the Lorde. Then prayed they him to tary a fewe dayes.

THE GOSPEL

SO God loued the worlde, that he gaue his only ^{John iii.} begottē sonne, that whosoeuer beleueth in hym, shoulde not perishe, but haue euerlastyng lyfe. For God sent not his sonne into the world, to condemne the worlde, but that the worlde through him mighte be sauēd. He that beleueth on hym is not condemned. But he that beleueth not, is condemned already, because he hath not beleued in the name of the onely begotten sonne of God. And thys is the condemnacyon: that lyghte is come in to the worlde, and menne loued darke-nes more then lighte, because theyr dedes were euill. For euery one that euill doeth, hateth the light, neither cum-meth to the lighte, leste hys dedes shoulde bee reproued. But he that doth trueth, cūmeth to the light, that his dedes may be knowen, how that they are wrought in god.

¶ Tuesday

MY song shall bee of mercye and iudgemente : Misericordiam.
vnto thee (O Lorde) will I sing. Psal. ci.

O let me haue vnderstandyng : in the waye of Godlynes.

When wylte thou come vnto me? I will walke in my house with a perfect heart.

I wil take no wicked thing in hand : I hate the sinnes of vnfaythfulnes, there shall no such cleaue vnto me.

A frowarde heartē shall departe from me : I will not knowe a wicked persone.

Whoso priuely slaundereth his neighbour : him wil I destroye.

Whoso hath also a proude looke and an hie stomake : I will not suffer him.

Myne eyes looke vnto such as be faythfull in the land : that they may dwell with me.

Whoso leadeth a godly lyfe : he shalbe my seruante.

There shal no deceptfull persone dwell in my house : he that telleth lyes shall not tary in my syght.

I shall soone destroy all the vngodly that are in the lande : that I may roote out all wicked dooers from the citie of the Lorde.

Glory be to the father. etc.

Act. viii.

WHEN the Apostles whiche were at Jerusalem heard saye, that Samaria had receyued the woord of god, they sent vnto them Peter and John. Whiche, when they were come downe, prayed for them, that they mighte receiue the holy goste. For as yet he was come on none of them : but they were baptised onely in the name of Christ Jesu. Then layde they theyr handes on them, and they receyued the holy gost.

THE GOSPELL

John x.

VERELY verely I say vnto you : he that entreth not in by the dore into the shepefolde, but climeth vp some other way, the same is a thefe, and a murderer. But he that entreth in by the doore, is the shepheheard of the shepe : To hym the porter openeth, and the shepe heare his voyce, and he calleth hys owne shepe by name, and leadeth them out. And whē he hath sent furth his owne shepe, he goeth beefore them, and the shepe folow him : for they knowe his voyce. A straunger wil they not folowe, but will flye from hym : for they knowe not the voyce of straungers.

This prouerbe spake Jesus vnto them, but they vnderstode not what thynges they were whiche he spake vnto them. Then sayde Jesus vnto them agayne : verely verely, I saye vnto you : I am the doore of the shepe. All (euen as many as came before me) are theues and murderers, but the shepe did not heare them. I am the dore, by me if any enter in, he shalbe safe, and shall goe in and out, and fynde pasture. A thefe cummeth not but for to steale, kill, and destroy. I am come that they might haue lyfe, and that they mighte haue it more aboundantlye.

THE EPISTLE

Apo. iiii.

AFTER this I looked, and behold, a doore was open in heauen, and the first voice which I heard was as it wer of a trompet, talking with me, whiche sayd: come vp hither, and I will shew thee thinges whiche must be fulfilled hereafter. And immediately I was in the spirite: And behold, a seate was set in heauen, and one sate on the seate. And he that sate, was to loke vpon, lyke vnto a Jasper stone, and a Sardine stone. And there was a rayne bowe about the seate, in sight lyke vnto an Emerauld. And about the seate were xxiiii. seates. And vpon the seates xxiiii. Elders sitting, clothed in white raiment, and had on their heades crownes of golde.

And out of the seate proceded lightnings, and thunders, and voyces, and there were vii. lampes of fire, burning before the seate, whiche are the vii. spirites of God. And beefore the seate, there was a sea of glasse lyke vnto Christall, and in the myddes of the seate, and rounde aboute the seate, were iiii. beastes full of eyes, beefore and behynde. And the fyrste beaste was like a Lion: and the second beast like a calfe: and the thirde beaste hadde a face as a manne: and the fourthe beaste was lyke a flying Egle. And the iiii. beastes had eche one of them syxe wynges aboute hym, and they were full of iyes within. And they had no rest day neyther night, saying : Holy, holy, holy, Lorde God almightie, whiche was, and is, and is to come.

And when those beastes gaue glory and honour, and thanks to hym that sate on the seate (whiche lyueth for euer and euer) the xxiiij. elders fell doune before hym that sate on the throne, and worshipped hym that lyueth for euer, and cast their crounes before the throne, saying : thou art worthy, O Lorde (our God) to receyue glory, and honor, and power, for thou hast created all thinges, and for thy wylls sake they are, and were created.

THE GOSPEL

THERE was a manne of the Phariseis named Iohn iii. Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jewes. The same came to Jesus by night, and sayd vnto hym : Rabby, we knowe that thou art a teacher come from God : for no man could do suche miracles as thou doest, except God were with him. Jesus answered, and sayd vnto him : Verely, verely, I say vnto thee : except a man be borne frō aboue, he cannot see the kyngdom of god. Nicodemus sayd vnto him : how can a man be borne when he is olde ? can he entre into his mothers wombe and be borne agayne ? Jesus answered : verely, verely, I say vnto thee : except a man be borne of water and of the spirite, he cannot entre into the kyngdome of God. That whiche is borne of the fleshe, is fleshe, and that whiche is borne of the spirit, is spirit. Maruayl not thou that I sayd thee, ye must bee borne from aboue. The wynde bloweth where it lusteth, and thou hearest the sound therof, but canst not tel whēce it commeth, and whither it goeth : So is euery one that is borne of the spirite. Nicodemus answered, and sayd vnto him : how can these thinges be ? Jesus answered, and sayd vnto him : arte thou a maister in Israell, and knowest not these thinges ? Verely, verely, I say vnto thee : we speake that we do know, and testifie that we haue seen : and ye receyue not our wytnes. If I haue tolde you yearthly thynges, and ye beleue not : howe shall ye beleue yf I tell you of heauenly thynges? And no man ascendeth vp to heauen, but he that came doune from heauen, euen the sonne of man whiche is in heauen. And as Moses lift vp the serpent in the wildernes, euen so must the Sonne of man be lift vp, that whosoever beleueth in hym, perishe not, but haue euerlastyng lyfe.

For they whiche do no wickednesse : walke in his wayes.

weakenes of oure mortall nature can do no good thyng without thee, graunt vs the helpe of thy grace, that in kepyng of thy commaundementes we may please thee

THE EPISTLE

DEARELY beloued, let vs loue one another : for i. John iii.
 loue commeth of God. And euery one that loueth, is borne of God, and knoweth God.
 He that loueth not, knoweth not God : for God is loue. In this appeared the loue of God to vs ward, because that God sent his onely begotten sonne into the worlde, that we might lyue through him. Herein is loue, not that we loued God, but that he loued vs, and sent his sonne to be the agrement for our synnes.

Dearely beloued, if God so loued vs, we ought also to loue one another. No man hath seen God at any tyme.
 If we loue one another, God dwelleth in vs and his loue is perfect in vs. Hereby knowe we that we dwel in hym and he in vs : because he hath geuen vs of his spirite. And we haue seen and do testify, that the father sent the sonne to be the sauour of the worlde : whosoever cōfesseth that Jesus is the sonne of God, in hym dwelleth God, and he in God. And we haue knowen and beleued the loue that God hath to vs.

God is loue, and he that dwelleth in loue, dwelleth in God, and God in him. Herein is the loue perfect in vs, that we should haue trust in the day of iudgemēt. For as he is, euen so are we in this worlde. There is no feare in loue, but perfecte loue casteth out feare, for feare hath payne-fulnes. He that feareth, is not perfect in loue. We loue him, for he loued vs first. If a man say : I loue God, and yet hate his brother, he is a lyar. For how can he that loueth not his brother whom he hath seen, loue God whom he hath not seen ? And this commaundement haue we of hym : that he whiche loueth God, should loue his brother also.

THE GOSPELL

THERE was a certaine riche man, whiche was Luc. xvi.
 clothed in purple and fyne white, and fared deliciously euery day : And there was a certaine beg-ger named Lazarus whiche lay at his gate full of sores, desyring to be refreshed with the crummes whiche fell from the riche mans borde, and no mā gaue vnto him. The dogges came also and licked his sores. And it fortunēd, that the begger dyed and was caried by the Angels into Abrahams bosome. Theriche man also dyed and was buried. And beyng in hell in tormētes, he lifte vp his eyes and sawe Abraham a far of, and Lazarus in his bosome, and he cryed and sayd : father Abraham, haue mercy on me : and send Lazarus, that he may dippe the tippe of his finger in water, and coole my tongue, for I am tormented in this flame. But Abraham sayd : Sonne, remembre that thou in thy lyfe tyme, receiuedst thy pleasure: and contrarywise, Lazarus receiued payne : But now he is comforted, and thou art punished. Beyonde all this, betwene vs and you there is a great space set, so that they whiche would go from hence to you cannot: neyther may come from thence to vs. Then he sayd : I pray the therefore father, sende hym to my fathers house (for I haue v. brethren) for to warne them, leste they also come into this place of torment. Abraham sayd vnto hym : they haue Moses and the Prophetes, let them heare them. And he sayd : nay father Abraham, but if one come vnto them from the dead, they will repent. He sayd vnto him: If they heare not Moses and the Prophetes, neyther wyll they beleue, though one rose from death againe.

MARUEIL not my brethren though the worlde i. Iohn iii. hate you. We know that we are translated from death vnto life, because we loue the brethren. He that loueth not his brother, abideth in death. Whosoever hateth his brother is a mansleare. And ye knowe that no mansleare hath eternall lyfe abyding in him. Hereby perceyue we loue, because he gaue his lyfe for vs: and we ought to geue our lyues for the brethren. But whoso hath this worldes good, and seeth his brother haue nede, and shutteth vp his compassion from him: howe dwelleth the loue of God in hym? My babes let vs not loue in worde, neyther in tongue: but in dede and in veritie. Hereby we knowe that we are of the veritie, and can quiet our heartes before hym. For yf our heart condemne vs, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all thinges. Derely beloued, if oure heart condemne vs not, then haue we trust to god warde: and whatsoever we aske, we receyue of hym, because we kepe his commaundementes and do those thinges whiche are pleasaunt in his sight. And this is his commaundement, that we beleue on the name of his sonne Jesus Christ, and loue one another as he gaue commaundement. And he that kepeth his cōmaundementes, Luc. xiii.

A CERTAINE man ordayned a great supper, and bad many, and sent his seruaunt at supper tyme, to say to them that were bydden, come : for all thinges are nowe ready. And another sayd : I haue bought v. yoke of Oxen, and I go to proue them, I pray thee haue me excused. And another sayd : I haue married a wife, and therfore I cannot come. And the seruaunt returned and brought his maister worde againe therof. Then was the good man of the house displeased, and said to his seruaunt: go out quickly into the stretes and quarters of the citie, and bring in hither the poore and the feble and the halt and the blinde. And the seruaunt sayd : Lord it is done as thou hast commaunded, and yet there is rouse. And the Lorde sayd to the seruaunt : go out vnto the hye wayes and hedges, and compell them to come in, that my house maye bee fylled. THE EPISTLE

I SUPPOSE that the afflictions of this lyfe, are Roma. viii. not worthy of the glory which shalbe shewed vpon vs. For the feruent desyre of the creature abydeeth, loking when the sonnes of God shall appeare because the creature is subdued to vanitie, against the will thereof, but for his will which hath subdued thesame in hope. For the same creature shalbe deliuered from the bondage of corrupcion, into the glorious libertie of the sonnes of God. For we knowe that euery creature groneth with vs also and trauaileth in payne, euen vnto this tyme : not onely it, but we also whiche haue the first fruites of the spirite mourne in our selues also, and wayte for the adopcion (of the children of God) euen the deliuerance of our bodies.

THE GOSPEL

BE ye mercifull as your father also is merciful. Luc. vi. Judge not and ye shall not be iudged : condemne not, and ye shall not be condemned. Forgeue and ye shalbe forgeuen. Geue and it shalbe geuen vnto you, good measure and pressed doune, and shaken together, and runnyng ouer, shall menne geue into your bosomes. For with thesame measure that ye mete with all, shall other men mete to you againe.

And he put furth a similitude vnto thē. Can the blynd leade the blynd? do they not both fall into the diche? The disciple is not aboue his maister: Euery man shalbe perfect, euen as his Maister is. Why seest thou a mote in thy brothers eye, but considerest not the beame that is in thyne owne eye? Eyther how canst thou saye to thy brother? Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thyne eye, when thou seest not the beame that is in thyne owne eye. Thou ypocrite, cast out the beame out of thyne owne eye first, and then shalt thou see perfectly to pul out the mote that is in thy brothers eye.

BE you all of one mynde, and of one heart, loue as i Peter iii. brethren, be pitifull, be courteous (meke) not rendring euil for euil, or rebuke for rebuke: but cōtrarywyse blesse, knowyng that ye are therunto called, euen that ye shoulde bee heires of the blessing. For he that doeth long after life, and loueth to see good dayes, let him refrayne his tongue from euil, and his lippes that they speake no guile. Let hym eschewe euil and do good: let him seke peace, and ensue it. For the eyes of the Lorde are ouer the righteous, and his eares are open vnto their prayers. Againe, the face of the Lorde is ouer them that do euil.

Moreouer, who is it that will harme you if ye folowe that whiche is good? yea, happye are ye, if any trouble happē vnto you for righteousnes sake. Be not ye afraied for any terror of them, neither be ye troubled, but sanctifie the Lorde God in your heartes.

THE GOSPEL

IT came to passe that (when the people preased vpon Luc. v. hym, to heare the worde of God) he stode by the lake of Genezareth, and sawe two shippes stande by the lakes side, but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washyng their nettes. And he entred into one of the shippes (whiche pertained to Symon) and praied him, that he would thrust out a litle from the land. And he sat doune and taught the people out of the shyp. When he had lefte speakyng, he sayd vnto Simon: lanche out into the deepe, and let slippe your nettes to make a draughte. And Symon answered, and sayde vnto hym : Master, we haue labored all nighte, and haue taken nothyng. Neuertheles, at thy commaundement, I will loce furth the nette. And when they had this done, they inclosed a greate multitude of fishes. But their net brake, and they beckened to their felowes (whiche were in the other ship) that they shoulde come and helpe them. And they came and fylled bothe the shippes, that they soncke againe.

When Symon Peter sawe this, he fell doune at Jesus knees, sayng : Lorde goe from me, for I am a synnefull man. For he was astonyed and all that were with hym, at the draughte of fyshes whiche they had taken : and so was also James and John the sonnes of Zebede, whyche were parteners wyth Symon. And Jesus said vnto Symon : feare not, from hencefurth thou shalt catche men. And they brought the shippes to land, and forsoke all and folowed him.

BRETHREN, I would not that yeshould be ignoraūt, ^{i Cor. x.} how that our fathers were all vnder the cloude, and al passed through the sea, and were al baptised vnder Moses in the cloude, and in the sea, and did all eate of one spirituall meate, and did all drinke of one spirituall drinke. And they dranke of the spiritual rocke that folowed thē, whiche Rocke was Christe. But in many of them hadde God no delight. For they were ouerthrowen in the wilderness. These are ensamples to vs, that we should not lust after euil thinges, as they lusted. And that ye should not be worshippers of ymages, as were some of them according as it is written. The people sate downe to eate, and drynke, and rose vp to playe. Neither let vs be defiled with fornicacion, as some of them were defiled with fornicacion, and fell in one daye thre and twentie thousand. Neither let vs tempt Christe, as some of them tempted, and were destroyed of serpentes. Neither murmure ye, as some of them murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer. All these thynges happened vnto them for ensamples: But are written to put vs in remembraunce, whom the endes of the world are come vpon. Wherefore, let him that thinketh he standeth, take hede leste he fall. There hath none other temptacion taken you, but suche as foloweth the nature of manne. For my Maister taketh away frō me the Stewardshippe. I cannot digge, and to begge I am ashamed. I wote what to doe, that when I am put out of the Stewardshippe, they may receyue me into their houses.

So when he had called all his Masters debtors together, he sayd vnto the first: how much owest thou vnto my Master? And he sayd: an hundred tunnes of oyle. And he sayd vnto hym: take thy Bill, and sitte downe quickly, and write fiftie. Then sayd he to an other: how much owest thou? And he sayd: an hundred quarters of wheate. He sayd vnto hym: take thy bill and wryte foure skore. And the Lord commended the vniust Steward, because he had done wysely. This I say, that the lawe whyche began afterward, beyonde iiii. c. and xxx. yeres, doth not disanul the testament that was confirmed afore of God vnto Christwarde, to make the promise of none effect. For if the inheritaunce come of the lawe, it commeth not nowe of promise. But God gaue it to Abrahā by promyse. Wherefore then serueth the lawe ? The lawe was added because of transgressiō (till the sede came, to whome the promise was made) and it was ordained by Angels in the hande of a mediator. A mediator is not a mediator of one : But God is one. Is the lawe then against the promise of God ? God forbid. For if there had been a lawe geuen whiche could haue geuen lyfe : then no doubtte righteousnes should haue come by the lawe. But the scripture concludeth all thynges vnder synne, that the promise, by the faythe of Jesus Christe, should be geuen unto them that beleue.

THE GOSPELL

HAPPY are the iyes whiche see the thynges that Luc. x.
 ye see. For I tell you, that many Prophetes and kinges haue desired to see those thynges which ye see, and haue not seen them, and to heare those thynges whiche ye heare, and haue not heard thē.

And beholde, a certaine lawyer stode vp and tempted him, saying : Master, what shall I do to inherite eternall lyfe ? he said vnto him : what is written in the lawe ? how readest thou ? and he answered, and sayd : Loue the Lord thy God with al thy heart, and with al thy soule, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mynde: and thy neighbour as thy selfe. And he sayed vnto hym: Thou haste answered right. This do and thou shalt liue: but he willyng to iustifie hymselfe, sayed vnto Jesus: And who is my neighbor: Jesus answered and sayd. A certaine man descended from Jerusalem to Hierico, and fell among theues, whiche robbed him of his raymēt, and wounded him, and departed, leauyng him halfe dead. And it chaused that there came downe a certayne prieste that same waye, and when he sawe him, he passed by. And likewise a Leuite, when he went nye to the place came and loked on hym, and passed by. But a certaine Samaritane as he iorneyed, came vnto hym: and when he sawe hym, he had compassion on hym, and went to, and bounde vp his woundes, and powred in oyle and wyne, and set hym on his owne beast, and brought hym to a common inne, and made prouision for hym. And on the morowe, when he departed, he tooke out two pence, and gaue them to the hoste, and sayd vnto hym: Take cure of hym, and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come agayne, I wyll recompence thee. Which nowe of these thre thinkest thou was neighbour vnto hym that fell among the theues? and he sayed: he that shewed mercy on hym. Then sayed Jesus vnto hym: goe, and doe thou lykewyse.

THE COLLECTE

ALMIGHTYE and euerlastyng God, geue vnto vs the increase of faythe, hope, and charitie, and that we may obtaine that whiche thou doest promise : make vs to loue that whiche thou doest commaunde, through Iesus Christe our Lorde.

ISAYE walke in the spirite, and fulfyll not the Gala. v. lust of the fleshe. For the fleshe lusteth contrary to the spirite, and the spirite contrary to the fleshe : these are contrary one to the other, so that ye cannot doe whatsoeuer ye would. But and yf ye be led of the spirite, then are ye not vnder the lawe. The dedes of the fleshe are manyfest, whiche are these : adultery, fornicacion, vncleennesse, wantonnesse, worshipping of images, witchcraft, hatred, variance, zeale, wrath, strife, sedicions, sectes, enuying, murder, dronkennes, gluttony, and suche like, of the whiche I tell you before, as I haue tolde you in tymes past, that they whiche commit suche thinges, shall not be inheritors of the kingdome of God. Contrarily, the fruite of the spirite is loue, ioy, peace, long sufferying, gentlenes, goodnes, faithfulness, mekenes, temperancie. Against suche there is no lawe. They truly that are Christes, haue crucified the fleshe with the affections and lustes.

Which stode afarre of, and put furth their voyces, and sayed : Jesu master haue mercy vpon vs. When he sawe them, he sayed vnto them : go, shewe your selues vnto the priestes. And it came to passe, that as they went they were censed. And one of them, when he sawe that he was censed, turned backe agayne, and with a loude voyce praysed God, and fell downe on his face at his feete, and gaue him thanks. And thesame was a Samaritane. And Jesus answered, and sayed : Are there not x. censed? but where are those ix? There are not founde that returned againe to geue God prayse, saue onely this straunger. And he sayed vnto hym : arise, go thy waye, thy fayth hath made the whole.

YE see howe large a letter I haue writtē vnto you Gala. vi. with mine owne hande. As many as desyre with outwarde apperaūce to please carnally, thesame constraine you to be circumcised, only lest they should suffre persecucion for the crosse of Christ. For they thēselues whiche are circumcised kepe not the lawe, but desyre to haue you circūcised, that they might reioyce in your flesh. God forbyd that I should reioyce, but in the crosse of our Lorde Jesu Christ, whereby the worlde is crucified vnto me, and I vnto the world. For in Christ Jesu neither circumcision auaieth any thyng at all, nor vncircumcision : but a newe creature. And as many as walke accordyng vnto this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and vpō Israel that pertayneth to God. THE GOSPEL

NO manne can serue two Maisters, for either he Mat. vi. shall hate the one and loue the other, or elles leane to the one, and despise the other : ye canne not serue God and Mammon. Therefore I saye vnto you : be not carefull for your lyfe, what ye shall eate or dryncke : nor yet for your body, what raymente ye shall put on. Is not the life more worthe then meate ? and the body more of value then rayment ? Beholde the foules of the ayre, for they sowe not, neither do they reape, nor cary into the barnes: and your heauēly father fedeth them. Are ye not muche better than they? Whiche of you (by takyng carefull thought) can adde one cubite vnto his stature? And why care ye for rayment: Considre the Lylies of the felde how they growe. They laboure not: neither do they spynne. And yet I saye vnto you, that euen Salamō in al his royaltie, was not clothed like one of these. Wherefore, if god so clothe the grasse of the felde (whiche though it stād to day, is to morow caste into the fornace :) shall he not muche more do thesame for you, O ye of litle fayth? Therfore, take no thought, saying: what shall we eate, or what shal we drinke, or wherewith shall we be clothed? after all these thynges do the Gentyles seke. For youre heauenlye father knoweth that ye haue nede of all these thynges. But rather seeke ye first the kyngdome of god, and the righteousnes thereof, and all these thynges shalbe ministred vnto you. And they held theyr peace. And he toke hym and healed him, and let him go : and answered them, sayng : which of you shal haue an Asse or an Oxe fallē into a pit, and wil not straightwaie pul him oute on the Sabboth day ? And they could not aūswere him again to these thinges. He put forth also a similitude to the gestes, whē he marked how they preaced to bee in the hiest rouses, and sayed vnto them : when thou arte bidden of any man to a weddyng, sit not doune in the highest rouse, leste a more honorable man then thou, be bidden of hym, and he (that bad hym and thee) come and saye to thee : geue this man rouse, and thou then begin with shame to take the lowest rouse. Jesus saied vnto hym : Thou shalte loue the Lord thy God with all thy harte, and with all thy soule, and with all thy mynde. This is the firste and greatest commaundement. And the second is like unto it. Thou shalte loue thy neighbour as thy selfe. In these twoo commaundementes hang all the lawe and the prophetes. While the Phariseis were gathered together, Jesus asked them, saying : what thynke ye of Christ? whose sonne is he? They sayed vnto him : the sonne of Dauid. He saied vnto them : how then doeth Dauid in the spirite, call hym Lord? saying : The Lord sayed vnto my Lord, sit thou on my right hand till I make thyne enemies thy footestooles. Whether is it easier to saye, thy synnes bee forgeuen thee, or to saye arise and walke? But that ye maye knowe that the sonne of manne hath a power to forgeue synnes in yearth: Then sayeth he vnto the sicke of the Palsey: Arise, take vp thy bed, and go vnto thyne house. Agayne he sent furth other seruauntes, saying: Tell thē whiche are bidden: beholde, I haue prepared my diner, myne Oxen and my fatlinges are kylled, and al thinges are redy, come vnto the Mariage. But they made lighte of it, and wente their wayes: One to his farme place, another to his Marchaundise, and the remnaunte tooke his seruauntes, and intreated them shamefully, and slewe thē. But when the Kyng heard thereof, he was wrothe, and sente furthe his men of warre, and destroyed those murtherers, and brent vp their citie. Then sayed he to his seruauntes: the Mariage in dede is prepared, but they whiche were bidden, were not worthy: Go ye therfore out into the hye wayes: and as many as ye finde, bid thē to the mariage. And the seruauntes went furthe into the hye wayes, and gathered together all, as many as they could finde, bothe good and bad, and the weddyng was furnished with gestes. Then the King came in, to see the gestes, and when he spied there a man, whiche had not on a wedding garment, he sayed vnto hym: frende, howe cammest thou in hither not hauyng a wedding Garmēt? I THANKE my God with all remembraunce of you ^{Phil. i.} alwayes in al my praiers for you, and praye with gladnes: Because ye are come into the felowship of the Gospell, from the firste daye vnto now. And am surely certified of this, that he whiche hath begon a good worke in you, shall performe it vntill the daie of Jesus Christe: as it becommeth me, so iudge I of you all, because I haue you in my heart: forasmuche as ye are all companions of grace with me, euen in my bondes, and in the defendyng and stablishyng of the Gospell: for god is my recorde how greatly I long after you all, from the very heart rote in Jesus Christ. And this I praye, that your loue maye increase yet more and more in knowlege, and in al vnderstanding, that ye maye accept the thinges that are moste excellent, that ye maye be pure, and suche as offende no man, vntill the daye of Christe, beyng filled with the fruite of righteousnes, whiche commeth by Jesus Christ, vnto the glory and prayse of God.

PETER saied vnto Jesus: lorde how oft shall I for- ^{Math. xviii.} geue my brother, if he sinne against me, till seuen tymes? Jesus sayeth vnto hym: I saye not vnto thee vntill seuen tymes: but seuentie tymes seuē times. Therefore is the kyngdome of heauen likened vnto a certaine man that was a kyng, whiche would take accomptes of his seruauntes. And when he had begon to reckon, one was brought vnto hym, whiche ought hym tenne m. talentes, but forasmuche as he was not able to paye, his lord commaunded hym to be solde, and his wife and children, and al that he had, and paiment to be made. The seruaunt fell doune, and besought hym, saying : syr, haue pacience with me, and I will paye thee all. Then had the lorde pitie on that seruaunt, and loched hym, and forgaue hym the debt. So thesame seruaunt went out, and found one of his felowes whiche ought him an c. pence, and he layed handes on hym, and toke him by the throte, saying : paye that thou owest. And his felowe fell doune, and besought hym, saying : haue pacience with me, and I will paye thee all. And he would not, but went and caste hym into prison, till he should paye the debt. So, when his felowes sawe what was doen, they were verye sorye, and came and tolde vnto their Lorde all that had happened. Then his Lord called him and sayd vnto him, O thou vngracious seruaunt, I forgaue thee all that debte, when thou desiredst me : shouldest not thou also haue had compassion on thy felowe, euen as I had pitie on thee ? And his lorde was wroth, and deliuered hym to the Jaylers, till he shoulde paye all that was due vnto hym : So likewyse shall my heavenly father do also to you, yf ye from your hartes forgeue not (euery one his brother) their trespasses.

And the same hath now possessed a plat of ground, with the rewarde of iniquitie : and when he was hanged, he burst a sunder in the middes, and all his bowels gusshed out : And it is knowen vnto all the inhabiteurs of Hierusalem : in so muche that thesame felde is called, in theyr mother tongue, Acheldama, that is to saye, the bloude felde. For it is written in the booke of Psalmes : his habitacion be voyde, and no man be dwelling therein, and his bishoprike let an other take. Wherefore, of these menne whiche haue companied with vs (al the tyme that the lorde Jesus, had al his conuersacion emong vs, beginning at the baptisme of John vnto that same day, that he was taken vp from vs) must one be ordayned, to be a witnes with vs of his resurrection. And they appoynted two, Joseph whiche is called Barsabas (whose sirname was Justus) and Mathias. And when they prayed, they sayde : Thou Lorde, which knowest the heartes of all menne, shew whether of these two thou haste chosen : That he may take the roume of this ministracion and Apostleship, from whiche Judas by transgression fel, that he might goe to his own place. And they gaue furth theyr lottes, and the lot fel on Mathias, and he was coumpted with the eleuen Apostles.

quire a token of the Lorde thy God, whether it be towarde the depth beneth, or towarde the heigth aboue. Then sayde Ahaz: I will require none, neyther will I tempte the Lorde. And he sayed: hearken to, ye of the house of Dauyd: is it not ynoughe for you, that ye bee grieuous vnto menne, but ye muste greue my God also? And therefore the Lorde shall geue you a token: Beholde a virgin shall conceiue and beare a sonne, and his mother shall call hys name Emanuell.

AND in the sixth moneth, the Angell Gabriell was sente from God vnto a citie of Galile, named Nazareth, to a virgyn spoused to a manne, whose name was Joseph, of the house of Dauid, and the virgins name was Mary. And the Angel went in vnto her and sayd : Haile ful of grace, the Lorde is with thee : Blessed arte thou among weomen. When she sawe hym, she was abashed at hys saying : and caste in her mynde, what maner of salutacyon that shoulde be. And the angel said vnto her : feare not Mary : for thou hast found grace with God. Beholde, thou shalt conceiue in thy wombe, and beare a sonne, and shalt call his name Jesus : He shall be greate, and shalbe called the sonne of the highest. And the Lorde God shall geue unto hym, the seat of his father Dauid, and he shall reigne ouer the house of Jacob for euer, and of hys kyngdome there shalbe none end. Then said Mary vnto the angel : How shall this be, seeing I knowe not a man ? And the Angel aunswered and sayde vnto her : the holy gost shal come vpon thee, and the power of the highest shall ouershadowe thee. Therfore also that holy thing which shal be borne, shall be called the sonne of God. And beholde, thy cosin Elizabeth, she hath also conceived a sonne in her age. And this is her sixth moneth, which was called baren : for with god shal nothing be vnpossible. And Mary sayde : beholde the handmayde of the lorde : be it vnto me, according to thy woorde. And the Angell departed from her.

VNTO euery one of vs is geuen grace, according to the measure of the gift of Christe. Wherefore he sayeth: when he went vp an hie, he led captiuitie captiue, and gaue giftes vnto menne. That he ascended, what meaneth it, but that he also descended first into the lowest partes of the earth? he that descended, is euen the same also that ascended vp aboue all heauens, to fulfill all thinges. And the verie same made some Apostles, some prophetes, some Euangelistes, some Shepherdes and teachers: to the edifying of the saintes, to the woorke and minystacyon, euen to the edifying of the body of Christ, till we all come to the vntie of fayth, and knowledge of the sonne of god, vnto a perfecte man, vnto the measure of the full perfect age of Christe. That we hencefurth should be no more children, wauering and caryed about with euery winde of doctrine, by the wylinesse of men through craftines, wherby they lay awaite for vs, to deceiue vs. But let vs folow the trueth in loue, and in all thynges growe in him, which is the head, euen Christe, in whome if all the body be coupled and knit together, throughout euery ioint, wherwith one ministreth to an other (according to the operacion, as euerye parte hath his measure) he encreaseth the body, vnto the edifying of it selfe thorow loue.

IAMES the seruaunt of God, and of the Lorde Jesus Christe, sendeth greeting to the twelue Tribes, whiche are scattered abroad. My brethren, counte it for an excedyng ioye, when ye fall into diuerse temptacions: Knowyng thys, that the trying of youre faythe, gendreth pacyence: and lette pacyence haue her perfecte worke, that ye may bee perfecte and sounde, lackyng nothyng. If anye of you lacke wisdom, let him aske of him that geueth it: euen God, whiche geueth to all men indifferentlye, and casteth no man in the teeth, and it shalbe geuen hym. But let hym aske in fayth, and wauer not: for he that doubteth, is like a waue of the sea, whiche is toste of the windes, and caryed with violence. Neyther let that man thynke, that he shall receyue any thing of the Lorde.

A waueryng mynded manne, is vnstable in all hys wayes. Let the brother whiche is of lowe degree, reioyce when he is exalted. Agayne, let him that is ryche, reioyce when he is made lowe. For euen as the flower of the Grasse, shall he passe away. For as the sunne riseth with heate, and the grasse withereth, and his flower falleth away, and the beauty of the fashion of it perisheth: euen so shall the ryche man perishe in hys wayes. Happie is the man that endureth temptacyon: For when he is tryed, he shall receiue the crowne of lyfe, which the Lorde hath promised to them that loue hym.

And if I goe to prepare a place for you, I will come agayne and receyue you, euen vnto my selfe : that where I am, there may ye bee also. And whither I goe, ye knowe, and the waye ye knowe. Thomas sayeth vnto hym. Lorde wee knowe not whither thou goeste. And howe is it possible for vs to knowe the waye? Jesus sayeth vnto hym : I am the way, and the truth, and the life : No man cometh vnto the father but by me : if ye had knowen me, ye had knowen my father also : And nowe ye knowe hym, and haue seen hym. Philip sayeth vnto him : Lord shewe vs the father, and it suffiseth vs. Jesus sayeth vnto him, haue I bene so long tyme with you : and yet haste thou not knowen me? Philip, he that hath sene me, hath sene my father, and how sayest thou then, shew vs the father? Beleuest thou not that I am in the father, and the Father in me? Or elles beleue me for the woorkes sake. Verely, verely I say vnto you : he that beleueth on me, the woorkes that I do, the same shal he doe also, and greater woorkes then these shall he do, because I goe vnto my father. And whatsoever ye aske in my name, that will I dooe, that the father may be glorified by the sonne. If ye shall aske any thyng in my name, I will doe it.

TYDINGES of these thinges came vnto the eares of the congregacyon, whiche was in Hierusalem. And they sente furth Barnabas, that he should goe vnto Antioche. Which when he came, and had seene the grace of God, was glad and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart, they would continually cleaue vnto the Lorde. For he was a good man, and ful of the holy gost and of fayth, and much people was added vnto the Lorde. Then departed Barnabas to Tharsus, for to seke Saul. And when he had found him, he brought him vnto Antioche. And it chaused, that a whole yere they had their conuersacyon with the congregacion there, and taught muche people, inso-muche that the disciples of Antioche were the first that were called Christen. In those dayes came Prophetes from the citie of Hierusalem vnto Antioche. And there stode vp one of them, named Agabus, and signified by the spirite, that there should be great dearth throughout al the world, which came to passe in the Emperour Claudius dayes. Then the disciples, euery man accordyng to his habilitie, purposed to send succour vnto the brethren whiche dwelt in Jewry : which thyng they also dyd, and sent it to the elders by the handes of Barnabas and Saul.

And Peter was kepte in prison, but prayer was made without ceassyng, of the cōgregacion vnto God for him. And when Herode would haue brought him out vnto the people, thesame night slept Peter betwene two souldiers bound, with two chaynes: And the keepers before the doore, kept the prison. And beholde, the angel of the Lord was there present, and a light shyned in the habitation. And he smote Peter on the syde, and stiered hym vp, saying: arise vp quickly. And his chaynes fell of from his handes. And the angel sayd vnto hym: gyrde thy selfe, and binde on thy sandales. And so he did. And he sayth vnto hym: cast thy garment about thee and folowe me. And he came out and folowed him, and wyst not that it was truth whiche was done by the angel, but thought he had seen a vision. WHOSOEUER findeth an honest faithful woman, Prouerb. xxxi.
she is muche more worth then perles. The heart of her husband may safely trust in her, so that he shall fall in no pouertie. She will do hym good and not euill, all the dayes of her lyfe. She occupieth wooll and flaxe, and laboureth gladly with her handes.
She is lyke a marchauntes ship that bringeth her vitayles from a farre. She is vp in the night season to prouide meat for her houshold, and fode for her maydens. She considereth land and byeth it, and with the fruites of her handes she planteth a vyneyarde. She girdeth her loynes with strength, and courageth her armes. And yf she perceyue that her huswifery doeth good, her candle goth not out by night. She layeth her fyngers to the spindle :
and her hand taketh holde of the distaffe. She openeth her hande to the poore, yea she stretcheth furth her handes to suche as haue nede. She feareth not that the colde of wynter shall hurt her house, for all her houshold folkes are clothed with skarlet. She maketh her selfe fayre ornamentes, her clothing is white silke and purple. Her husband is muche set by in the gates, when he sytteth among the rulers of the land. She maketh clothe of silke and selleth it, and deliuereth gyrdles vnto the marchaunt. Strength and honour is her clothing, and in the latter day she shall reioyce. She openeth her mouth with wisdom, and in her tongue is the lawe of grace. She loketh well to the wayes of her housholde: and eateth not her bread with idlenes. Her children shall aryse, and call her blessed: and her husbād shal make much of her. Many daughters there be that gather riches together: but thou goest about them all. As for fauour it is deceiptful, and beutie is a vayne thyng: but a woman that feareth the Lorde, she is worthy to bee praised. Geue her of the fruite of her handes, and let her owne workes prayse her in the gates.

Luc. vii.

AND one of the Phariseis desyred Jesus that he would eate with him. And he wēt into the Phariseis house, and sate doune to meat. And behold, a woman in that citie (whiche was a synner) assone as she knew that Jesus sate at meate in the Phariseis house, she brought an Alabaster boxe of oyntment, and stode at his fete behynde hym wepyng, and began to washe his fete with teares, and did wipe them with the heares of her head, and kyssed his fete, and anoynted them with the oyntment. When the Pharisee (which had bydden hym) sawe that, he spake within hymselfe, saying: if this man were a prophet, he would surely know who and what maner of woman this is that touched hym, for she is a synner. Jesus answered and sayd vnto him: Simon, I haue somewhat to say vnto thee. And he sayd: Maister, say on. There was a certaine lender whiche had two debtors, the one ought hym fye hundreth pence, and the other fiftie. When they had nothing to pay, he forgaue thē both. Tel me therfore, whiche of them will loue him most? Simon answered and sayd: I suppose that he to whom he forgaue most. And he sayd vnto hym: thou hast truely iudged. And he turned to the woman, and sayd vn-

to Symon: Seest thou this woman? I entred into thy house, thou gauest me no water for my fete: but she hath washed my feete with teares, and wyped them with the heeres of her head. Thou gauest me no kysse: but she sence the tyme I came in, hath not ceased to kysse my feete. My head with oyle thou diddest not anoynt, but she hath anoynted my fete with oyntment. Wherefore I say vnto thee, many synnes are forgeuen her, for she loued muche. To whom lesse is forgeuen, thesame doth lesse loue. And he sayd vnto her: thy synnes are forgeuen thee. And they that sate at meate with him, began to saye within them selues. Who is this whiche forgeueth synnes also? And he sayd to the woman. Thy fayth hath saued thee: go in peace.

 Praise hym all ye Angels of his: praise him all his host.

Prayse hym Sonne and Moone: prayse ye him all ye starres and light.

Prayse hym all ye heauens: and ye waters that be aboue the heauens.

Let them prayse the name of the Lorde: for (he spake the worde, and they were made) he commaunded, and they were created.

He hath made them fast for euer and euer: he hath geuen them a lawe, whiche shall not be broken.

Prayse the Lorde vpon the yearth: ye dragons, and all depes.

Fyer, and hayle, snow and vapours, winde and storme: fulfillyng his worde.

Mountaynes and all hylles: fruitfull trees and all Cedres.

Beastes and all cattel: wormes and fethered foules.

Kynges of the yearth and all people: princes and all the Judges of the worlde.

Yongmen and maydens, olde men and children, praise the name of the Lorde : for his name only is excellent, and his prayse aboue heauen and yearth.

He shall exalt the horne of his people, all his saintes shall praise hym : euen the children of Israel, euen the people that serueth him.

NOT vnto vs (O Lorde) not vnto vs, but vnto Non nobis domine. Psal. cxv. thy name geue the praise : for thy louyng mercy, and for thy trouthes sake.

Wherefore shall the heathen say : where is nowe their God?

As for our God he is in heauen : he hath done whatsoever pleased him.

Their Idoles are syluer and gold : euen the woorke of mens handes.

They haue mouthes and speake not : eyes haue they and see not.

They haue eares, and heare not : noses haue they and smel not.

They haue handes and handle not : feete haue they and walke not, neither speake they thorough their throte.

They that make them are lyke vnto them : and so are all suche that put their trust in them.

But the house of Israel, trust thou in the Lorde : he is their succour and defence.

Ye house of Aaron put your trust in the Lorde : he is their helper and defender.

Ye that feare the Lorde, truste ye in the Lorde : he is their helper and defender.

The lorde hath been myndefull of vs, and he shall blesse vs : euen he shall blesse the house of Israell, he shall blesse the house of Aaron.

He shall blesse them that feare the Lorde : both small and great.

The Lorde shall increace you more and more : you and your children.

Ye are the blessed of the Lorde : whiche made heauen and yearth.

All the whole heauens are the lordes : the yerthe hath he geuen vnto the children of men.

The dead prayse not thee (O lorde) : neither all they that go doune into the silence.

THERE was a great battaile in heauen: Michael and his Angels fought with the Dragon, and the Dragon fought and his Angels, and preuailed not, neither was their place found any more in heauen. And the great dragon that olde serpent, called the deuill and Sathanas, was cast out, whiche deceiueth all the worlde. And he was cast into the earth, and his Angels were cast out also with him. And I heard a loude voyce, saying: in heauen is now made saluacion and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ. For the accuser of our brethren is cast downe, whiche accused them before our God day and night. And they ouercame him by the blood of the lambe, and by the word of their testimony, and they loued not their liues vnto the death. Therfore reioyce heauens, and ye that dwell in them. Whosoeuer therfore humbleth hymselfe as this childe, that same is the greatest in the kyngdome of heauen. And whosoeuer receyueth such a childe in my name, receyueth me. But whoso doth offende one of these lytleons which beleue in me, it were better for him that a milstone were hanged aboute his necke, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea. Woe vnto the worlde, because of offences: necessary it is that offences come: But woe vnto the manne, by whom the offence cometh. Wherefore, yf thy hande or thy foote hynder thee, cut him of, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to entre into life halt or maimed, rather thē thou shouldest (hauing two handes or two fete) be cast into euerlasting fyre. And yf thine iye offende thee, plucke it out, and cast it from thee. It is better for thee to entre into life with one iye, rather then (hauing ii. iyes) to be cast into hell fyre. Take hede that ye despise not one of these lytleons. For I saye vnto you: that in heauen their Angels doe alwayes beholde the face of my father, whiche is in heauen.

the Masse.

SO many as intende to bee partakers of the holy Communion, shall sygnifie their names to the Curate, ouer night : or els in the morning, afore the beginning of Matins, or immediatly after.

And if any of those be an open and notorious euill liuer, so that the congregacion by hym is offended, or haue doen any wrong to his neighbours, by worde, or dede : The Curate shall call hym, and aduertise hym, in any wise not to presume to the lordes table, vntill he haue openly declared hymselfe, to haue truly repented, and amended his former naughtie life : that the congregacion maie thereby be satisfied, whiche afore were offended : and that he haue recompensed the parties, whom he hath doen wrong vnto, or at the least bee in full purpose so to doo, as sone as he conueniently maie.

¶ Thesame ordre shall the Curate vse, with those betwixt whom he perceiueth malice, and hatred to reigne, not suffering them to bee partakers of the Lordes table, vntill he knowe them to bee reconciled. And yf one of the parties so at variaunce, be content to forgeue from the botome of his harte, all that the other hath trespassed against hym, and to make amendes, for that he hymself hath offended : and the other partie will not bee perswaded to a godly vnitie, but remaigne still in his frowardnes and malice : The Minister in that case, ought to admit the penitent persone to the holy Communion, and not hym that is obstinate.

¶ Upon the daie, and at the tyme appoincted for the ministracion of the holy Communion, the Priest that shal execute the holy ministry, shall put vpon hym the vesture appoincted for that ministracion, that is to saye : a white Albe plain, with a vestement or Cope. And where there be many Priestes, or Decons, there so many shalbe ready to helpe the Priest, in the ministracion, as shalbee requisite : And shall haue vpon them lykewise, the vestures appointed for their ministry, that is to saye, Albes, with tunacles. Then shall the Clerkes syng in Englishe for the office, or Introite, (as they call it) a Psalme appoincted for that daie.

The Priest standing humbly afore the middes of the Altar, shall saie the Lordes praier, with this Collect.

ALMIGHTIE God, vnto whom all hartes bee open, and all desyres knowen, and from whom no secretes are hid : clense the thoughtes of our heartes, by the inspiration of thy holy spirite : that we may perfectly loue thee, and worthely magnifie thy holy name : Through Christ our Lorde. Amen.

Then shall he saie a Psalme appointed for the introite : whiche Psalme ended, the Priest shall saye, or els the Clerkes shal syng.

iiij. Lorde haue mercie vpon vs.

iiij. Christ haue mercie vpon vs.

iiij. Lorde haue mercie vpon vs.

Then the Prieste standyng at Goddes borde shall begin.

Glory be to God on high.

The Clerkes.

And in yearth peace, good will towards men.

We praise thee, we blesse thee, we worship thee, we glorifie thee, wee geue tankes to thee for thy greate glory, O Lorde God heauenly kyng, God the father almightie.

O Lorde the onely begotten sonne Jesu Christe, O Lorde God, Lambe of God, sonne of the father, that takest awaye the synnes of the worlde, haue mercie vpon vs : thou that takest awaye the synnes of the worlde, receiue our praier.

Thou that sittest at the right hande of God the father, haue mercie vpon vs : For thou onely art holy, thou onely art the Lorde. Thou onely (O Christ) with the holy Ghoste, art moste high in the glory of God the father. Amen.

Then the priest shall turne hym to the people and saye.
The Lorde be with you.

The aunswere.
And with thy spirite.

The Priest.
Let vs praie.

Then shall folowe the Collect of the daie, with one of these two Collectes folowyng, for the Kyng.

ALMIGHTIE God, whose kingdom is euerlasting, and power infinite, haue mercie vpon the whole congregacion, and so rule the heart of thy chosen seruauant Edward the sixt, our kyng and gouernour : that he (knowyng whose minister he is) maie aboue al thinges, seke thy honour and glory, and that we his subiectes (duely consydering whose auctoritie he hath) maye faithfully serue, honour, and humbly obeye him, in thee, and for thee, according to thy blessed word, and ordinaunce : Through Jesus Christe oure Lorde, who with thee, and the holy ghost, liueth, and reigneth, euer one God, worlde without ende.
Amen.

ALMIGHTIE and euerlasting God, wee bee taught by thy holy worde, that the heartes of Kynges are in thy rule and gouernaunce, and that thou doest dispose, and turne them as it semeth best to thy godly wisdom : We humbly beseche thee, so to dispose and gouerne, the hart of Edward the sixt, thy seruauant, our Kyng and gouernour, that in all his thoughtes, wordes, and workes, he maye euer seke thy honour and glory, and study to preserue thy people, committed to his charge, in wealth, peace, and Godlynes :
Graunt this, O mercifull fater, for thy dere sonnes sake, Jesus Christ our Lorde. Amen.

The Collectes ended, the priest, or he that is appointed, shall reade the Epistle, in ■ place assigned for the purpose, saying.

The Epistle of saint Paule written in the Cha-piter of to the.

The Minister then shall reade thepistle. Immediatly after the Epistle ended, the priest, or one appointed to reade the Gospel, shall saie.

The holy Gospell written in the Chapter of.

The Clearkes and people shall aunswere.

Glory be to thee, O Lorde.

The priest or deacon then shall reade the Gospel: after the Gospell ended, the priest shall begin.

I beleue in one God.

The clerkes shall syng the rest.

The father almightie maker of heauen and yearth, and of all thinges visible, and inuisible: And in one Lorde Jesu Christ, the onely begotten son of God, begotten of his father before all worldes, God of God, light of light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, beeyng of one substaunce with the father, by whom all thinges were made, who for vs men, and for our saluacion, came doune from heauen, and was incarnate by the holy Ghoste, of the Virgin Mary, and was made manne, and was Crucified also for vs vnder Poncius Pilate, he suffered and was buried, and the thirde daye he arose again according to the scriptures, and ascended into heauen, and sitteth at the right hande of the father: And he shall come again with glory, to iudge both the quicke and the dead.

And I beleue in the holy ghost, the Lorde and geuer of life, who procedeth from the father and the sonne, who with the father and the sonne together, is worshipped and glorified, who spake by the Prophetes. And I beleue one Catholike and Apostolike Church. I acknowlege one Baptisme, for the remission of synnes. And I loke for the resurreccion of the deade: and the lyfe of the worlde to come. Amen.

After the Crede ended, shall folowe the Sermon or Homely, or some porciō of one of the Homelyes, as thei shalbe hereafter deuided: wherin if the people bee not exhorted, to the worthy receiuyng of the holy Sacrament, of the bodye and bloude of our sauior Christ: then shal the Curate give this exhortaciō, to those y^t be minded to receiue y^e same.

DERELY beloued in the Lord, ye that mynde to come to the holy Communiō of the bodye and bloude of our sauior Christe, must conside what S. Paule writeth to the Corinthiās, how he exhorteth all persones diligently to trie and examine theselues, before they presume to eate of that breade, and drinke of that cup: for as the benefite is great, if with a truly penitent heart, and liuely faith, we receiue that holy Sacramēt: (for then we spiritually eate the fleshe of Christ, and drinke his bloude, then we dwell in Christ and Christ in vs, wee bee made one with Christ, and Christ with vs) so is the daunger great, yf wee receyue the same vnworthely, for then wee become gyltie of the body and blood of Christ our sauior, we eate and drinke our owne damnacion, not considering the Lordes bodye. We kyndle Gods wrathe ouer vs, we prouoke him to plague vs with diuerse dyseases, and sondery kyndes of death. Therefore if any here be a blasphemer, aduouterer, or bee in malyce or enuie, in any other greuous cryme (excepte he bee truly sory therefore, and earnestly mynded to leaue the same vices, and do trust him selfe to bee reconciled to almightie God, and in Charitie with all the worlde) lette him bewayle his synnes, and not come to that holy table, lest after the taking of that most blessed breade: the deuyll enter into him, as he dyd into Judas, to fyll him full of all iniquitie, and brynge him to destruccion, bothe of body and soule. Judge therefore your selves (brethren) that ye bee not iudged of the lorde. Let your mynde be without desire to synne, repent you truly for your synnes past, haue an earnest and lyuely faith in Christ our sauior, be in perfect charitie with all men, so shall ye be mete partakers of those holy misteries. And aboue all thynges: ye must geue moste humble and hartie thanks to God the father, the sonne, and the holy ghost, for the redempcion of the worlde, by the death and passion of our sauior Christ, both God and man, who did humble him self euen to the death vpon the crosse, for vs miserable synners, whiche laie in darknes and shadowe of death, that he myghte make vs the children of God: and exalt vs to euerlasting life. And to thend that wee should alwaye remembre the excedyng loue of oure master, and onely sauior Jesu Christe, thus dyng for vs, and the innumerable benefites (whiche by his precious bloudshedyng) he hath obteigned to vs, he hath lefte in those holy Misteries, as a pledge of his loue, and a continuall remēbraunce of thesame his owne blessed body, and precious bloud, for vs to fede vpon spiritually, to our endles comfort and consolacion. To him therfore with the father and the holy ghost, let vs geue (as we are most bounden) continual thanks, submittyng our selves wholly to hys holy will and pleasure, and studying to serue hym in true holines and righteousnes, al the daies of our life. Amen.

In Cathedral churches or other places, where there is dailie Communion, it shall be sufficient to read this exhortacion aboue written, once in a moneth. And in parish churches, vpon the weke daies it may be lefte unsayed.

¶ And if vpon the Sunday or holy daye, the people be negligent to come to the Communion: Then shall the Priest earnestly exhorte his parishoners, to dispose themselves to the receiuing of the holy cōmunion more diligētly, sayng these or like wordes vnto the.

DERE frendes, and you especially vpon whose soules I haue cure and charge, on next, I do intende by Gods grace, to offre to all suche as shalbe godlye disposed, the moste comfortable Sacrament of the body and bloud of Christ, to be taken of them, in the remembraunce of his moste fruitfull and glorious Passyon: by the whiche passion, we haue obteigned remission of our synnes, and be made partakers of the kyngdom of heauen, whereof wee bee assured and assertheigned, yf wee come to the sayde Sacrament, with hartie repentaunce for our offences, stedfast faithe in Goddes mercye, and earnest mynde to obeye Goddes will, and to offende nomore. Wherefore our duetie is, to come to these holy misteries, with moste heartie thanks to bee geuen to almightie God, for his infinite mercie and benefites geuen and bestowed vpon vs his vnworthye seruantes, for whom he hath not onely geuen his body to death, and shed his bloude, but also doothe vouchsaue in a Sacrament and Mystery, to geue vs his sayed bodye and bloud to feede vpon spiritually. The whyche Sacrament beyng so Diuine and holy a thyng, and so comfortable to them whiche receyue it worthilye; and so daungerous to them that wyll presume to take thesame vnworthely: My duetie is to exhorte you in the meane season, to consider the greatnes of the thing, and to serche and examine your owne consciences, and that not lyghtly nor after the maner of dissimulers with God: But as they whiche shoulde come to a moste Godly and heauenly Banket, not to come but in the mariage garment required of God in scripture, that you may (so muche as lieth in you) be founde worthie to come to suche a table. The waies and meanes therto is.

First that you be truly repentaunt of your former euill life, and that you confesse with an vnfeined hearte to almightie God, youre synnes and vnkyndnes towardes his Maiestie committed, either by will, worde or dede, infirmitie or ignoraunce, and that with inwarde sorowe and teares you bewaile your offences, and require of almightie god, mercie, and pardon, promising to him (from the botome of your hartes) thamendment of your former lyfe. And emonges all others, I am commaunded of God, especially to moue and exhorte you, to reconcile your selves to your neighbors, whom you haue offended, or who hath offended you, putting out of your hartes al hatred and malice against them, and to be in loue and charitie with all the worlde, and to forgeue other, as you woulde that god should forgeue you. And yf any mā haue doen wrōg to any other : let him make satisfaccion, and due restitution of all landes and goodes, wronfully taken awaye or with holden, before he come to Goddes borde, or at the least be in ful minde and purpose so to do, assone as he is able, or els let him not come to this holy table, thinking to deceyue God, who seeth al mēnes hartes. For neither the absolution of the priest, can any thing auayle them, nor the receiuyng of this holy sacrament doth any thing but increase their damnacion. And yf there bee any of you, whose conscience is troubled and greued in any thing, lackyng comforte or counsaill, let him come to me, or to some other dyscrete and learned priest, taught in the law of God, and confesse and open his synne and grieve secretly, that he maye receiue suche ghostly counsaill, aduyse and comfort, that his conscience maye be releued, and that of vs (as of the Ministers of God and of the churche) he may receiue comfort and absolution, to the satisfaccion of his mynde, and auoyding of all scruple and doubtfulnes : requiryng suche as shalbe satisfied with a generall confession, not to be offended with them that doe vse, to their further satisfyng, the auriculer and secret confession to the Priest : nor those also whiche thinke nedefull or conuenient, for the quietnes of their awne cōsciences particularly to open their sinnes to the Priest : to bee offended with them that are satisfied, with their humble confession to God, and the generall confession to the churche. But in all thinges to folowe and kepe the rule of charitie, and euery man to be satisfied with his owne conscience, not iudgyng other mennes myndes or consciences : where as he hath no warrant of Goddes word to thesame.

¶ Then shall folowe for the Offertory, one or mo, of these Sentences of holy scripture, to bee song whiles the people doo offer, or els one of them to bee saied by the minister, immediatly afore the offering.

Let your light so shine before men, that they maye see Math. v.
your good woorkes, and glorify your father whiche is in heauen.

Laie not vp for your selves treasure vpon the yearth, Math. vi.
where the rust and mothe doth corrupt, and where theues breake through and steale : But laie vp for your selves treasures in heauen, where neyther ruste nor mothe doth corrupt, and where theues do not breake through nor steale.

Whatsoever you would that menne should do vnto Math. vii.
you, euen so do you vnto them, for this is the Lawe and the Prophetes.

Not euery one that saieth vnto me, lorde, lorde, shall Math. vii.

Blessed be the man that prouideth for the sicke and nedy, the lorde shall deliuer hym, in the tyme of trouble. Peal. xli.

Where there be Clerkes, thei shall syng one, or many of the sentences aboue written, accordyng to the length and shortenesse of the tyme, that the people be offeryng.

In the meane tyme, whyles the Clerkes do syng the Offertory, so many as are disposed, shall offer vnto the poore mennes boxe euery one accordyng to his habilitie and charitable mynde. And at the offeryng daies appoynted : euery manne and woman shall paie to the Curate, the due and accustomed offerynges.

Then so manye as shalbe partakers of the holy Communion, shall tary still in the quire, or in some conuenient place, nigh the quire, the men on the one side, and the women on the other syde. All other (that mynde not to receiue thesaid holy Communion) shall departe out of the quire, except the ministers and Clerkes.

Than shall the minister take so muche Bread and Wine, as shall suffice for the persons appoynted to receiue the holy Communion, layng the breade vpon the corporas, or els in the paten, or in some other comely thyng, prepared for that purpose. And puttyng y^e wyne into the Chalice, or els in some faire or cōueniente cup, prepared for that vse (if the Chalice wil not serue) puttyng therto a litle pure and cleane water : And setting both the breade and wyne vpon the Alter : Then the Prieste shall saye.

The Lorde be with you.

Aunswere.

And with thy spirite.

Priest.

Lift vp your heartes.

Aunswere.

We lift them vp vnto the Lorde.

Priest.

Let vs geue thanks to our Lorde God.

Aunswere.

It is mete and right so to do.

The Priest.

IT is very mete, righte, and our bouēden dutie that wee shoulde at all tymes, and in all places, geue thanks to thee, O Lorde, holy father, almightie euerlastyng God.

¶ Here shall folowe the propre preface, accordyng to the tyme (if there bee any specially appoynted) or els immediatly shall folowe. Therefore with Angelles. etc.

PREFACES

¶ Upon Christmas daie

BECAUSE thou diddeste geue^s Jesus Christe, thyne onely sonne to bee borne as this daye for vs, who by the operacion of the holy ghoste, was made very man, of the substaunce of the Uirgin Mari his mother, and that without spot of sinne, to make vs cleane from all synne. Therefore. etc.

¶ Upon Easter daie

BUT chiefly are we bound to praise thee, for the glorious resurreccion of thy sonne Jesus Christe, our Lorde, for he is the very Pascall Lambe, whiche was offered for vs, and hath taken awaie the synne of the worlde, who by his death hath destroyed death, and by his risyng to life againe, hath restored to vs euerlastyng life. Therefore. etc.

¶ Upon the Assencion daye

THROUGH thy most dere beloued sonne, Jesus Christ our Lorde, who after his moste glorious resurreccion, manifestly appered to all his disciples, and in their sight ascended vp into heauen, to prepare a place for vs, that where he is, thither mighte we also ascende, and reigne with hym in glory. Therefore. etc.

¶ Upon Whitsondaye

THROUGH Jesus Christe our Lorde, accordyng to whose moste true promise, the holy Ghoste came doune this daye frō heauen, with a sodain great sound, as it had been a mightie wynde, in the likenes of fiery toungues, lightyng vpon the Apostles, to teache them, and to leade them to all trueth, geuyng them bothe the gifte of diuerse languages, and also boldnes with feruent zeale, constantly to preache the Gospell vnto all nacions, whereby we are brought out of darkenes and error, into the cleare light and true knowlege of thee, and of thy sonne Jesus Christ. Therefore. etc.

¶ Upon the feast of the Trinitie

IT is very meete, righte, and oure bounden duetie, that we should at al tymes, and in al places, geue thanks to thee O Lorde, almighty euerlasting God, whiche arte one God, one Lorde, not one onely person, but three persones in one substaunce: For that which we beleue of the glory of the father, thesame we beleue of the sōne, and of the holy ghost, without any difference, or inequalitye, whom the Angels. etc.

After whiche preface shall folowe immediatly.

Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the holy companye of heauen: we laude and magnify thy glorious name, euermore praising thee, and saying :

Holy, holy, holy, Lorde God of Hostes : heauen and earth are full of thy glory : Osanna in the highest. Blessed is he that commeth in the name of the Lorde : Glory to thee O lorde in the highest. This the Clerkes shal also syng.

¶ When the Clerkes haue dooen syngyng, then shall the Priest, or Deacon, turne hym to the people and saye.

Let vs praie for the whole state of Christes church.

¶ Then the Priest turnyng hym to the Altar, shall saye or syng, playnly and distinctly, this prayer folowyng.

ALMIGHTIE and euerliuyng God, whiche by thy holy Apostle haste taught vs to make prayers and supplicacions, and to geue thanks for al menne : We humbly beseche thee moste mercyfully to receiue these our praiers, which we offre vnto thy diuine Maiestie, beseching thee to inspire cōtinually the vniuersal church, with the spirite of trueth, vnitie and concorde : And graunt that al they that do cōfesse thy holy name, maye agree in the trueth of thy holye worde, and liue in vnitie and godly loue. Speciallye we beseche thee to saue and defende thy seruaunt, Edwarde our Kyng, that vnder hym we maye be Godly and quietly gouerned. And graunt vnto his whole cōsaile, and to all that be put in auctoritie vnder hym, that they maye truely and indifferently minister iustice, to the punisshement of wickednesse and vice, and to the maintenaunce of Goddes true religion and vertue. Geue grace (O heauenly father) to all Bishoppes, Pastors, and Curates, that thei maie bothe by their life and doctrine, set furthe thy true and liuely worde, and rightely and duely administer thy holy Sacramentes. And to al thy people geue thy heauenly grace, that with meke heart and due reue-rence, they may heare and receiue thy holy worde, truly seruyng thee in holynes and righteousnes, all the dayes of their life: And we most hūbly beseche thee of thy goodnes (O Lorde) to coumfort and succour all them, whyche in thys transytory life be in trouble, sorowe, nede, syckenes, or any other aduersitie. And especially we commend vnto thy mercifull goodnes, this congregacion which is here assembled in thy name, to celebrate the commemoracion of the most glorious death of thy sonne: And here we do geue vnto thee moste high praise, and hartie thanks for the wonderfull grace and vertue, declared in all thy saintes, from the begynning of the worlde: And chiefly in the glorious and moste blessed virgin Mary, mother of thy sonne Jesu Christe our Lorde and God, and in the holy Patriarches, Prophetes, Apostles and Martyrs, whose examples (O Lorde) and stedfastnes in thy fayth, and kepyng thy holy commaundementes: graunt vs to folowe. We commend vnto thy mercye (O Lorde) all other thy seruantes, which are departed hence from vs, with the signe of faith, and nowe do reste in the slepe of peace: Graūt vnto them, we beseche thee, thy mercy, and euerlasting peace, and that at the day of the generall resurreccion, we and all they which bee of the mysticall body of thy sonne, may altogether be set on his right hand, and heare that his most ioyfull voyce: Come vnto me, O ye that be blessed of my father, and possesse the kingdom, whiche is prepared for you, from the begynning of the worlde: Graunt this, O father, for Jesus Christes sake, our onely mediatour and aduocate.

O God heauenly father, which of thy tender mercie, diddest geue thine only sonne Jesu Christ, to suffre death vpon the crosse for our redempcion, who made there (by his one oblacion once offered) a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblacion, and satisfacyon, for the sinnes of the whole worlde, and did institute, and in his holy Gospell commaund vs, to celebrate a perpetuall memory, of that his precious death, vntyll his comming again : Heare vs (O merciful father) we besech thee : and with thy holy spirite and worde, vouchsafe to bl^{esse} and sanc^tifie these thy gyftes, and creatures of bread and wyne, that they maie be vnto vs the bodye and bloude of thy moste derely beloued sonne Jesus Christe. Who in the same nyght that he was betrayed : tooke breade, and when he had blessed, and geuen thanks : he brake it, and gaue it to his disciples, sayng : Take, eate, this is my bodye which is geuen for you, do this in remembrance of me.

Here the priest shall take the Cuppe into his hādes.

Likewyse after supper he toke the cuppe, and when he had geuen thanks, he gaue it to them, sayng : drynk ye all of this, for this is my bloude of the newe Testament, whyche is shed for you and for many, for remission of synnes : do this as oft as you shall drinke it in remembrance of me.

These wordes before rehersed are to be saied, turning still to the Altar, without any eleuacion, or shewing the Sacrament to the people.

WHEREFORE, O Lorde and heauenly father, accordyng to the Instytucion of thy derely beloued sonne, our sauour Jesu Christ, we thy humble seruantes do celebrate, and make here before thy diuine Maiestie, with these thy holy giftes, the memoryall whyche thy sonne hath wylled vs to make, hauing in remembrance his blessed passion, mightie resurrection, and glorious ascencion, renderyng vnto thee most hartie thanks, for the innumerable benefites procured vnto vs by thesame, entirely desiryng thy fatherly goodnes, mercifully to accepte this our Sacrifice of praise and thanks geuing : most humbly beseching thee to graunt, that by the merites and death of thy sōne Jesus Christ, and through faith in his bloud, we and al thy whole church, may obteigne remission of our sinnes, and all other benefites of hys passyon. And here wee offere and present vnto thee (O Lorde) oure selfe, oure soules, and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and liuely sacrifice vnto thee: humbly besechyng thee, that whosoever shalbee partakers of thys holy Communion, maye worthely receiue the moste precious body and bloude of thy sonne Iesus Christe: and bee fulfilled with thy grace and heauenly benediction, and made one bodye with thy sonne Iesu Christe, that he maye dwell in them, and they in hym. And although we be vnworthy (through our manyfolde synnes) to offere vnto thee any Sacryfice: Yet we beseeche thee to accepte thys our bounden duetie and seruice, and commaunde these our prayers and supplications, by the Ministry of thy holy Angels, to be brought vp into thy holy Tabernacle before the syght of thy dyuine maiestie: not waiying our merites, but pardonyng our offences, through Christe our Lorde, by whome, and with whome, in the vnitie of the holy Ghost: all honour and glory, be vnto thee, O father almightie, world without ende. Amen.

Let vs praye.

AS our sauour Christe hath commaunded and taught vs, we are bolde to saye. Our father whyche art in heauen, halowed be thy name. Thy Kyngdome come. Thy wyll be doen in yearth, as it is in heauen. Geue vs this daye our dayly breade. And forgeue vs our trespases, as wee forgeue them that trespassed agaynst vs. And leade vs not into temptation.

The aunswere.

But deliuer vs from euill. Amen.

Then shall the priest saye.

The peace of the Lorde be alwaye with you.

The Clerkes.

And with thy spirite.

The Priest.

CHRIST our Pascall lambe is offred vp for vs, once for al, when he bare our sinnes on hys body vpon the crosse, for he is the very lambe of God that taketh away the sinnes of the worlde : wherefore let vs kepe a ioyfull and holy feast with the Lorde.

Here the priest shall turne hym toward those that come to the holy Communion, and shall saye.

YOU that do truly and earnestly repent you of your synnes to almightie God, and be in loue and charitie with your neighbors, and entende to lede a newe life, folowyng the commaundementes of God, and walkyng from hencefurth in his holy wayes : drawe nere and take this holy Sacrament to your comforte, make your humble confession to almightie God, and to his holy church here gathered together in hys name, mekely knelyng vpon your knees.

Then shall thys generall Confession bee made, in the name of al those that are minded to receiue the holy Communion, eyther by one of them, or els by one of the ministers, or by the prieste hymselfe, all kneling humbly vpon their knees.

ALMYGHTEIE God, father of oure Lord Jesus Christ, maker of all thynges, iudge of all men, we knowlege and bewaile our manyfold synnes and wyckednes, which we from tyme to tyme, most greuously haue committed, by thought, word and dede, agaynst thy diuine maiestie, prouokyng moste iustly thy wrath and indignacion against vs, we do earnestly repent and be hartely sory for these our misdoinges, the remembrance of them is greuous vnto vs, the burthen of them is intollerable : haue mercye vpon vs, haue mercie vpon vs, moste mercifull father, for thy sonne our Lorde Jesus Christes sake, forgeue vs all that is past, and graunt that we may euer hereafter, serue and please thee in neunes of life, to the honor and glory of thy name : Through Jesus Christe our Lorde.

Then shall the Prieste stande vp, and turnyng himselfe to the people, say thus.

ALMIGHTIE God our heauenly father, who of his great mercie, hath promysed forgeuenesse of synnes to all them, whiche with hartye repentance and true fayth, turne vnto him: haue mercy vpon you, pardon and delyuer you from all youre sinnes, confirme and strēgthen you in all goodnes, and bring you to euerlasting lyfe: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the Priest also say.

Heare what coumfortable woordes our sauour Christ sayeth, to all that truely turne to him.

Come vnto me all that trauell and bee heauy laden, and I shall refreshe you. So God loued the worlde that he gaue his onely begotten sonne, to the ende that al that beleue in hym, shoulde not perishe, but haue lyfe euerlasting.

Heare also what saint Paul sayeth.

This is a true saying, and woorthie of all men to bee receiued, that Jesus Christe came into thys worlde to saue sinners.

Heare also what saint John sayeth.

If any man sinne, we haue an aduocate with the father, Jesus Christ the righteous, and he is the propiciacion for our sinnes.

Then shall the Priest turnyng him to gods boord knele down, and say in the name of all them, that shall receyue the Communion, this prayer folowing.

WE do not presume to come to this thy table (O mercifull lord) trusting in our owne righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies: we be not woorthie so much as to gather vp the cromes vnder thy table, but thou art the same lorde whose propertie is alwayes to haue mercie: Graunt vs therfore (gracious lorde) so to eate the fleshe of thy dere sonne Jesus Christ, and to drynke his bloud in these holy Misteries, that we may continuallie dwell in hym, and he in vs, that oure synfull bodyes may bee made cleane by his body, and our soules washed through hys most precious bloud. Amen.

Then shall the Prieste firste receiue the Communion in both kindes himselfe, and next deliuer it to other Ministers, if any be there presente (that they may bee ready to helpe the chiefe Minister) and after to the people.

And when he deliuereth the Sacramente of the body of Christe, he shall say to euery one these woordes.

The body of our Lorde Jesus Christe whiche was geuen for thee, preserue thy bodye and soule vnto euerlasting lyfe.

And the Minister deliuering the Sacramēt of the bloud, and geuing euery one to drinke once and no more, shall say.

The bloud of our Lorde Jesus Christe which was shed for thee, preserue thy bodye and soule vnto euerlasting lyfe.

If there be a Deacon or other Priest, then shal he folow with the Chalice: and as the priest ministreth the Sacramēt of the body, so shal he (for more expediciō) minister the Sacrament of the bloud, in fourme before written.

In the Communion tyme the Clarkes shall syng.

ii. O lambe of god that takeste away the sinnes of the worlde: haue mercie vpon vs.

O lambe of god that takeste away the synnes of the worlde: graunt vs thy peace.

Beginning so soone as the Prieste doeth receyue the holy Communion: and when the Communion is ended, then shall the Clarkes syng the post Communion.

Sentences of holy scripture, to be sayd or song euery daye one, after the holy Communion, called the post Communion.

If any man will folowe me, let him forsake hymselfe, Math. xvi. and take vp his crosse and folowe me.

Whosoeuer shall indure vnto thende, he shalbe Mar. xiii. saued.

Praysed be the Lorde god of Israell, for he hath visited Luc. i. and redemed hys people: therefore let vs serue hym all the dayes of our lyfe, in holines and righteousnes accepted before hym.

Happie are those seruauntes, whome the Lord (when Luc. xii. he cummeth) shall fynde waking.

Be ye readye, for the sonne of manne will come, at an Luc. xii. hower when ye thinke not.

The seruaunte that knoweth hys maisters will, and Luc. xii. hath not prepared himself, neither hath doen according to his will, shalbe beaten with many stripes.

The howre cummeth and now it is, when true John iii. woorshippers shall wurship the father in spirite and trueth.

Beholde, thou art made whole, sinne no more, lest any John v. wurse thing happen vnto thee.

If ye shall continue in my woorde, then are ye my very Iohn viii. disciples, and ye shall knowe the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

While ye haue lighte, beleue on the lyght, that ye may John xii. be the children of light.

He that hath my commaundemētes, and kepeth them, Iohn xiiii. thesame is he that loueth me.

If any man loue me, he will kepe my woorde, and my Iohn xiiii. father will loue him, and wee will come vnto hym and dwell with hym.

If ye shall byde in me, and my woorde shall abyde in John xv. you, ye shall aske what ye will, and it shall bee doen to you.

Herein is my father gloryfied, that ye beare muche Iohn xv. fruite, and become my disciples.

This is my commaundement, that you loue together as I haue loued you.

Roma. viii.

If God be on our syde, who can be agaynst vs? which did not spare his owne sonne, but gaue him for vs all.

Rom. viii.

Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Goddes chosen? it is God that iustifyeth, who is he that can condemne?

Rom. xiii.

The nyght is passed, and the day is at hande, let vs therfore cast away the dedes of darkenes, and put on the armour of light.

i. Corin. i.

Christe Jesus is made of God, vnto vs wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctifying, and redempcion, that (according as it is written) he whiche reioyceth shoulde reioyce in the Lorde.

i. Corin. iii.

Knowe ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the spirite of God dwelleth in you? if any manne defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy.

i. Corin. vi.

Ye are derely bought, therfore glorifye God in your bodies, and in your spirites, for they belong to God.

Ephes. v.

Be you folowers of God as deare children, and walke in loue, euen as Christe loued vs, and gaue hymselfe for vs an offeryng and a Sacrifyce of a sweete sauoure to God.

Then the Priest shall geue thanks to God, in the name of all them that haue communicated, turning him first to the people, and saying,

The Lorde be with you.

The aunswere.

And with thy spirite.

The priest.

Let vs pray.

ALMIGHTYE and euerlyuyng God, we most hartely thanke thee, for that thou hast vouchsafed to feede vs in these holy Misteries, with the spirituall foode of the moste precious body and bloud of thy sonne, our sauour Jesus Christ, and hast assured vs (duely receiuing the same) of thy fauour and goodnes toward vs, and that we be very membres incorporate in thy Misticall bodye, whiche is the blessed companie of all faythfull people : and heyres through hope of thy euerlasting kingdome, by the merites of the most precious death and passion, of thy deare sonne. We therfore most humbly beseche thee, O heauenly father, so to assist vs with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy felowship, and doe all suche good woorkes, as thou hast prepared for vs to walke in, through Jesus Christe our Lorde, to whome with thee, and the holy goste, bee all honour and glory, worlde without ende.

Then the Priest turning hym to the people, shall let them depart with this blessing.

The peace of God (whiche passeth all vnderstanding) kepe your heartes and mindes in the knowledge and loue of God, and of hys sonne Jesus Christe our lorde. And the blessing of God almightie, the father, the sonne, and the holy gost, be emonges you, and remayne with you alway.

Then the people shall aunswere.

Amen.

Where there are no clerkes, there the Priest shall say al thinges appoynted here for them to sing.

When the holy Communion is celebrate on the workeday, or in priuate howses ; Then may be omitted, the Gloria in excelsis, the Crede, the Homily, and the exhortacion, beginning.

Dearely beloued. etc.

¶ Collectes to bee sayed after the Offertory, when there is no Communion, euery such day one.

ASSIST vs mercifully, O Lord, in these our supplications and praiers, and dispose the way of thy seruantes, toward the attainment of euerlasting saluacyon, that emong all the chaunges and chaunces of thys mortall lyfe, they maye euer bee defended by thy moste gracious and readye helpe : throughe Christe our Lorde. Amen.

O ALMIGHTIE Lorde and euerlyuyng God, vouchesafe, we beseche thee, to direct, sanctifye and gouerne, both our heartes and bodies, in the wayes of thy lawes, and in the workes of thy cōmaundementes : that through thy most mightie proteccion, both here and euer, we may be preserued in body and soule : Through our Lorde and sauour Iesus Christ. Amen.

G RAUNT we beseche thee almightie god, that the wordes whiche we haue hearde this day with our outwarde eares, may throughe thy grace, bee so grafted inwardly in our heartes, that they may bring foorth in vs, the fruite of good liuing, to the honour and prayse of thy name : Through Iesus Christe our Lorde. Amen.

P REUENT vs, O lorde, in all our doinges, with thy most gracious fauour, and further vs with thy continuall helpe, that in al our woorkes begonne, continued and ended in thee : we may glorifye thy holy name, and finally by thy mercy obtaine euerlasting life. Through, etc.

A LMIGHTIE God, the fountayn of all wisdome, which knowest our necessities beefore we aske, and our ignoraunce in asking : we beseche thee to haue compassion vpon our infirmities, and those thynges whiche for our vnwoorthines we dare not, and for our blindnes we can not aske, vouchsaue to geue vs for the woorthines of thy sonne Iesu Christ our Lorde. Amen.

A LMIGHTIE god, which hast promised to heare the petitions of them that aske in thy sonnes name, we beseche thee mercifully to inclyne thyne eares to vs that haue made nowe our prayers and supplicacions vnto thee, and graunte that those thynges whiche we haue faythfullye asked accordyng to thy will, maye effectually be obteyned to the reliefe of oure necessitye, and to the setting foorth of thy glorye : Through Iesus Christ our Lorde.

FOR RAYNE

O GOD heauenly father, whiche by thy sonne Iesu Christ, hast promised to al thē that seke thy kingdom, and the righteousnes therof, al thinges necessary to the bodely sustenance : send vs (we beseche thee) in this our necessitie, such moderate rayne and showers, that we may receiue the fruites of the earth, to our comfort and to thy honor : Through Iesus Christ our Lord.

FOR FAYRE WETHER

O LORDE God, whiche for the sinne of manne, didst once drowne all the worlde, except eight persons, and afterwarde of thy great mercye, didst promise neuer to destroy it so agayn : We hūbly beseche thee, that although we for oure iniquities haue woorthelye deserued this plague of rayne and waters, yet vpon our true repentaunce, thou wilt sende vs suche wether wherby we may receiue the fruites of the earth in one season, and learne both by thy punishment to amende our liues, and by the graunting of our petition, to geue thee prayse and glory : Through Iesu Christ our Lorde.

¶ Vpon wednesdaies and frydaies, the English Letany shalbe said or song in all places, after suche forme as is appoynted by the kynges maiesties Iniunccons : Or as is or shal bee otherwyse appoynted by his highnes. And thoughe there be none to cōmunicate with the Prieste, yet these dayes (after the Letany ended) the Priest shall put vpon him a playn Albe or surplesse, with a cope, and say al thinges at the Altar (appoynted to bee sayde at the celebracyon of the lordes supper) vntill after the offertory. And then shall adde one or two of the Collectes afore written, as occasion shall serue by his discrecion. And then turning him to the people shall let them depart, with the accustomed blessing.

And the same order shall be used all other dayes whensoever the people be customably assembled to pray in the church, and none disposed to communicate, with the Priest.

Lykewyse in Chapelles annexed, and all other places, there shalbe no celebration of the Lordes supper except there be some to communicate with the Priest. And in suche Chapelles annexed where y people hath not bene accustomed to pay any holy bread, there they must either make some charitable prouision for the bering of the charges of the Communion, or elles (for receyuyng of thesame) resort to theyr Parish Church.

For aduoyding of all matters and occasyon of dyscencyon, it is mete that the breade prepared for the Communion, bee made through all thys realme, after one sort and fashion: that is to say, vnleauened, and rounde, as it was afore; but without all maner of printe, and somethyng more larger and thicker then it was, so that it may be aptly deuided in diuers pieces: and euery one shall be deuided in two pieces, at the leaste, or more, by the discrecion of the minister, and so distributed. And menne muste not thynke lesse to be receyued in parte, then in the whole, but in eache of them the whole body of our sauour Jesu Christ.

And forsomuche as the Pastours and Curates within thys realme, shal continually fynd at theyr costes and charges in theyr cures, sufficient Breade and Wyne for the holy Communion (as oft as theyr Parishioners shalbe disposed for theyr spiritual comfort to receyue the same) it is therefore ordred, that in recompence of suche costes and charges, the Parishoners of euery Parische shall offer euery Sonday, at the tyme of the Offertory, the iuste valour and price of the holy lofe (with all suche money, and other thinges as were wont to be offered with the same) to the vse of theyr Pastours and Curates, and that in suche ordre and course, as they were woont to fynde and pay the sayd holy lofe.

Also, that the receiuing of the Sacrament of the blessed body and bloud of Christ, may be most agreable to the institution therof, and to the vsage of the primatiue Church: In all Cathederall and Collegiate Churches, there shal alwaies some Communicate with the Prieste that ministreth. And that the same may bee also obserued euery where abrode in the countrey: Some one at the least of that house in euery Parische, to whome by course after the ordinaunce herein made, it apperteyneth to offer for the charges of the Communiõ, or some other whom they shall prouide to offer for them, shall receiue the holye Communion with the Prieste: the whiche may be the better doen, for that they knowe before, when their course commeth, and maie therfore dispose theselues to the worthie receiuyng of the Sacramente. And with hym or them who doeth so offre the charges of the Communion: all other, who be then Godly disposed thereunto, shall lykewyse receiue the Communion. And by this meanes the Minister hauyng alwaies some to communicate with him, maie accordingly solempnise so high and holy misteries, with all the suffrages and due ordre appoynted for thesame. And the Priest on the weke daie, shall forbear to celebrate the Communion, excepte he haue some that will communicate with hym.

Furthermore, euery man and womā to be bound to heare and be at the diuine seruice, in the Parishe church where they be resident, and there with deuout prayer, or Godlye silence and meditation, to occupie themselues. There to paie their duties, to communicate once in the yeare at the least, and there to receyue, and take all other Sacramentes and rites, in this booke appoynted. And whosoever willyngly vpon no iust cause, doeth absent themselues, or doeth vngodly in the Parishe church occupie theselues: vpon proffeth therof, by the Ecclesiasticall lawes of the Realme to bee excommunicate, or suffre other punishment, as shall to the Ecclesiastical iudge (accordyng to his discrecion) seme conuenient.

And although it bee redde in aunciente writers, that the people many yeares past, receiued at the priestes hādes, the Sacrament of the body of Christ in theyr owne handes, and no commaundemēt of Christ to the contrary: Yet forasmuche as they many tymes conueyghed thesame secretelye awaye, kept it with them, and diuersly abused it to supersticion and wickednes: lest any suche thyng hereafter should be attempted, and that an vniformitie might be vsed, throughout the whole Realme: it is thought conuenient the people commōly receiue the Sacramēt of Christes body, in their mouthes, at the Priestes hande.

The Letany and Suffrages

O GOD the father of heauen : haue mercy vpon vs miserable synners.

O God the father of heauen : haue mercy vpon
vs miserable sinners.

O God the sonne, redemer of the world : haue mercy vpon vs miserable sinners.

O God the sonne, redemer of the world : haue mercy vpon vs miserable sinners.

O God the holy ghoste, procedyng from the father and the sonne : haue mercy vpon vs miserable sinners.

O God the holy ghost, procedyng from the father and the sonne : haue mercy vpon vs miserable sinners.

O holy, blessed, and glorious Trinitie, three persons and one God : haue mercye vpon vs miserable synners.

O holy, blessed, and glorious Trinitie, three persons and one God : haue mercye vpon vs miserable sinners.

Remember not lorde, our offences, nor the offences of our forefathers, neither take thou vengeance of our sinnes : spare vs good lord, spare thy people, whom thou hast redemed with thy moost precious bloude, and be not angry with vs for euer :

Spare vs good Lorde.

From al euill and mischiefe, from synne, from the craftes and assaultes of the deuyll, from thy wrathe, and from euerlastyng damnacion.

Good lorde deliuer vs.

From blyndnes of heart, from pryde, vainglory, and Hypocrisy, from enuy, hatred, and malice, and al vncharitablenes :

Good lorde deliuer vs.

From fornicacion, and all other deadlye synne, and from al the deceytes of the worlde, the fleshe, and the deuill :

Good lorde deliuer vs.

From lightning and tempest, from plague, pestilence and famine, from battaile and murther, and from sodain death :

Good lorde deliuer vs.

From all sedicion and priuye conspiracie, from the tyrannye of the bishop of Rome and all his detestable enormities, from al false doctrine and herisy, from hardnes of heart, and contempte of thy word and commaundemente :

Good lorde deliuer vs.

By the mistery of thy holy incarnation, by thy holy Natiuitie and Circumcision, by thy Baptisme, fastyng and temptacion :

Good lorde deliuer vs.

By thyne agony and bloudy sweate, by thy crosse and passion, by thy precious death and burial, by thy glorious resurrecciō and ascencion, by the cōming of the holy gost :

Good lorde deliuer vs.

In all tyme of our tribulacion, in all tyme of our wealth, in the houre of death, in the daye of iudgement :

Good lorde deliuer vs.

We synners do beseche thee to heare vs (O Lorde God) and that it maye please thee to rule and gouerne thy holy Church vniuersall in the right waye :

We beseche thee to heare vs good lorde.

That it maye please thee to kepe Edward the vi. thy seruauant our kyng and gouernour :

We beseche thee to heare vs good lorde.

That it maye please thee to rule his heart in thy faythe, feare, and loue, that he maye alwayes haue affiaunce in thee, and euer seke thy honour and glory :

We beseche thee to heare vs good lorde.

That it maye please thee to be his defendour and keper, geuyng hym the victorye ouer all his enemyes :

We beseche thee to heare vs good lorde.

That it maye please thee to illuminate all Bishops, pastours and ministers of the church, with true knowlege and vnderstandyng of thy word, and that bothe by theyr preachyng and liuing, they maye set it foorth and shewe it accordyngly :

We beseche thee to heare vs good lorde.

That it may please thee to endue the Lordes of the counsaile, and all the nobilitie, with grace, wisdom, and vnderstandyng :

We beseche thee to heare vs good lorde.

That it may please thee to blesse and kepe the magistrates, geuyng them grace to execute iustice, and to mayntayne trueth :

We beseche thee to heare vs good lorde.

That it may please thee to blesse and kepe al thy people :

We beseche thee to heare vs good lorde.

That it may please thee to geue to all nacions vnitie peace and concorde :

We beseche thee to heare vs good lorde.

That it may please thee to geue vs an heart to loue and dread thee, and diligently to lyue after thy commaundementes :

We beseche thee to heare vs good lorde.

That it may please thee to geue all thy people increase of grace, to heare mekely thy worde, and to receyue it with pure affection, and to bryng forth the fruites of the spirite :

We beseche thee to heare vs good lorde.

That it may please thee to bryng into the way of trueth all suche as haue erred and are deceyued :

We beseche thee to heare vs good lorde.

That it may please thee to strengthen suche as do stand, and to comfort and helpe the weake hearted, and to raise vp them that fall, and finally to beate downe Sathan vnder our feete :

We beseche thee to heare vs good lorde.

That it may please thee to succoure, helpe, and comfort all that be in daunger, necessitie and tribulacion :

We beseche thee to heare vs good lorde.

That it may please thee to preserue all that trauayle by lande or by water, all women labouryng of chylde, all sicke persons and yong chyldren, and to shewe the pytie vpon all prisoners and captyues :

We beseche thee to heare vs good lorde.

That it may please thee to defende and prouide for the fatherles children and wyddowes, and all that be desolate and oppressed :

We beseche thee to heare vs good lorde.

That it may please thee to haue mercy vpon all menne :

We beseche thee to heare vs good lorde.

That it may please thee to forgeue our enemies, persecu-tours and sclaunderers, and to turne their heartes :

We beseche thee to heare vs good lorde.

That it may please thee to geue and preserue to our vse the kyndly fruytes of the earth, so as in due tyme we may enioy them :

We beseche thee to heare vs good lorde.

That it may please thee to geue vs true repentaunce, to forgeue vs all our synnes, negligences and ignoraunces, and to endue vs with the grace of thy holy spirite, to amende our lyues accordyng to thy holy worde :

We beseche thee to heare vs good lorde.

Sonne of God : we beseche thee to heare vs.

Sonne of God : we beseche thee to heare vs.

O lābe of God, that takest away the sinnes of the world.

Graunt vs thy peace.

O lābe of God, that takest away the sinnes of the world.

Haue mercy vpon vs.

O Christe heare vs.

O Christe heare vs.

Lorde haue mercy vpon vs.

Lorde haue mercy vpon vs.

Christe haue mercy vpon vs.

Christe haue mercy vpon vs.

Lorde haue mercy vpon vs.

Lorde haue mercy vpon vs.

Our father whiche art in heauen. With the residue of the Pater noster.

And leade vs not into temptacion.

But deliuer vs from euyl.

The versicle.

O Lorde, deale not with vs after our synnes.

The aunswere.

Neither rewarde vs after our iniquities.

Let vs praye.

O GOD mercifull father, that despisest not the syghyng of a contrite heart, nor the desire of such as be sorowfull, mercifully assyste our prayers, that we make before the in all our troubles and aduersities, when soeuer they oppresse vs : And graciously heare vs, that those euyls, whiche the crafte and subteltie of the deuyll or man worketh against vs, be brought to nought, and by the prouidence of thy goodnes, they maye be dyspersed, that we thy seruauntes, beyng hurte by no persecucions, maye euermore geue thākes vnto thee, in thy holy churche, thorough Jesu Christe our Lorde.

O Lorde, aryse, helpe vs, and delyuer vs for thy names sake.

O God we haue heard with our eares, and our fathers haue declared vnto vs the noble workes that thou dydest in theyr dayes, and in the olde tyme before them.

O Lorde, aryse, helpe vs, and deliuer vs for thy honour.

Glory be to the father, the sonne, and to the holy ghoste, as it was in the begynning, is nowe, and euer shall be worlde without ende. Amen.

From our enemies defende vs O Chryste.

Graciously loke vpon our afflyctions.

Pytifully beholde the sorowes of our heart.

Mercifully forgeue the synnes of thy people.

Fauourably with mercy heare our prayers.

O sonne of Dauid haue mercy vpon vs.

Both nowe and euer vouchsafe to here vs Christe.

Graciously heare vs, O Christ.

Graciously heare vs, O lord Christ.

The versicle.

O Lorde, let thy mercy be shewed vpon vs.

The Aunswere.

As we do put our truste in thee.

Let vs praye.

WE humbly beseche thee, O father, mercifully to loke vpon our infirmities, and for the glory of thy name sake, turne from vs all those euilles that we moste righteously haue deserued: and graunte that in all oure troubles we maye put our whole trust and confidence in thy mercy, and euermore serue thee in purenes of liuyng, to thy honour and glory:
through our onely mediator and aduocate Jesus Christ our Lorde. Amen.

ALMIGHTIE god, whiche hast geuen vs grace at this tyme with one accorde to make our commune supplicacions vnto thee, and doest promise, that whan two or three bee gathered in thy name, thou wylt graunt theyr requestes: fulfill now, O lorde, the desires and petitions of thy seruauntes, as maye bee moste expediente for them, grauntyng vs in this worlde, knowlege of thy trueth, and in the worlde to come lyfe euerlasting.
Amen.

OF THE ADMINIstration of publyke Baptisme to be vsed in the Church

IT appeareth by aūcient wryters, that the Sacramente of Baptisme in the olde tyme was not commonly ministred but at two tymes in the yeaere, at Easter and whytsontyde, at whiche tymes it was openly mynistred in the presence of all the congregacion: Whiche custome(now bee yng growen out of vse) although it cannot for many consideracions be wel restored again, yet it is thought good to folowe thesame as nere as conueniently maye be: Wherefore the people are to bee admonished, that it is moste conueniente that baptisme shoulde not be ministred but vpon Sondayes and other holy dayes, when the most numbere of people maye come together. As well for that the congregacion there presente may testifie the receyuyng of them, that be newly baptysed, into the nōmbre of Christes Church, as also because in the Baptisme of Infantes, euery manne presente maye be put in remembraunce of his owne profession made to God in his Baptisme. For whiche cause also it is expediente that Baptisme be ministred in the Englishe tounge. Neuerthelesse (yf necessitie so requyre) children ought at all tymes to be baptised, eyther at the church or els at home.

PVBLIKE BAPTISME

When there are children to be Baptised vpon the Sondag, or holy daye, the parentes shall geue knowledge ouer nyght or in the mornyng, afore the beginning of Mattens to the curate. And then the Godfathers, Godmothers, and people, with the children muste be ready at the Church dore, either immediatly afore the laste Canticle at Mattens, or els immediatly afore the last Canticle at Euensong, as the Curate by his discrecion shall appoynte. And then standyng there, the prieste shall aske whether the chyldren be baptised or no. If they aunswere, No. Then shall the priest saye thus.

DEARE beloued, forasmuche as all men bee conceyued and borne in sinne, and that no manne borne in synne, can entre into the kingdom of God (except he be regenerate, and borne a newe of water, and the holy ghost) I beseeche you to call vpon God the father through our Lord Jesus Christ, that of his bounteouse mercy he wil graunt to these children that thing, which by nature they cannot haue, that is to saye, they may be baptised with the holy ghost, and receyued into Christes holy Church, and be made lyuely membres of thesame.

¶ Then the prieste shall saye.

Let vs praye.

ALMYGHTEIE and euerlastyng God, whiche of thy iustice dydest destroy by fluddes of water the whole worlde for synne, excepte viii. persones, whome of thy mercy (thesame tyme) thou didest saue in the Arke: And when thou didest drowne in the read sea wycked kyng Pharao with al his armie, yet (at thesame time) thou didest leade thy people the chyldren of Israel safely through the myddes therof: wherby thou didest fygure the washing of thy holy Baptisme: And by the Baptisme of thy welbeloued sonne Iesus Christe, thou dydest sanctifie the fludde Jordan, and al other waters to this misticall washing away of synne: We beseche thee (for thy infinite mercies) that thou wilt mercifully looke vpon these children, and sanctifie thē with thy holy gost, that by this holesome lauer of regeneracion, whatsoeuer synne is in them, may be washed cleane away, that they being deliuered from thy wrathe, may be receiued into tharke of Christes churche, and so saued from peryshyng: and beeyng feruente in spirite, stedfaste in fayth, ioyfull through hope, rooted in charitie, maye euer serue thee: And finally attayne to euerlastyng lyfe, with all thy holy and chosen people. This graunte vs we beseche the for Iesus Christes sake our Lorde. Amen.

¶ Here shall the priest aske what shall be the name of the childe, and when the Godfathers and Godmothers haue tolde the name, then shall he make a crosse vpon the chilles forehead and breste, saying.

¶ N. Receyue the signe of the holy Crosse, both in thy forehead, and in thy breste, in token that thou shalt not be ashamed to confesse thy fayth in Christe crucified, and manfully to fyght vnder his banner against synne, the worlde, and the deuill, and to continewe his faythfull soldiour and seruauant vnto thy lyfes ende. Amen.

And this he shall doe and saye to as many children as bee present to be Baptised, one after an other.

Let vs praye.

ALMYGHTEIE and immortall God, the ayde of all that nede, the helper of all that flee to thee for succour, the life of them that beleue, and the resurreccion of the dead: we call vpon the for these infantes, that they cummyng to thy holy Baptisme, may receyue remission of theyr sinnes, by spirituall regeneracion. Receyue them (O Lorde) as thou haste promysed by thy welbeloued sonne, saying: Aske, and you shall haue : seke, and you shall fynde : knocke and it shall be opened vnto you. So geue nowe vnto vs that aske : Lette vs that seke, fynde : open thy gate vnto vs that knocke : that these infantes maye enioy the euerlastyng benediccion of thy heauenly washing, and may come to the eternall kyngdome, whiche thou haste promysed, by Christe our Lorde. Amen.

Then let the priest loking vpon the chyl dren, saye.

I COMMAŪDE thee, vncleane spirite, in the name of the father, of the sonne, and of the holy ghost, that thou come out, and departe from these infantes, whom our Lord Jesus Christe hath vouchesaues, to call to his holy Baptisme, to be made membres of his body, and of his holy congregacion. Therefore thou cursed spirite, remembre thy sentence, remembre thy iudgemente, remembre the daye to be at hande, wherein thou shalt burne in fyre euerlasting, prepared for the and thy Angels. And presume not hereafter to exercise any tyrannye towarde these infantes, whom Christe hath bought with his precious bloud, and by this his holy Baptisme calleth to be of his flocke.

Then shall the priest saye.

The Lorde be with you.

The people.

And with thy spirite.

The Minister.

Heare nowe the gspell written by S. Marke.

Marke x.

AT a certayne tyme they brought children to Christe that he should touche them, and hys disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when Jesus sawe it, he was displeased, and sayed vnto them : Suffre lytle children to come vnto me, and forbyd them not : for to suche belongeth the kingdom of God. Verely I say vnto you : whosoever doeth not receyue the kyngdom of God, as a lytle chylde : he shall not entre therin. And when he had taken them vp in his armes : he put his handes vpon them and blessed them.

After the gospel is red, the minister shall make this briefe exhortacion vpon the woordes of the gospel.

FRENDES you heare in this gospel the woordes of our Sauour Christe, that he commaunded the children to be brought vnto him: howe he blamed those that would haue kept them from hym: howe he exhorteth all men to folowe theyr innocencie. Ye perceyue howe by his outwarde gesture and dede, he declared his good wyll towarde them. For he embraced thē in his armes, he layed his handes vpon them, and blessed them: doubt ye not therfore, but earnestly beleue, that he wyll lykewyse fauourably receyue these present infantes, that he wyll embrace them, with the armes of his mercy, that he wyll geue vnto them the blessing of eternall lyfe: and make them partakers of his euerlasting kingdome. Wherefore we beyng thus perswaded of the good wyll of our heauenly father towarde these infantes, declared by his sonne Iesus Christe: And nothyng doubtyng but that he fauourably alloweth this charitable worke of ours, in bringing these children to his holy baptisme: let vs faythfully and deuoutly geue thanks vnto him: And say the prayer which the Lord himselfe taught. And in declaracion of our fayth, let vs also recyte the articles conteyned in our Crede.

Here the minister with the Godfathers, Godmothers, and people presente, shall saye.

Our father whiche art in heauen, halowed bee thy name. etc.

And then shall saye openly.

I beleue in God the father almightie. etc.

The priest shall adde also this prayer.

ALMIGHTIE and euerlastyng God, heauenly father, we geue the humble thanks, that thou haste vouchesaued to call vs to knowledge of thy grace, and fayth in thee: Increase and confyrme this fayth in vs euermore: Geue thy holy spirite to these infantes, that they may be borne agayne, and be made heyres of euerlasting saluacion, through our Lord Jesus Christ : Who lyueth and reigneth with thee and the holy spirite, nowe and for euer. Amen.

Then let the priest take one of the children by the ryght hande, thother being brought after him. And cūing into the Churchē towardē the fonte, saye.

THE Lorde vouchesafe to receyue you into his holy housholde, and to kepe and gouerne you alwaye in thesame, that you may haue euerlasting lyfe. Amen.

Then standyng at the fonte the priest shall speake to the God-fathers and Godmothers, on this wyse.

WELBELOUED frendes, ye haue brought these childrē here to bee Baptized, ye haue prayed that our Lorde Jesus Christ would vouchsafe to receyue them, to lay his handes vpon them, to blesse them, to release them of theyr sinnes, to geue them the kyngdome of heauen, and euerlastyng life. Ye haue heard also that our Lorde Jesus Christe hath promysed in his gospel, to graunte all these thynges that ye haue prayed for : whiche promyse he for his parte, will moste surely kepe and perfourme. Wherefore after this promyse made by Christe, these infantes muste also faythfully for theyr parte promise by you, that be theyr suerties, that they wyll forsake the deuyll and all his workes, and constantly beleue Gods holy woorde, and obediently kepe his commaundementes.

Then shall the priest demaunde of the childe (whiche shalbe first Baptized) these questiōs folowing : first naming the childe, and saying.

N. Doest thou forsake the deuill and all his workes?

Aunswere.

I forsake them.

Minister.

Doest thou forsake the vaine pompe, and glory of the worlde, with all the couetouse desyres of thesame?

Aunswere.

I forsake them.

Minister.

Doest thou forsake the carnall desyres of the flesh, so that thou wilt not folowe, nor be ledde by them?

Aunswere.

I forsake them.

Minister.

Doest thou beleue in God the father almyghtie, maker of heauen and earth?

Aunswere.

I beleue.

Minister.

Doest thou beleue in Jesus Christe his only begotten sonne our Lorde, and that he was conceyued by the holy gost, borne of the virgin Mary, that he suffered vnder Poncius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried, that he went downe into hell, and also dyd ryse agayne the thyrde daye : that he ascended into heauen, and sitteth on the ryghthande of God the father almighty : And from thence shall come agayne at the ende of the worlde, to iudge the quicke and the dead : Doest thou beleue this?

Aunswere.

I beleue.

Minister.

Doest thou beleue in the holy gost, the holy Catholike Church, the cōmuniō of Saintes, remissiō of Sinnes, resurreccion of the fleshe, and euerlastyng lyfe after death?

Aunswere.

I beleue.

Minister.

What doest thou desyre?

Aunswere.

Baptisme.

Minister.

Wilt thou be Baptized?

Aunswere.

I wyll.

Then the prieste shall take the childe in his handes, and aske the name. And naming the childe, shall dyppe it in the water thryse. First dyping the ryght syde : Seconde the left syde : The thyrde tyme dyping the face towarde the fonte : So it be discretly and warely done, saying.

N. I Baptize thee in the name of the father, and of the sonne, and of the holy gost. Amen.

And if the childe be weake, it shall suffice to powre water vpon it, saying the foresayed woordes. N. I Baptize thee, etc. Then the Godfathers and Godmothers shall take and lay theyr handes vpon the childe, and the minister shall put vpon him his white vesture, commonly called the Crisome: And saye.

TAKE this white vesture for a tokē of the innocencie, whiche by Gods grace in this holy sacramente of Baptisme, is geuen vnto the: and for a signe wherby thou art admonished, so long as thou lyest, to geue thy selfe to innocencie of liuing, that after this transitorye lyfe, thou mayst be partaker of the lyfe euerlasting. Amen.

Then the prieste shall annoynt the infant vpon the head, saying.

ALmighty God the father of our lorde Jesus Christ, who hath regenerate thee by water and the holy gost, and hath geuē vnto thee remissiō of al thy sinnes: he vouchsaue to annoynte thee with the vnccion of his holy spirite, and bryng thee to the inheritaunce of euerlasting lyfe. Amen.

When there are many to be Baptized, this ordre of demanding, Baptizing, puttyng on the Crysme, and enoyntyng, shalbe vsed seuerally with euery chylde. Those that be firste Baptized departing from the fonte, and remaynyng in some conueniente place within the Church, vntill all be Baptized. At the laste ende, the priest calling the Godfathers and Godmothers together: shall saye this shorte exhortacion folowing.

FORASMUCH as these children haue promised by you to forsake the deuill and al his workes, to beleue in God, and to serue him: you must remēbre that it is your partes and duetie, to see that these infantes be taught, so soone as they shalbe able to learne, what a solemne vowe, promyse, and profession, they haue made by you. And that they maye knowe these thynges the better: ye shall call vpon them to heare sermons, and chiefly you shal prouide that thei may learne the Crede, the Lordes prayer, and the ten commaundementes in thenglishe tounge: and all other thinges, which a christian manne ought to knowe and beleue to his soules health. And that these children may be vertuously brought vp to leade a godly and christiā life: remēbring alwayes that Baptisme doeth represent vnto vs our professiō, which is to folow

the example of our Sauour Christe, and to be made lyke vnto him, that as he dyed and rose againe for vs: so should we (whiche are Baptised) dye from synne, and ryse agayne vnto righteousnesse, continually mortifying all our euyl and corrupte affections, and dayly procedyng in all vertue and godlynesse of lyuyng.

The minister shall commaunde that the Crisomes be brought to the churche and delyuered to the preistes after the accustomed maner, at the purification of the mother of euery chylde. And that the children be brought to the Bishop to bee confirmed of hym, so soone as they can saye in theyr vulgare tounge the articles of the fayth, the Lordes prayer, and the ten commaundementes, and be further instructed in the Catechisme, set furth for that purpose, accordingly as it is there expressed.

And so lette the congregacion departe in the name of the Lorde.

- ¶ Note that yf the numbre of children to be Baptised, and multitude of people presente bee so great that they cannot conueniently stand at the Churche doore: then let them stand within the Churche in some conuenient place, nygh vnto the Churche doore: And there all thynges be sayed and done, appoynted to be sayed and done at the Churche doore.

OF THEM THAT BE

Baptised in priuate houses in tyme of necessitie

The pastours and curates shall oft admonyshe the people, that they differ not the Baptisme of infantcs any longer then the Sondaye, or other holy daye, nexte after the chylde bee borne, onlesse vpon a great and reasonable cause declared to the curate and by hym approued.

And also they shal warne them that without great cause, and necessitie, they Baptise not children at home in theyr houses. And when great nede shall compell them so to doe, that then they minister it on this fashion.

First let them that be present cal vpon God for his grace, and saye the Lordes prayer, yf the tyme will suffre. And then one of them shal name the childe, and dippe him in the water, or poure water vpon him, saying these woordes.

¶ N. I Baptise the in the name of the father, and of the sonne, and of the holy ghoste. Amen.

¶ And let them not doubt, but that the child so Baptised, is lawfully and sufficiently Baptised, and ought not to be Baptised againe, in the Church. But yet neuerthelesse, if the childe whiche is after this sorte Baptised, doe afterwarde lyue: it is expedient that he be brought into the Church, to thentente the prieste maye examine and trye, whether the childe be lawfully Baptised or no. And yf those that bryng any childe to the Church doe aunswere that he is alreadye Baptised: Then shall the priest examin them, further.

By whom the childe was Baptised?

Who was presente when the childe was baptised?

Whether they called vpon God for grace and succoure in that necessitie?

With what thyng, or what matter they dyd Baptise the childe?

With what woordes the childe was Baptised?

Whether they thinke the childe to be lawfully and perfectly Baptised?

And if the ministers shall proue by the aunswers of suche as brought the childe that all thynges were done, as they ought to be: Then shall not he christen the childe agayne, but shall receyue hym, as one of the flocke of the true christian people, saying thus.

I CERTIFIE you, that in this case ye haue doen wel, and according vnto due ordre concerning the baptising of this childe, which being borne in original synne and in the wrathe of God, is nowe by the lauer of regeneration in Baptisme, made the childe of God, and heire of euerlastyng life: for oure Lorde Jesus Christe doeth not denye hys grace and mercie vnto such infantes, but most louingly doeth call them vnto him. As the holy ghospell doeth witnesse to our coumforte on this wyse.

AT a certaine time thei brought children vnto Marke x. Christ that he should touch them, and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when Jesus sawe it, he was displeased, and sayed vnto them: Suffre lytle chyldren to come vnto me, and forbidde them not, for to suche belongeth the kingdome of God. Verely I saye vnto you, whosoeuer doeth not receyue the kingdom of God as a lytle chylde, he shall not enter therin. And when he had taken them vp in his armes, he put his handes vpon them, and blissed them.

After the ghospell is read: the minister shall make this exhortacion vpon the woordes of the ghospell.

FRENDES ye heare in this ghospell the woordes of our Saueoure Christ, that be cōmaunded the children to be brought vnto him, howe he blamed those that would haue kept them from hym, howe he exhorted all men to folowe their innocencie: Ye perceiue how by his outward gesture and dede he declared his good wyll towarde them, for he embraced them in his armes, he layed his handes vpon them and blessed them. Doubt you not therfore, but earnestly beleue, that he hath lykewyse fauourably receyued this presente infante, that he hath enbraced him with the armes of his mercy, that he hath geuen vnto him the blessing of eternal lyfe, and made him partaker of his euerlasting kingdom. Wherefore we beyng thus perswaded of the good will of oure heauenly father, declared by his sonne Jesus Christ towards this infante: Let vs faythfully and deuoutly geue thanks vnto him, and saye the prayer whiche the Lorde himselve taught, and in declaracion of our fayth, let vs also recyte the articles contained in our Crede.

Here the minister with the Godfathers and Godmothers shall saye.

OUR father whiche arte in heauen, halowed be thy name. etc.

Then shall they saye the Crede, and then the prieste shall demaunde the name of the childe, whiche beyng by the Godfathers and Godmothers pronounced, the minister shall saye.

N. Doest thou forsake the deuill and all his workes?

Aunswere.

I forsake them.

Minister.

Doest thou forsake the vaine pompe and glory of the worlde, with all the couetous desyres of thesame?

Aunswere.

I forsake them.

Minister.

Doest thou forsake the carnall desyres of the flesh so that thou wilt not folowe and be led by them?

Aunswere.

I forsake them.

Minister.

Doest thou beleue in God the father almyghtie, maker of heauen and yearth?

Aunswere.

I beleue.

Minister.

Doest thou beleue in Jesus Christe hys onely begotten sonne our lorde, and that he was conceyued by the holy Goste, borne of the virgin Marie, that he suffered vnder Pontius Pilate, was crucifyed, dead and buried, that he went downe into hel, and also did arise againe the third day, that he ascended into heauen, and sitteth on the righte hande of god the father almightie : And from thence shal come agayn at the ende of the world to iudge the quicke and the dead, doest thou beleue thus?

Aunswere.

I beleue.

Minister.

Doest thou beleue in the holy goste, the holy catholyke Church, the Communion of Saintes, Remission of sinnes, Resurreccio of the flesh, and euerlasting life after deth?

Aunswere.

I beleue.

Then the minister shal put the white vesture commonly called the Crysome, vpon the childe, saying.

TAKE thys whyte vesture for a token of the innocencie whiche by goddes grace in the holy sacramente of baptysme is geuen vnto thee, and for a signe wherby thou art admonished so lōg as thou shalt lyue, to geue thy selfe to innocencye of liuyng, that after this transitory life, thou maiest be partaker of the life euerlasting. Amen.

¶ Let vs pray.

ALMIGHTIE and euerlasting god heauenly father, wee geue thee humble thanks that thou hast vouchesafed to cal vs to the knowlege of thy grace, and faith in thee : Increase and confirme this fayth in vs euermore : Geue thy holy spirite to this infant, that he being borne agayne, and beeing made heyre of euerlasting saluacion through our lord Jesus Christ, may cōtinue thy seruauēt, and attein thy promises through the same our lorde Jesus Christe thy sonne, who liueth and reigneth with the in vnitie of the same holy spirite euerlastingly. Amen.

Then shall the minister make this exhortacion, to the Godfathers, and Godmothers.

FOR asmuche as this chylde hath promised by you to forsake the deuil and al his workes, to beleue in god, and to serue him, you must remember that it is your partes and duetie to see that this infant be taught so sone as he shalbe able to learne, what a solemne vowe, promise, and profession he hath made by you, and that he may know these thinges the better, ye shall call vpon hym to heare sermons: And chiefly ye shal prouide that he may learne the Crede, the Lordes prayer, and the ten commaundementes in the english tong, and al other thinges which a christian man ought to know and beleue to his soules health, and that this childe may bee vertuously brought vp, to leade a godly and a christian life. Remembering alway that baptisme doeth represent vnto vs our profession, which is to folow the example of our sauour Christe, and to be made like vnto him, that as he died and rose again for vs: so should we whiche are baptized dye from sin, and ryse againe vnto righteousness, continually mortifying al our euil and corrupt affections, and dayly proceding in al vertue and godlines of liuing.

etc. As in publike Baptisme.

But if they which bring the infantes to the church, do make an vncertain answere to the priestes questions, and say that they can not tel what they thought, did, or sayde in that great feare and trouble of mynde: (as oftentimes it chaunseth) Then let the priest Baptize him in forme aboue written, concerning publyke Baptisme, sauynge that at the dyppynge of the childe in the fonte, he shall vse this forme of wordes.

IF thou be not Baptized already. N. I Baptize thee in the name of the father, and of the sonne, and of the holy gost. Amen.

The water in the fonte shalbe chaunged euery moneth once at the lest, and afore any child be Baptized in the water so chaunged, the priest shall say at the font these prayers folowing.

O MOSTE mercifull god oure sauioure Jesu Christ, who hast ordeyned the element of water for the regeneraciō of thy faythful people, vpon whom beyng baptised in the riuer of Jordane, the holye ghoste came down in the likenesse of a dooue : Sende down we beseche thee thesame thy holye spirite to assiste vs, and to bee present at this our inuocacion of thy holy name : Sanctifie ✠ this fōtaine of baptisme, thou that art the sanctifier of al thynges, that by the power of thy worde, all those that shall be baptized therein, maye be spirituallye regenerated, and made the children of euerlasting adopcion. Amen.

O mercifull God, graunte that the olde Adam, in them that shalbe baptized in this fountayne, maye so be buried, that the newe man may be raised vp agayne. Amen.

Graunt that all carnal affeccions maie die in them : and that all thynges belonging to the spirite maye liue and growe in them. Amen.

Graunt to all them which at this fountayne forsake the deuill and all his workes : that they maye haue power and strength to haue victorie and to triumph againste hym the worlde and the fleshe. Amen.

Whosoeuer shal confesse the, o lorde : recognise him also in thy kingdome. Amen.

Graunt that al sinne and vice here maie bee so extinct : that thei neuer haue power to raigne in thy seruantes. Amē.

Graunte that whosoeuer here shall begynne to be of thy flocke : maie euermore continue in thesame. Amen.

Graunt that all they which for thy sake in this life doe denie and forsake themselves : may winne and purchase thee (o lord) which art euerlasting treasure. Amen.

Graunt that whosoeuer is here dedicated to thee by our office and ministerie: maye also bee endewed with heauenly vertues, and euerlastinglye rewarded through thy mercie, O Blessed lorde God, who doest liue and gouerne al thinges world without ende. Amen.

The Lorde be with you.

Answer.

And with thy spirite.

ALMIGHTYE euerliuing God, whose moste derely beloued sonne Jesus Christe, for the forgeuenesse of our sinnes did shead out of his moste precious side bothe water and bloude, and gaue commaundemente to his disciples that they shoulde goe teache all nacions, and baptise them in the name of the father, the sonne, and the holye ghoste: Regarde we besche thee, the supplicacions of thy congregacion, and graunte that all thy seruauntes which shall bee baptized in the water prepared for the mynystracion of thy holy sacrament, maye receiue the fulnesse of thy grace, and euer remaine in the noubre of thy faithful, and elect childrē, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CONFIRMACION

wherin is contained a Catechisme for children

TO thende that confirmacion may be ministred to the more edifying of suche as shall receiue it (according to Saint Pauls doctrine, who teacheth that all thynges should be doen in the church to the edificacion of the same) it is thought good that none hereafter shall be confirmed, but suche as can say in their mother tong, tharticles of the faith the lordes prayer, and the tenne commaundementes: And can also aunswere to suche questions of this shorte Catechisme, as the Busshop (or suche as he shall appoynte) shall by his discrecion appose them in. And this ordre is most conuenient to be obserued for diuers consideracions.

¶ First because that whan children come to the yeres of discrecion and haue learned what they Godfathers and Godmothers promised for them in Baptisme, they may then themselves with their owne mouth and with their owne consent, openly before the church, ratifie and confesse the same, and also promise that by the grace of God, they will euermore endeouour themselves fiathfully to obserue and kepe such thinges, as they by their owne mouth and confession haue assented vnto.

¶ Secondly, for asmuch as confirmacion is ministred to them that be Baptised, that by imposicion of handes, and praier they may receiue strength and defence against all temptacions to sin, and the assautes of the worlde, and the deuill: it is most mete to be ministred, when children come to that age, that partly by the frayltie of their owne fleshe, partly by the assautes of the world and the deuill, they begin to be in daungier to fall into sinne.

¶ Thirdly, for that it is agreeable with the vsage of the church in tymes past, wherby it was ordeined that confirmacion should be ministred to them that were of perfecte age, that they beyng instructed in Christes religion, should openly professe their owne fayth, and promise to be obedient vnto the will of God.

¶ And that no manne shall thynke that anye detrimente shall come to children by differryng of their confirmacion: he shall knowe for trueth, that it is certayn by Goddes woorde, that children beeyng Baptized (if they departe out of thys lyfe in their infancie) are vndoubtedly sauued.

A CATHECHISME

that is to say, an instruccion to bee learned of euery childe, before he be brought to be confirmed of the Bushop

Question.

What is your name ?

Aunswere.

N. or M.

Question.

Who gaue you this name ?

Aunswere.

My Godfathers and Godmothers in my Baptisme, wherein I was made a member of Christe, the childe of God, and an inheritour of the kingdome of heauen.

Question.

What did your Godfathers and Godmothers then for you ?

Aunswere.

They did promise and vowe three thinges in my name.
First, that I should forsake the deuil and all his workes and pompes, the vanities of the wicked worlde, and all the sinnefull lustes of the fleshe. Secondly, that I should beleue all the articles of the Christian fayth. And thirdly, that I should kepe Goddes holy will and commaunde-mentes, and walke in the same al the daies of my life.

Question.

Dooest thou not thinke that thou arte bound to beleue, and to doe as they haue promised for thee ?

Aunswere.

Yes verely. And by Gods helpe so I wil. And I hartily thanke our heauenlye father, that he hath called me to thys state of saluacion, through Jesus Christe our saueour. And I pray God to geue me hys grace, that I may continue in the same vnto my liues ende.

Question.

Rehearse the articles of thy beliefe.

Aunswere.

I BELEUE in God the father almightie, maker of heauen and earth. And in Jesus Christ his only sonne our lord. Whiche was conceiued by the holy gost, borne of the virgin Marie. Suffered vnder Ponce Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried, he descended into hel. The third day he rose agayn from the dead. He ascended into heauen, and sitteth on the right hande of God the father almightie. From thence shal he come to iudge the quicke and the dead. I beleue in the holye goste. The holye catholike church. The communion of saintes. The forgeuenes of sinnes. The resurreccion of the bodie. And the lyfe euerlasting. Amen.

Question.

What dooest thou chiefly learne in these articles of thy beliefe?

Aunswere.

Firste, I learne to beleue in God the father, who hath made me and all the worlde.
Secondely, in God the sonne, who hath redemed me and all mankinde.
Thirdly, in god the holy goste, who sanctifyeth me, and all the electe people of god.

Question.

You sayde that your Godfathers and Godmothers dyd promyse for you that ye should kepe Goddes commaundementes. Tell me how many there bee.

Aunswere.

Tenne.

Question.

Whiche be they ?

Aunswere.

THOU shalte haue none other Gods but me.

ii. Thou shalte not make to thy selfe anye grauen image, nor the likenesse of any thyng that is in heauen aboue, or in the earth beneath, nor in the water vnder the earth : thou shalt not bowe downe to them, nor wurship them.

iii. Thou shalt not take the name of the lord thy God in vayne.

iiii. Remember that thou kepe holy the Sabboth day.

v. Honor thy father and thy mother.

vi. Thou shalt doe no murdre.

vii. Thou shalt not commit adultry.

viii. Thou shalt not steale.

ix. Thou shalt not beare false witnes against thy neighbour.

x. Thou shalt not couet thy neighbours wife, nor his seruaunt, nor his mayde, nor his Oxe, nor his Asse, nor any thing that is his.

Question.

What dooest thou chiefly learne by these commaundementes ?

Aunswere.

I learne two thinges. My duetie towards god, and my duetie towards my neighbour.

Question.

What is thy duetie towards god ?

Aunswere.

My duetie towards God is, to beleue in him. To feare him. And to loue him with al my hart, with al my mind, with al my soule, and with all my strength. To wurship him. To geue him thanks. To put my whole truste in hym. To call vpon him. To honor his holy name and his word, and to serue him truely al the daies of my life.

Question.

what is thy dutie towards thy neighbour?

Answer.

My duetie towards my neighbour is : to loue hym as my selfe. And to do to al men as I would they should do to me. To loue, honour, and succoure my father and mother. To honour and obey the kyng, and his ministers. To submitte myselfe to al my gouernours, teachers, spirituall pastours, and maisters. To ordre myselfe lowlye and reuerentelye to al my betters. To hurte no bodie by woorde nor dede. To bee true and iust in al my dealing. To beare no malice nor hatred in my heart. To kepe my handes from picking and stealing, and my tongue from euill speaking, lyng and slaundring. To kepe my body in temperaunce, sobrenes, and chastitie. Not to couet nor desire other mennes goodes. But learne and labour truely to geate my owne liuing, and to doe my duetie in that state of life: vnto which it shal please God to cal me.

Question.

My good sonne, knowe this, that thou arte not hable to do these thinges of thy self, nor to walke in the cōmaundementes of God and to serue him, without his speciall grace, which thou muste learne at all times to cal for by diligent prayer. Leat me heare therfore if thou canst say the Lordes prayer.

Answer.

OUR father whiche art in heauen, halowed bee thy name. Thy kyngdome come. Thy wil bee done in earth as it is in heauē. Geue vs this day our dailye breade. And forgeue vs our trespasses, as we forgeue them that trespass againste vs. And leade vs not into temptacion but deliuer vs from euil. Amen.

Question.

What desireste thou of God in this prayer?

Answer.

I desire my lord god our heuēly father, who is the geuer of al goodnesse to send his grace vnto me, and to all people, that we may wurship him, serue hym, and obey him, as we ought to doe. And I praye vnto God, that he will sende vs al thynges that be nedeful both for our soules, and bodies : And that he wil bee mercifull vnto vs and forgeue vs our sinnes : And that it will please him to saue and defende vs in al daungers gostly and bodily : And that he wil kepe vs from al sinne and wickednes, and from our gostly enemye, and from euerlastyng death. And this I truste he wil do of his mercie and goodnes, through our lorde Jesu Christe. And therefore I say. Amen. So be it.

¶ So soone as the children can say in theyr mother tongue tharticles of the faith, the lordes praier, the ten commaundementes, and also can aunswere to such questions of this short Catechisme as the Bushop (or suche as he shall appointe) shal by hys discretion appose them in : then shall they bee brought to the Bushop by one that shalbee his godfather or godmother, that euerye childe maye haue a wittnesse of hys confirmacion.

¶ And the Bushop shal confirme them on this wyse.

Confirmacion.

Our helpe is in the name of the Lorde.

Answer.

Whiche hath made both heauen and yearth.

Minister.

Blessed is the name of the lorde.

Answer.

Henceforth worlde without ende.

Minister.

The lorde be with you.

Answer.

And wyth thy spirite.

Let vs praye.

ALMIGHTY and euerliuing God, who hast vouchesafed to regenerate these thy seruantes of water and the holy goste : And haste geuen vnto them forgeuenesse of all their sinnes: Sende downe from heauen we beseche thee (O lorde) vpon them thy holy gost the coumforter, with the manifold giftes of grace, the spirite of wisdom and vnderstandyng: The spirite of counsell and gostly strength: The spirite of knowledge and true godlinesse, and fulfil them (o lord) with the spirite of thy holy feare.

Aunswere.

Amen.

Minister.

Signe them (o lorde) and marke them to be thyne for euer, by the vertue of thy holye crosse and passion. Confirme and strength them with the inward vnccion of thy holy gost, mercifully vnto euerlasting life. Amen.

Then the Busshop shal crosse them in the forehead and lay his handes vpon theyr heades saying.

N. I signe thee with the signe of the crosse, and laye my hande vpon thee. In the name of the father, and of the sonne, and of the holy gost. Amen.

And thus shall he doe to euery childe one after an other. And whan he hath layed hys hande vpon euery chylde, then shall he say.

The peace of the lorde abide with you.

Aunswere.

And with thy spirite.

¶ Let vs pray.

ALMIGHTIE euerliuing god, which makest vs both to will and to doe those thinges that bee good and acceptable vnto thy maiestie: we make our humble supplicacions vnto thee for these children, vpon whome (after thexample of thy holy Apostles) we haue laied our handes, to certify them (by this signe) of thy fauour and gracious goodnes toward them: leat thy fatherly hand (we beseche thee) euer be ouer them, let thy holy spirite euer bee with them, and so leade them in the knowledge and obedience of thy woord, that in the end they may obtien the life euerlasting, through our lord Jesus Christ, who with thee, and the holy goste liueth and reyneth one god world without ende. Amen.

CONFIRMACION

Then shal the Busshop blisse the children, thus saying.

The blissing of god almightie, the father, the sonne, and the holy goste, be vpon you, and remayne with you for euer. Amen.

The curate of euery parish once in sixe wekes at the least vpon this Catechisme. And all fathers, mothers, maisters and dames, shall cause theyr children, seruauntes, and prentises (whiche are not yet confirmed) to come to the churche at the daie appoynted, and obediently heare and be ordered by the curate, vntill suche time as they haue learned all that is here appointed for them to learne.

¶ And whansoeuer the Bushop shal geue knowlage for childrē to be brought afore him to any conueniēt place, for their confirma-cion: Then shal the curate of euery parish either bring or send in writing, y^e names of al those children of his parish which can say tharticles of theyr faith, the lordes praier, and the ten cōmaundementes. And also howe many of them can answer to thother questions conteined in this Catechisme.

¶ And there shal none be admitted to the holye communion, vntil suche time as he be confirmed.

THE FORME OF

Solemnizacion of matrimonie

¶ First the bannes must be asked three seuerall Soondaies or holye dayes, in the seruice tyme the people beeyng presente after the accustomed maner.

And if the persones that woulde bee married dwel indiuers parishes, the bannes muste bee asked in bothe parishes, and the curate of thone parish shall not solemnize matrimonie betwixt them, withoute a certificate of the bannes beeyng thrise asked from the curate of thother parische.

At the daye appoynted for Solemnizacion of matrimonie, the persones to be married shal come into the bodie of y^e church, with theyr frendes and neighbours. And there the priest shal thus saye.

DEREPLY beloued frendes, we are gathered together here in the syght of God, and in the face of his congregacion, to ioyne together this man, and this woman in holy matrimonie, which is an honorable estate instituted of God in paradise, in the time of mannes innocencie, signifying vnto vs the mistickall vnion that is betwixte Christe and his Church: whiche holy estate, Christe adorned and beutified with his presence, and first miracle that he wrought in Cana of Galile, and is commended of Saint Paule to be honourable emong all men, and therefore is not to bee enterprised, nor taken in hande vnadvisedlye, lightlye, or wantonly, to satisfie mens carnal lustes and appetites, like brute beastes that haue no vnderstanding: but reuerently, discretely, aduisedly, soberly, and in the feare of God. Duely considering the causes for the whiche matrimonie was ordeined. One cause was the procreacion of children, to be brought vp in the feare and nurture of the Lord, and prayse of God. Secondly it was ordeined for a remedie agaynst sinne, and to auoide fornicacion, that suche persones as bee married, might liue chastlie in matrimonie, and kepe themselues vndefiled membres of Christes bodye. Thirde for the mutuall societie, helpe, and coumfort, that the one oughte to haue of thother, both in prosperitie and aduersitie. Into the whiche holy estate these two persones present : come nowe to be ioyned. Therefore if any man can shewe any iust cause why they maie not lawfully be ioyned so together : Leat him now speake, or els hereafter foreuer hold his peace.

And also speakyng to the persones that shalbe married, he shall saie.

I require and charge you (as you will aunswere at the dreedefull daye of iudgemente, when the secretes of all hartes shalbee disclosed) that if either of you doe knowe any impedimente, why ye maie not bee lawfully ioyned together in matrimonie, that ye confesse it. For be ye wel assured, that so manye as bee coupled together otherwaies then Goddes woord doeth allowe : are not ioyned of God, neither is their matrimonie lawful.

At which daye of mariage yf any man doe allege any impediment why they maye not be coupled together in matrimonie : And will be bound, and sureties with hym, to the parties, or els put in a caution to the full value of suche charges as the persones to bee married dooe susteyne, to proue his allegacion : then the Solemnizacion muste bee differred, vnto suche tyme as the trueth bee tried. Yf no impedimente bee alleged, then shall the curate saye vnto the man.

N. Wilt thou haue this woman to thy wedded wife, to liue together after Goddes ordeinaūce in the holy estate of matrimonie ? wilt thou loue her, coumforte her, honor and kepe her, in sickenesse and in health ? And forsaking all other kepe thee only to her, so long as you both shall liue ?

The man shall aunswere.

I will.

Then shall the prieste saye to the woman.

N. Wilt thou haue this man to thy wedded houseband, to liue together after Goddes ordeinaunce, in the holy estate of matrimonie ? wilt thou obey him, and serue him, loue, honor and kepe him, in sickenes and in health ? And forsaking al other kepe thee onely to him, so long as you bothe shall liue ?

The woman shall aunswere.

I will.

Then shall the minister say.

Who geueth this woman to be maried to this man?

And the minister receiuing the woman at her father or frendes handes : shall cause the man to take the woman by the right hande, and so either to geue their trouth to other : The man first saying.

I N. take thee N. to my wedded wife, to haue and to holde from this day forwarde, for better, for wurse, for richer, for poorer, in sickenes, and in health, to loue, and to cherishe, til death vs departe : according to Goddes holy ordeinaunce : And therto I plight thee my trouth.

Then shall they looce theyr handes, and the woman taking again the man by the right hande shall say.

I N. take thee N. to my wedded husbande, to haue and to holde from this day forwarde, for better, for woorse, for richer, for poorer, in sickenes, and in health, to loue, cherishe, and to obey, till death vs departe : accordyng to Goddes holy ordeinaunce : And thereto I geue thee my trouth.

Then shall they agayne looce theyr handes, and the manne shall geue vnto the womanne a ring, and other tokens of spousage, as golde or siluer, laying the same vpon the boke : And the priest taking the ring shall deliuer it vnto the man : to put it vpon the fowerth finger of the womans left hande. And the man taught by the priest, shall say.

¶ With thys ring I thee wed : Thys golde and siluer I thee geue : with my body I thee wurship : and withal my worldly Goodes I thee endowe. In the name of the father, and of the sonne, and of the holy goste. Amen.

OF MATRIMONIE

Then the man leauyng the ring vpon the fowerth finger of the womans left hande, the minister shal say.

¶ Let vs pray.

O ETERNAL God creator and preseruer of al mankinde, geuer of al spiritual grace, the author of euerlasting life : Sende thy blessing vpon these thy seruantes, thys manne, and this woman, whome we blesse in thy name, that as Isaac and Rebecca (after braccellets and Jewels of golde geuen of thone to thother, for tokēs of their matrimonie) liued faithfully together : So these persōs may surely perfourme and kepe the vowe and couenaunt betwixt them made, wherof this ring geuen, and receiued, is a token and pledge. And may euer remayne in perfite loue and peace together : And lyue accordyng to thy lawes : through Jesus Christe our lorde. Amen.

Then shal the prieste ioyne theyr ryght handes together, and say.

¶ Those whome god hath ioyned together : let no man put a sundre.

Then shall the minister speake vnto the people.

FOR asmuche as N. and N. haue consented together in holye wedlocke, and haue witnessed thesame here before god and this cūpany : And therto haue geuē and pledged theyr trouth eyther to other, and haue declared thesame by geuyng and receyuyng golde and syluer, and by ioyning of handes : I pronounce that they bee man and wyfe together. In the name of the father, of the sonne, and of the holy gost. Amen.

And the minister shall adde this blessing.

God the father blesse you. ✠ God the sōne kepe you : god the holye gost lightē your vnderstāding : The lorde mercifully with his fauour loke vpō you, and so fil you with al spiritual benediction and grace, that you may haue remissiō of your sinnes in this life, and in the worlde to come lyfe euerlastyng. Amen.

Then shal they goe into the quier, and the ministers or clerkes shal saye or syng, this psalme folowyng.

BLESSED are al they that feare the lord, and walke in his wayes. Beati omnes. Psal. cxxviii.

For thou shalte eate the labour of thy handes. O wel is thee, and happie shalt thou bee.

Thy wife shalbee as the fruitful vine, vpon the walles of thy house.

Thy children like the olife braunches rounde about thy table.

Loe, thus shal the man be blessed, that feareth the lord.

The lord from out of Sion, shal so blesse thee: that thou shalt see Hierusalem in prosperitie, al thy life long.

Yea that thou shalt see thy childers children: and peace vpon Israel.

Glory to the father, etc.

Leate the people praise thee (o god) yea leate all people prayse thee.

O leate the nacions reioyce and bee glad, for thou shalte iudge the folke righteously, and gouerne the nacions vpon yearth.

Then shal the yearth bring foorth her increase: and god, euen our owne God, shal geue vs his blessing.

God shal blesse vs, and all the endes of the worlde shall feare hym.

Glory to the father, etc.

Leat vs praye.

O GOD of Abraham, God of Isaac, God of Jacob, blesse these thy seruauntes, and sowe the seede of eternall life in their mindes, that whatsoeuer in thy holy worde they shall profitablye learne : they may in dede fulfill thesame. Looke, o Lord, mercifully vpon them from heauen, and blesse them : And as thou diddest sende thy Aungell Raphaell, to Thobie, and Sara the daughter of Raguel, to their great comfort : so vouchsafe to send thy blessing vpon these thy seruantes, that they obeyng thy wil, and alwaye beyng in safetie vnder thy protection : may abyde in thy loue vnto theyr lyues ende : throughe Jesu Christe our Lorde. Amen.

This prayer folowing shalbe omitted where the woman is past childe byrth.

O MERCIFUL Lord, and heauēly father, by whose gracious gifte mākind is increased : We beseeche thee assiste with thy blessing these two persones, that they may both be fruitfull in procreation of children : and also liue together so long in godlye loue and honestie : that they may see their childers children, vnto the thirde and fourth generacion, vnto thy prayse and honour : through Jesus Christe our Lorde. Amen.

O GOD whiche by thy myghtye power haste made all thinges of naughte, whiche also after other thinges set in order diddeste appoint that out of man (created after thine own image and similitude) womā should take her beginning : and knitting them together, diddest teache, that it should neuer be lawful to put a sondre those, whome thou by matrimonie haddeste made one : O god, whiche hast consecrated thestate of matrimonie, to such an excellent misterie, that in it is signified and represēted the spirituall mariage and vntie betwixte Christe and his churchē : Loke mercifully vpō these thy seruantes, that bothe this manne maye loue hys wyfe accordyng to thy woord (as Christ did loue his spouse the churchē, who gaue himself for it, louing and cherishing it euen as his own flesh :) And also that this womā may be louing and amiable to her houseband as Rachel, wise as Rebecca, faithful and obediēt as Sara : And in al quietnes, sobrietie, and peace, bee a folower of holy and godlye matrones. O lorde blesse them bothe, and graunte them to inherite thy euerlastyng kyngdome, throughe Jesu Christe oure Lord. Amen.

Then shall the prieste blesse the man and the woman, saiyng.

Almighty god, which at the beginnyng did create oure firste parentes Adam and Eue, and dyd sanctifie and ioine thē together in mariage: Powre vpon you the rychesse of his grace, sanctifie and ✠ blisse you, that ye may please hym bothe in bodye and soule: and liue together in holy loue, vnto your liues ende. Amen.

Then shalbee sayed after the gospell a sermon, wherein ordinarily (so oft as there is any mariage) thoffice of man and wife shall bee declared, according to holy scripture, Or if there be no sermon, the minister shall reade this that foloweth.

Al ye whiche bee married, or whiche entende to take the holye estate of matrimonie vpon you: heare what holye scripture dooeth saye, as touchyng the duetye of housebandes towarde their wiues, and wiues towarde theyr housebandes.

Saincte Paule (in his epistle to the Ephesians the fyfth chapter) doeth geue this commaundement to al married men.

Ye housebandes loue your wiues, euen as Christ loued the churche, and hathe geuen hymselfe for it, to sanctifie it, purgeyng it in the fountayne of water, throughe the word, that he might make it vnto himself, a glorious cōgregacion, not hauing spot or wrinkle, or any such thing but that it should be holy and blameles. So mē are bounde to loue their owne wiues, as their owne bodies: he that loueth his owne wife, loueth himself. For neuer did any man hate his owne flesh, but nourisheth and cherisheth it, euen as the lorde doeth the congregacion, for wee are membres of his bodie, of his fleshe, and of his bones.

For this cause shal a man leaue father and mother, and shalbe ioyned vnto his wife, and they two shalbe one fleshe. This mistery is great but I speake of Christ, and of the congregacion. Neuerthelesse let euery one of you so loue his owne wife, euen as himselfe.

Likewise the same Saint Paule (writing to the Colossians) Coloss. iii. speaketh thus to al menne that be married : Ye men loue your wiues and be not bitter vnto them.

Heare also what saint Peter thapostle of Christ, (which i. Pet. iii. was himselfe a married man) sayeth vnto al menne that are married Ye husbandes dwel with your wiues according to knowledge : Geuyng honor vnto the wife, as vnto the weaker vessel, and as heyres together of the grace of lyfe, so that your prayers be not hindred.

Hitherto ye haue heard the duetie of the husbände towarde the wife.

Nowe lykewise ye wiues, heare and lerne your duetie toward your husbandes, euen as it is playnely set furth in holy scripture.

Saint Paul (in the forenamed epistle to the Ephesians) Ephe. v. teacheth you thus : Ye weomen submit your selues vnto your own husbandes as vnto the lord : for the husbād is the wiues head, euen as Christ is the head of the church : And he also is the sauour of the whole bodye. Therefore as the Churche, or congregacyon, is subiecte vnto Christe : So lykewise let the wiues also be in subieccyon vnto theyr owne husbandes, in all thynges. And agayn he sayeth : Let the wife reuerence her husbände. And (in his epistle to the Colossians) Colos. iii. Sainte Paule geueth you this short lesson. Ye wiues submit your selues vnto your owne husbandes, as it is conueniente in the Lorde.

i. Pet. iii.

Saincte Peter also doeth instructe you very godly, thus saying : Let wiues be subiect to theyr owne husbandes, so that if any obey not the woorde, they may bee wonne without the woorde, by the conuersacyon of the wiues : Whyle they beholde your chaste conuersacyon, coupled with feare, whose apparell let it not bee outwarde, with broyded heare, and trymming about with golde, either in putting on of gorgeous apparell : But leat the hyd man whiche is in the hearte, be without all corruption, so that the spirite be milde and quiete, which is a precious thing in the sight of god. For after this maner (in the olde tyme) did the holy women, which trusted in God, apparell themselues, beeing subiecte to theyr own husbandes : as Sara obeied Abraham calling him lorde, whose daughters ye are made, doing wel and being not dismaied with any feare.

The newe married persones, (the same daye of their mariage) must receiue the holy communion.

THE ORDER FOR

For the enemie hath persecuted my soule : he hath smittē my life downe to the grounde : he hath laied me in the darkenesse, as the men that haue bene long dead.

Therefore is my spirite vexed within me : and my harte within me is desolate.

Yet doe I remembre the time paste, I muse vpon all thy woorkes : yea, I exercise myselfe in the woorkes of thy handes.

I stretche forth mine handes vnto the : my soule gaspeth vnto the as a thyrstie lande.

Heare me (o lorde) and that soone : for my spirite weaxeth faint : hide not thy face from me, lest I be like vnto them that goo downe into the pitte.

O leate me heare thy louyng kyndenesse betimes in the morning, for in thee is my trust : shewe thou me the waie that I should walke in for I lift vp my soule vnto thee.

Deliuier me (o lorde) from myne enemies : for I flye vnto thee to hide me.

Teache me to dooe the thynges, that pleaseth thee, for

Amen.

HEARE vs almightie and moste merciful God, and Sauour : Extende thy accustomed goodnesse to this thy seruant, which is greued with sicknesse: Visite hym, o Lorde, as thou diddest visite Peters wifes mother, and the Capitaines seruant. And as thou preseruedest Thobie and Sarah by thy Aūgel from daunger: So restore vnto this sicke person his former helth (if it be thy will,) or els geue hym grace so to take thy correction: that after this painfull lyfe ended, he maye dwell with thee in lyfe euerlastyng. Amen.

Then shall the minister exhorte the sicke person after this fourme, or other lyke.

DERELY beloved, know this that almighty God is the Lorde ouer lyfe, and death, and ouer all thynges to them perteyning, as youghth, strength, helth, age, weakenesse, and sicknesse. Wherefore, whatsoever your sicknes is, knowe you certaynly that it is Gods visitacion. And for what cause soeuer this sicknesse is sent vnto you: whether it bee to trye your pacience for the example of other, and that your fayth may be founde, in the day of the Lorde, laudable, glorious and honourable, to the encrease of glory, and endesse felicitie: Orels it be sent vnto you to correcte and amende in you, whatsoever doeth offende the iyes of our heavenly father: knowe you certainly, that if you truly repent you of your synnes, and beare your sicknes patiently, trusting in Gods mercy, for his dere sōne Iesus Christes sake, and rēdre vnto him humble thankes for his fatherly visitacion, submytting your selfe wholly to his wil : it shal turne to your profite, and helpe you forewarde in the ryghtwaye that leadeth vnto euerlasting life.* Take therfore in good worthe, the chastement of the lorde : For whom the lorde loueth, he chastiseth. Yea (as saincte Paul sayth,) he scourgeth euery sōne, which he receiueth : yf you indure chastisemēt, he offereth himselfe vnto you as vnto his owne children. What sōne is he that the father chastiseth not : yf ye be not vnder correccion (wherof al the true children are partakers) then are ye bastardes and not children. Therfore seyng that whā our carnal fathers doe correct vs, we reuerently obey thē, shall we not now much rather be obediēt to our spirituall father, and so liue ? And they for a fewe daies doe chastise vs after theyr owne pleasure : but he doeth chastise vs for our profite, to thentente he maye make vs partakers of his holines. These wordes, good brother, are Gods wordes, and wryten in holy scripture for our coumfort and instruccion, that we should patiently and with thankes geuyng, beare our heauēly fathers correccion : whansoeuer by any maner of aduersitie it shall please his gracious goodnesse to visite vs. And there should be no greater coumfort to christian persons, then to be made lyke vnto Christ, by sufferyng patiently aduersities, troubles, and sicknesses. For he himselfe wente not vp to ioy, but firste he suffered payne : he entred not into his glory, before he was crucified. So truely our waye to eternall ioy, is to suffre here with Christe, and our doore to entre into eternal life : is gladly to dye with Christe, that we may ryse againe from death, and dwell with him in euerlasting life. Now therfore taking your sicknesse, which is thus profitable for you, patiently : I exhorte you in the name of God, to remēbre theprofession, which you made vnto God in your Baptisme. And forasmuch as after this lyfe, there is accompte to be geuen vnto the ryghteous iudge, of whom all must be iudged without respecte of persons : I require you to examine your selfe, and your state, both towarde God and man, so that accusyng and condemnyng your selfe for your owne faultes, you may fynde mercy at our heauenly fathers hande, for Christes sake, and not be accused and condemned in that fearfull iudgemēt. Therfore I shall shortly rehearse the articles of our fayth, that ye maye knowe whether you doe beleue as a christian manne should beleue, or no.

Here the minister shall rehearse the articles of the fayth saying thus.

Doest thou beleue in God the father almyghtie?

And so forth as it is in Baptisme.

Then shall the minister examine whether he be in charitie with all the worlde: Exhortyng hym to forgeue frō the botome of his herte al persons, that haue offended hym, and yf he haue offended other, to aske them forgeuenesse: and where he hathe done iniurye or wrong to any manne, that he make amendes to hys vtermoste power.

This may be done before the minister begyn his prayers as he shalsee cause.

And if he haue not a fore disposed his goodes, let him then make his will. (But mē must be oft admonished that they set an ordre for they temporall goodes and landes, whan they be in helth.) And also to declare his debtes, what he oweth, and what is owyng to him: for discharging of his conscience and quietnesse of his executours. The minister may not forget, nor omitte to moue the sicke person, (and that moste earnestly) to lyberalitie towarde the poore.

¶ Here shall the sicke person make a speciall confession, yf he fele his conscience troubled with any weightie matter. After which confession, the priest shall absolue hym after this forme: and thesame forme of absolucion shalbe vsed in all pryuate confessions.

OUR Lord Jesus Christ, who hath lefte power to his Church to absolue all sinners, which truely repent and beleue in hym: of his great mercy forgeue thee thyne offences: and by his autoritie committed to me, I absolue thee frō all thy synnes in the name of the father, and of the sonne, and of the holy gost. Amen.

And then the priest shall saye the collecte folowyng.

Let vs praye.

O MOST mercifull God, which according to the multitude of thy mercies, doest so putte away the synnes of those which truely repent, that thou remēbreſt them nomore: open thy iye of mercy vpon this thy ſeruaunt, who moſte earneſtly deſireth pardon and for-geuenesse: Renue in hym, moſte louyng father, whatſo-euer hath been decayed by the fraude and malice of the deuil, or by his owne carnall wyll and frailnesse: preſerue and continue this sicke membre in the vntie of thy Church, cōſyder his contricion, accepte his teares, aswage his payne as ſhalbe ſeen to thee moſte expedient for him. And for-asmuch as he putteth his full trust only in thy mercy: Impute not vnto him his former ſinnes, but take him vnto thy fauour: through the merites of thy moſte derely beloued ſonne Ieſus Chriſte. Amen.

Then the miniſter ſhall ſaye this Pſalme.

*In te domine ſperaui. Pſal.
lxxi.*

IN thee, O Lorde, haue I put my trust, let me neuer be put to confuſion, but ridde me, and deliuer me into thy righteousnes: encline thyne eare vnto me, and ſaue me.

Be thou my ſtrong holde (wherunto I may alwaye reſorte) thou haſte promyſed to helpe me: for thou art my houſe of defence and my caſtell.

Deliuer me (O my God) out of the hande of the vngodly, out of the hande of the vnrighteous and cruell man.

For thou (O Lord God) art the thyng that I long for, thou art my hope euen fro my youth.

Through the haue I been holden vp euer ſince I was borne, thou art he that tooke me out of my mothers wombe, my prayſe ſhalbe alwaye of thee.

I am become as it were a monſter vnto many: but my ſure trust is in thee.

Oh let my mouth be filled with thy prayſe (that I may ſyng of thy glory) and honour all the daye long.

Caſt me not awaye in the tyme of age, forſake me not when my ſtrength fayleth me.

For mine enemies ſpeake againſt me: and they that lay waite for my ſoule, take their cōſayle together, ſaying: God hath forſaken him, perſecute hym and take hym, for there is none to delyuer hym.

THE VISITACION OF THE SICKE 341

Goe not ferre fro me, O God : my God, haste thee to helpe me.

Let them be confounded and perishe, that are againste my soule : let them be couered with shame and dishonour, that seke to doe me euill.

As for me, I will paciently abyde alwaye, and wyll prayse thee more and more.

My mouth shall dayly speake of thy righteousnes and saluacion, for I knowe no ende therof.

I will goe forth in the strength of the Lorde God, and will make mencion of thy righteousnesse onely.

Thou (O God) haste taught me from my youth vp vntil now, therefore wil I tel of thy wondrous workes.

Forsake me not (O God) in myne olde age, when I am gray headed, vntill I haue shewed thy strength vnto this generation, and thy power to all them that are yet for to come.

Thy righteousnesse (O God) is very high, and great thinges are they that thou haste doen : O God who is lyke vnto thee?

O what great troubles and aduersities haste thou shewed me? and yet diddest thou turne and refreshe me: yea, and broughtest me from the depe of the earth agayne.

Thou haste brought me to great honour, and coumforted me on euery syde.

Therefore will I praise thee, and thy faithfulness (O God) playing vpon an instrument of musicke, vnto thee will I syng vpon the harpe, O thou holy one of Israel.

My lippes will be fayne, when I syng vnto thee : and so will my soule whom thou haste delyuered.

My tounge also shall talke of thy righteousnesse all the daye long, for they are confounded and brought vnto shame, that seke to doe me euill.

Glory to the father, etc.

As it was in the beginnyng, etc.

Addyng this anthem.

O SAUEOUR of the world saue vs, which by thy crosse and precious bloud hast redemed vs, helpe vs we beseche the O God.

Then shall the minister saye.

THE almighty Lord, whiche is a moste strong tower to all them that put their trust in hym, to whom all thynges in heauen, in earth, and vnder earth, doe bowe and obey: be now and euermore thy defence, and make thee knowe and fele, that there is no other name vnder heauen geuen to man, in whom and through whom thou mayest receyue helth and saluacion, but only the name of our Lorde Jesus Christe. Amen.

¶ If the sicke person desyre to be annoynted, then shal the priest annoynte him vpon the forehead or breast only, makyng the signe of the crosse, saying thus.

AS with this visible oyle thy body outwardly is annoynted: so our heavenly father almyghtye God, graunt of his infinite goodnesse, that thy soule inwardly may be annoynted with the holy gost, who is the spirite of al strength, coumforte, reliefe, and gladnesse. And vouchesafe for his great mercy (yf it be his blessed will) to restore vnto thee thy bodely helth, and strength, to serue him, and sende thee release of al thy paines, troubles and diseases, both in body and minde. And howsoever his goodnesse (by his diuine and vnserchable prouidēce) shall dispose of thee: we his vnworthy ministers and seruauētes, humbly beseche the eternall maiestie, to doe with thee, according to the multitude of his innumerable mercies, and to pardon thee all thy sinnes, and offences, committed by all thy bodily senses, passions, and carnall affecciōs: who also vouchsafe mercifully to graūt vnto thee gostely strēgth by his holy spirite, to withstād and ouercome al temptaciōs and assaults of thine aduersarye, that in no wise he preuaile against thee, but that thou mayest haue perfit victory and triumph against the deuil sinne, and death, through Christ our Lord: Who by his death hath ouercomed the Prince of death, and with the father, and the holy gost euermore liueth and reigneth God, worlde without ende. Amen.

Vsquequo domine.
Psal. xiii.

HOW long wilt thou forget me (O Lord) foreuer? how lōg wilt thou hyde thy face fro me? How long shall I seke counsell in my soule? and be so vexed in myne herte? how long shall myne enemye triumph ouer me? Consydre, and heare me (O Lord my God) lighten myne eyes, that I slepe not in death. Leste myne enemy saye: I haue preuayled against hym: for yf I be cast downe, they that trouble me will reioyce at it. But my trust is in thy mercy, and my herte is ioyfull in thy saluacion. I will sing of the Lord, because he hath delte so louingly with me. Yea I wyll prayse the name of the Lord the most highest. Glory be to the, etc. As it was in the, etc.

¶ The communion of the sicke

FORASMUCHE as all mortall men be subiect to many sodaine perils, diseases, and sickenesses, and euer vncertaine what time they shall departe out of this lyfe: Therfore to the tēte they may be alwayes in a readinesse to dye, whensoever it shall please almighty God to call them: The curates shall diligently from tyme to tyme, but specially in the plague tyme, exhorte theyr paryshoners to the ofte receyuyng (in the churche) of the holy communion of the body and bloud of oure sauoure Christe: whiche (yf they doe) they shall haue no cause in theyr sodayne visitacion, to be vnquyeted for lacke of thesame. But if the sicke persō be not hable to comē to the churche, and yet is desirous to receyue the communion in his house, then he must geue knowlage ouer night, or els early in the morning to the curate, signifying also howe many be appoynted to communicate with hym. And yf thesame daye there be a celebracion of the holy cōmunion in the churche, then shall the priest reserue (at the open communion) so muche of the sacrament of the body and bloud, as shall serue the sicke person, and so many as shall communicate with hym (yf there be any.) And so soone as he conueniently may, after the open communion ended in the church, shall goe and minister thesame, firste to those that are appoynted to communicate with the sicke (yf there be any) and last of all to the sicke person hymselfe. But before the curate distribute the holy communion: the appoynted generall confession must be made in the name of the communicantes, the curate addyng the absolucion with the coumfortable sentences of scripture folowyng in the open communion, and after the communion ended, the collecte.

Almightie and euerlyuyng God, we moste hertely thanke thee, etc.

¶ But yf the daye be not appoynted for the open communion in the churche, then (vpon conuenient warning geuen) the curate shal come and visite the sick person afore noone. And hauing a conueniēt place in the sicke mans house (where he may reuerētly celebrate) with all thinges necessary for thesame, and not beyng otherwyse letted with the publike seruice, or any other iust impedimēt: he shal there celebrate y^e holy communion after suche forme and sorte as hereafter is appoynted.

THE CELEBRATION of the holy communion for the sicke

O PRAYSE the Lorde, all ye nacions, laude hym all ye people : for his mercifull kyndenesse is conformed towarde vs, and the trueth of the Lorde endureth for euer. Glory be to the father, etc.

Lord haue mercy vpon vs. }
Christ haue mercy vpon vs. } Without any more repeticion.
Lord haue mercy vpon vs. }

The priest.

The Lorde be with you.

Aunswere.

And with thy spirite.

Let vs pray.

ALMIGHTIE euerlyuing God, maker of mankynde, which doest correcte those whome thou doest loue, and chastisest euery one whom thou doest receyue: we beseeche the to haue mercy vpon this thy seruaunte visited with thy hande, and to graunt that he may take his sicknesse patiently, and recouer his bodily helth (if it be thy gracious will) and whansoeuer his soule shall departe from the body, it may without spotte be presented vnto thee : through Jesus Christe our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

Hebr. xii.

MY sonne despise not the correccion of the Lorde, neyther fainte when thou art rebuked of hym : for whom the Lorde loueth, hym he correcteth, yea and he scourgeth euery sonne, whom he receyueth.

The gospell.

Iohn v.

VERELY verely I saye vnto you, he that heareth my woorde, and beleueth on hym that sente me, hath euerlasting life, and shall not come vnto damnacion, but he passeth from death vnto life.

THE COMMUNION OF THE SICKE 345

The peface.

The Lorde be with you.

Aunswere.

And with thy spirite.

Lifte vp your hertes, etc.

Unto the ende of the Canon.

¶ At the tyme of the distribucion of the holy sacrament, the priest shall firste receyue the communion hymselfe, and after minister to them that be appoynted to communicate with the sicke (yf there be any) and then to the sicke person. And the sicke person shall all wayes desyre some, eyther of his owne house, orels of his neyghbours, to receyue the holy communion with hym, for that shall be to hym a singuler great coumforte, and of theyr parte a great token of charitie.

¶ And yf there be moe sicke persons to be visited thesame day that the curate doth celebrate in any sicke mā's house: then shall the curate (there) reserue so muche of the sacramente of the body and bloud: as shall serue the other sicke persons, and suche as be appoynted to communicate with them, (yf there be any.) And shall immediatly cary it, and minister it vnto them.

¶ But yf any man eyther by reason of extremitie of sicknesse, or for lacke of warnyng geuen in due tyme, to the curate, or by any other iust impedimente doe not receyue the sacramente of Christes bodye and bloud: then the curate shall instruct hym, that yf he doe truly repent hym of his sinnes, and stedfastly beleue that Jesus Christ hath suffered death vpon the crosse for hym: and shed his bloud for his redempcion, earnestly remembring the benefites he hath therby, and geuing hym hertie thankes therfore: he doeth eate and drynke spiritually the bodye and bloud of our sauoure Christe, profytably to his soules helth, although he doe not receyue the sacrament with his mouth.

¶ When the sicke persone is visited and receiueth the holy communion, all at one tyme: then the priest for more expedicion shall vse this ordre at the visitacion.

346 THE COMMUNION OF THE SICKE

The anthem.

Remembre not Lorde, etc.

Lorde haue mercy vpon vs.

Christe haue mercy vpon vs.

Lorde haue mercy vpon vs.

¶ Our father whiche art in heauen, etc.
And leade vs not into temptation.

Aunswere.

But deliuer vs from euyll. Amen.

Let vs praye.

O Lorde looke downe from heauen, etc.

¶ With the firste parte of the exhortacion and all other thynges vnto the Psalme :

In thee o Lorde haue I put my trust, etc.

And yf the sicke desyre to be annoyncted, then shall the priest vse thappoynted prayer without any Psalme.

THE ORDRE FOR

the buriall of the dead

The priest metyng the Corps at the Church style, shall say :
Orels the priestes and clerkes shall sing, and so goe either into the Church, or towards the graue.

I AM the resurrecciō and the life (sayth the Lord) ^{John xi.} he that beleueth in me, yea though he were dead, yet shall he liue. And whosoever lyueth and beleueth in me : shall not dye for euer.

I KNOWE that my redemer lyueth, and that I shall ^{Iob xix.}
ryse out of the yearth in the last daye, and shalbe couered again with my skinne, and shall see God in my flesh : yea and I my selfe shall beholde hym, not with other but with these same eyes.

WE brought nothyng into this worlde, neyther ^{i. Timo. vi.}
may we carye any thyng out of this worlde. ^{Iob i.}
The Lord geueth, and the Lord taketh awaie.

Euen as it pleaseth the Lord, so cummeth thynges to passe : blessed be the name of the Lorde.

When they come at the graue, whyles the Corps is made readie to be layed into the earth, the priest shall saye, orels the priest and clerkes shall syng.

MAN that is borne of a woman, hath but a shorte ^{Iob. ix.} tyme to lyue, and is full of miserye : he cummeth vp and is cut downe lyke a floure, he flyeth as it were a shadowe, and neuer continueth in one staye.

¶ In the myddest of lyfe we be in death, of whom may we seke for succour but of thee, o Lorde, whiche for our synnes iustly art moued : yet o Lord God moste holy, o Lord moste mighty, o holy and moste merciful sauour, delyuer vs not into the bitter paines of eternal death.
Thou knowest, Lord, the secretes of our hartes, shutte not vp thy mercyfull eyes to our praiers : But spare vs Lord most holy, o God moste mighty, o holy and merci-full sauour, thou moste worthy iudge eternal, suffre vs not at our last houre for any paines of death, to fal frō thee.

Then the priest castyng earth vpon the Corps, shall saye.

I COMMENDE thy soule to God the father almighty, and thy body to the ground, earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust, in sure and certayne hope of resurreccion to eternall life, through our Lord Jesus Christ, who shall chaunge our vile body, that it may be lyke to his glorious body, accordyng to the myghtie workyng wherby he is hable to subdue all thynges to himselfe.

Then shalbe sayed or song.

Apoca. xiiii.

I HEARDE a voyce from heauen saying, vnto me : Wryte, blessed are the dead whiche dye in the Lorde. Euen so sayeth the spirite, that they rest from theyr labours.

Let vs praye.

WE commende into thy handes of mercy (moste mercifull father) the soule of this our brother departed, N. And his body we commit to the earth, besechyng thyne infinite goodnesse, to geue vs grace to lyue in thy feare and loue, and to dye in thy fauoure : that when the iudgemente shall come which thou haste commytted to thy welbeloued sonne, both this our brother, and we may be found acceptable in thy sight, and receiue that blessing, whiche thy welbeloued sōne shall then pronounce to all that loue and feare thee, saying : Come ye blessed children of my father : Receyue the kingdome prepared for you before the beginning of the worlde. Graunt this mercifull father for the honour of Jesu Christe our onely sauior, mediator, and aduocate. Amen.

This praier shall also be added.

ALMIGHTIE God, we geue thee hertie thanks for this thy seruante, whom thou haste delyuered frō the miseries of this wretched world, from the body of death and all temptation.

And, as we trust, hast brought his soule whiche he committed into thy holye handes, into sure consolacion and reste : Graunte we beseche thee, that at the daye of iudgement his soule and all the soules of thy electe, departed out of this lyfe, may with vs and we with them, fully receiue thy promisses, and be made perfite altogether thorow the glorious resurreccion of thy sonne Iesus Christ our Lorde.

These psalmes with other suffrages folowyng are to be sayde in the churche, either before or after the buriall of the corps.

I AM well pleased that the lorde hathe hearde the voyce of my prayer. Dilexi quoniam.
Psal. cxvi.

That he hath enclined his eare vnto me, therefore wil I call vpon him as long as I liue.

The snares of death compased me round about, and the paynes of hel, gatte holde vpon me: I shal finde trouble and heauines, and I shal cal vpon the name of the lorde (O Lorde) I beseche thee deliuer my soule.

Gracious is the lord, and righteous, yea our god is mercifull.

The lord preserueth the simple : I was in misery and he helped me.

Turne agayn then vnto thy rest, o my soule, for the lord hath rewarded thee.

And why? thou hast deliuered my soule frō death, mine eyes from teares, and my feete from fallyng.

I will walke before the lorde, in the lande of the liuing.

I beleued and therfore wil I speake : but I was sore troubled. I sayd in my haste : all menne are lyers.

What rewarde shall I geue vnto the lorde, for al the benefites that he hath doen vnto me?

I wil receiue the cup of saluacion, and call vpon the name of the lorde.

I will pay my vowes now in the presence of al his people : right dere in the sight of the lord is the death of hys Saintes.

Beholde (O lorde) how that I am thy seruaunte : I am thy seruaunt and the sonne of thy handmayde, thou hast broken my bondes in sunder.

I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thankes geuyng, and will call vpon the name of the Lorde.

I will pay my vowes vnto the lorde in the syghte of all his people, in the courtes of the lordes house, euen in the midst of thee, o Hierusalem.

Glorie to the father, etc.

As it was in the beginning, etc.

Lauda animamea.
Psal. cxlvi.

 Note that this psalme is to be saied after the other that foloweth.

PRAYSE the lorde (o my soule) while I liue wil I prayse the lorde : yea as long as I haue any being, I wil sing prayses vnto my god.

O put not your trust in princes, nor in any childe of man, for there is no helpe in them.

For when the breath of man goeth furth, he shall turne agayn to his yearth, and then all his thoughtes perish.

Blessed is he that hath the God of Jacob for hys helpe, and whose hope is in the lorde hys god.

Which made heauen and earth, the sea, and al that therin is : whiche kepeth his promise for euer.

Whiche helpeth them to right that suffer wrong, which feedeth the hungrie.

The lorde looceth men out of prieson, the Lorde geueth sight to the blynde.

The lorde helpeth them vp that are fallen, the lorde careth for the righteous.

The lord careth for the straungers, he defendeth the fatherlesse and widdowe : as for the waye of the vngodly, he turneth it vpsyde downe.

The lorde thy God, O Sion, shalbe kyng for euermore, and throughout all generacions.

Glory to the father, etc.

As it was in the beginning, etc.

O LORD thou hast searched me out and knowē me. Domine probasti.
 Thou knowest my downsitting and mine vprising: Psalm cxxxix.
 thou vnderstandest my thoughtes long before.

Thou art about my pathe, and about my bed, and spiest out al my waies.

For loe, there is not a woord in my tounge, but thou (o lorde) knoweste it altogether.

Thou hast fashioned me, behinde and before, and layed thine hande vpon me.

Suche knowelage is to woonderfull and excellent for me : I cannot attaine vnto it.

Whither shall I goe then from thy spirite? or whither shal I goe then from thy presence?

If I clime vp into heauē, thou art there : If I goe down to hel thou art there also.

If I take the winges of the morning, and remaine in the vttermoste partes of the sea.

Euen there also shal thy hande leade me, and thy righte hande shall holde me.

If I saye : paradventure the darkenesse shall couer me, then shall my night bee turned to daye.

Yea the darkenesse is no darkenesse with thee : but the night is all clere as the daye, the darkenesse and lyghte to thee are bothe alike.

For my reynes are thine, thou hast couered me in my mothers wombe, I wyll geue thanks vnto thee : for I am fearefully and woonderously made : meruailous are thy woorkes, and that my soule knoweth right well.

My bones are not hidde from thee, though I bee made secretly, and fashioned beneath in the yearth.

Thine eyes did see my substaunce, yet being vnper-fecte : and in thy booke were al my membres written.

Whiche daye by daye were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.

Howe dere are thy counceils vnto me, O God? O howe greate is the summe of them?

If I tell them, they are moe in noumbre then the sande : when I wake vp, I am present with thee.

Wilt thou not sley the wicked, O God ? departe from me ye bloude thristie men.

For they speake vnrighteously againste thee : and thyne enemies take thy name in vaine.

Dooe not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee ? and am not I greued with those that ryse vp against thee ?

Yea I hate them righte sore, euen as thoughe they were myne enemies.

Trye me, O God, and seeke the grounde of myne harte : proue me, and examine my thoughtes.

Looke well if there be any way of wickednes in me, and leade me in the waye euerlasting.

Glory to the father, etc.

As it was in the beginning, etc.

Then shall folowe this lesson, taken out of the xv. Chapter to the Corinthians, the firste Epistle.

i. Cor. xv.

CHRISTE is risen from the dead, and become the first fruites of them that slepte. For by a man came death, and by a man came the resurreccion of the deade. For as by Adam all dye : euen so by Christ shal al be made aliue, but euery manne in his owne ordre. The firste is Christe, then they that are Christes at hys comming. Then commeth the ende, when he hath deliuered vp the kyngdome to God the father, when he hath put downe al rule and al authoritie and power. For he must reygne til he haue putte al his enemies vnder his feete. The laste enemy that shal bee destroyed, is death. For he hath putte al thynges vnder his feete. But when he sayeth al thinges are put vnder him, it is manifeste that he is excepted, whiche dyd putte all thinges vnder him. When all thynges are subdued vnto hym, then shall the soonne also hymselfe bee subiecte vnto hym that put all things vnder him, that god mai be all in all. Elles what doe they, whiche are baptized ouer the dead, if the dead ryse not at all? Why are they then baptized ouer them? Yea and why stand we alway then in ieoperdie? By our reioysing whiche I haue in Christ Jesu our lorde, I dye dayly. That I haue fought with beastes at Ephesus after the maner of men, what auaūtageth it me, if the dead ryse not agayn? Let vs eate, and drynke, for to morowe we shall dye. Be not ye deceiued : euil wordes corrupt good maners. Awake truly out of slepe, and sinne not. For some haue not the knowledge of God. I speake this to your shame. But some mā will say : how aryse the dead? with what bodye shall they come? Thou foole, that whiche thou sowest, is not quickened except it dye. And what sowest thou? Thou sowest not that body that shall be : but bare corne, as of wheate, or of some other : but god geueth it a bodie at hys pleasure, to euery seede his owne body. All fleshe is not one maner of fleshe : but there is one maner of fleshe of men, an other maner of fleshe of beastes, an other of fishes, an other of birdes. There are also celestiall bodies, and there are bodies terrestriall. But the glorie of the celestiall is one, and the glorie of the terrestriall is an other. There is one maner glory of the sonne, and an other glorie of the moone, and an other glorie of the sterres. For one sterre differeth from an other in glorie. So is the resurreccyon of the dead. It is sown in corrupcion, it ryseth again in incorrupcion. It is sown in dishonour, it ryseth agayne in honour. It is sown in weaknesse, it ryseth agayn in power. It is sown a naturall bodie, it ryseth agayn a spirituall bodie. There is a naturall bodie, and there is a spirituall bodye : as it is also written : the firste manne Adam was made a liuing soule, and the last Adam was made a quickning spirite. Howebeit that is not firste whiche is spiritual : but that whiche is naturall, and then that whiche is spirituall. The firste man is of the earthe, yearthy : The seconde manne is the Lorde from heauen (heauenly.) As is the earthy, such are they that are yearthy. And as is the heauenly, such are they that are heauenly. And as we haue borne the image of the earthy, so shal we beare the image of the heauenly. This say I brethren, that fleshe and bloud can not enherite the kyngdome of God : Neyther doeth corrupcion inherite vncorruption. Behold, I shewe you a mistery. We shall not all slepe : but we shal al be chaunged, and that in a momente, in the twynkeling of an iye by the last trumpe. For the trumpe shall blowe, and the dead shall ryse incorruptible, and we shall be chaunged. For this corruptible must put on incorruption : and this mortall must put on immortalitie. When thys corruptible hath put on incorruption, and this mortall hath put on immortalitie : then shall bee brought to passe the saying that is written : Death is swallowed vp in victorie : Death where is thy styng ? Hell where is thy victorie ? The styng of death is sinne : and the strength of sinne is the lawe. But thanks be vnto god, whiche hath geuen vs victory, through our Lorde Jesus Christ. Therefore my dere brethren, be ye stedfast and vnmouable, alwaies ryche in the woorke of the lorde, forasmuch as ye know, how that your labour is not in vayne, in the lorde.

The lesson ended then shall the priest say.

Lorde haue mercie vpon vs.

Christ haue mercie vpon vs.

Lorde haue mercie vpon vs.

Our father whiche art in heauen, etc.

And leade vs not into temptacion.

Aunswere.

But deliuer vs from euil. Amen.

In the lande of the liuing.

Prieste.

O lorde, graciously heare my prayer.

Aunswere.

And let my crye come vnto thee.

Let vs pray.

O LORDE, with whome dooe lyue the spirites of them that be dead : and in whome the soules of them that bee elected, after they be deliuered from the burden of the fleshe, be in ioy and felicitie : Graunte vnto this thy seruauēt, that the sinnes whiche he committed in this world be not imputed vnto him, but that he escaping the gates of hell and paynes of eternall derkenes: may euer dwel in the region of lighte, with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, in the place where is no wepyng, sorowe, nor heauinesse: and when that dredeful day of the generall resurreccion shall come, make him to ryse also with the iust and righteous, and receiue this bodie agayn to glory, then made pure and incorruptible, set him on the right hand of thy sōne Jesus Christ, emong thy holy and elect, that then he may heare with them these most swete and coumfortable wordes: Come to me ye blessed of my father, possesse the kingdome whiche hath bene prepared for you from the beginning of the worlde : Graunte thys we beseeche thee, o mercifull father: through Jesus Christe our mediatour and redemer. Amen.

THE CELEBRACI

on of the holy communion when there is a burial of the dead

Quemadmodum.
Psal. xlii.

LIKE as the hart desireth the water brookes, so longeth my soule after thee, o God.

My soule is a thirst for god, yea, euen for the liuing god : when shal I come to appeare before the presence of god ?

My teares haue beene my meate day and nighte, whyle they dayly say vnto me, where is now thy god ?

Nowe when I thinke thereupon, I powre out my hart by my selfe : for I went with the multitude, and brought them furth vnto the house of god, in the voyce of praise and thankesgeuing, emong such as kepe holy day.

Why art thou so full of heauines (O my soule) and why art thou so vnquiete within me ?

Put thy trust in god, for I wil yet geue him thanks, for the helpe of his countenance.

My God, my soule is vexed within me : therefore will I remember thee concerning the land of Jordane, and the litle hill of Hermonim.

One deepe calleth an other beecause of the noyse of thy water pypes, all thy waues and stormes are gone ouer me.

The lorde hath graunted his louing kyndenesse on the daye tyme, and in the nighte season dyd I syng of hym, and made my prayer vnto the god of my lyfe.

I wil say vnto the God of my strength, why haste thou forgotten me ? why goe I thus heuelye, whyle the enemie oppresseth me ?

My bones are smitten a soonder, whyle myne enemies (that trouble me) cast me in the teeth, namely while they say dayly vnto me : where is nowe thy God ?

Why art thou so vexed (O my soule) and why arte thou so disquieted within me ?

O put thy trust in god, for I will yet thanke him which is the helpe of my countenance, and my God.

Glorie to the fater, etc.

As it was in the beginning, etc.

COLLECTE

O MERCIFULL god the father of oure lorde Jesu Christ, who is the resurreccion and the life : In whom whosoeuer beleueth shall liue though he dye : And whosoeuer liueth, and beleueth in hym, shall not dye eternallye : who also hath taughte vs (by his holye Apostle Paule) not to bee sory as men without hope for them that slepe in him : We mekely besече thee (o father) to raise vs frō the death of sin, vnto the life of righteousnes, that when we shall departe this lyfe, we maye slepe in him (as our hope is this our brother doeth) and at the general resurreccion in the laste daie, bothe we and this oure brother departed, receiuyng agayne oure bodies, and rising againe in thy moste gracious fauoure : maye with all thine elect Saynctes, obtaine eternall ioye. Graunte this, o Lorde god, by the meanes of our aduocate Jesus Christ : which with thee and the holy ghoste, liueth and reigneth one God for euer. Amen.

THE EPISTLE

I WOULDDE not brethren that ye shoulde bee igno- i. Tess. iiii.
raunt concernyng them which are fallen a slepe, that ye sorowe not as other doe, whiche haue no hope. For if we beleue that Jesus dyed, and rose againe : euen so them also whiche slepe by Jesus, will God bring again with him. For thys saye we vnto you in the word of the Lorde : that we whiche shall lyue, and shall remain in the cōmyng of the Lord, shall not come ere they which slepe. For the Lorde himselfe shall descende from heauē with a shoute and the voice of the Archangell and troump of God. And the deade in Christe shall arise first : then we whiche shall lyue (euen wee whiche shall remayne) shall bee caughte vp wyth them also in the cloudes, to meete the Lorde in the ayre. And so shall wee euer be with the Lorde. Wherefore coumforte youre selues one an other wyth these woordes.

THE ORDER OF THE

Purificacion of weomen

The woman shall come into the churche, and there shall kneele downe in some conueniente place, nygh vnto the quire doore: and the prieste standyng by her, shall saye these woordes or suche lyke, as the case shall require.

FOR asmuche as it hath pleased almightie god of hys goodnes to geue you safe deliuerance: and your childe baptisme, and hath preserued you in the greate daunger of childebirth: ye shall therefore geue hartie thanks vnto god, and pray.

Then shall the prieste say this psalme.

I HAUE lifted vp mine eyes vnto the hilles, from whence cummeth my helpe? *Leuauit oculos.
Psal. cxxi.*

My help cummeth euen from the lord, which hath made heauen and earth.

He will not suffer thy foote to be moued, and he that kepeth thee wil not slepe.

Beholde he that kepeth Israel, shall neither slumber nor slepe.

The lorde himselfe is thy keper, the lorde is thy defence vpon thy right hande.

So that the sonne shall not burne thee by daye, neyther the moone by nyght.

The lord shall preserue thee from al euil, yea it is euen he that shall kepe thy soule.

The lord shall preserue thy going out, and thy cumming in, from this tyme furth for euermore.

Glorye to the father, etc.

As it was in the beginning, etc.

Lord haue mercie vpon vs.

Christ haue mercie vpon vs.

Lorde haue mercie vpon vs.

¶ Our father whiche art in heauen, etc.

And leade vs not into temptacion.

Aunswere.

But deliuer vs from euil. Amen.

Priest.

O lord saue this woman thy seruaunt.

Aunswere.

Whiche putteth her trust in thee.

Priest.

Bee thou to her a strong tower.

Aunswere.

From the face of her enemye.

Priest.

O lorde heare our prayer.

Aunswere.

And let our crye come to thee.

Priest.

¶ Let vs pray.

O ALMIGHTIE God, which hast deliuered this woman thy seruante from the great payne and peril of childbirth: Graunt we beseeche thee (most mercifull father) that she through thy helpe may both faithfully lyue, and walke in her vocacyon accordyng to thy will in this lyfe presente: and also may be partaker of euerlastyng glorye in the lyfe to come: through Iesus Christ our lorde. Amen.

The woman that is purifyed, must offer her Crysome, and other accustomed offerings. And if there be a communion, it is conuenient that she receiue the holy communion.

¶ After mattens ended, the people beeyng called together by the ryngyng of a bel, and assembled in the churche. Thinglys she letanye shall be sayed after thaccustomed maner: whiche ended, the prieste shal goe into the pulpitte and saye thus.

BRETHREN, in the prymatiue churche there was a godlye disciplyne, that at the begynnyng of lente suche persones as were notorious synners, were put to open penaunce, and punished in this worlde, that theyr soules myght bee saued in the day of the lord. And that other, admonished by theyr example, might be more afrayed to offende. In the steede whereof vntil the saide disciplyne maye bee restored agayne: (whiche thyng is muche to bee wished) it is thoughte good that at thys tyme (in your presence) shoulde bee read the general sentences of goddes cursyng agaynste impenitente sinners, gathered out of the xxvii. Chapter of Deuteronomie, and other places of scripture. And that ye shoulde aunswere to euery sentence, Amen: To thentente that you beeyng admonished of the greate indignacion of God agaynste sinners: may the rather be called to earneste and true repentaunce, and maye walke more warely in these daungerous dayes, fleyng from suche vices, for the whiche ye affirme with your owne mouthes: the curse of god to be due.

¶ Cursed is the mā that maketh any carued or molten image, an abomination to the Lorde, the woork of the handes of the craftes manne, and putteth it in a secrete place to wurship it.

NOWE seeing that all they bee accursed (as the Psal. cxviii. Prophete Dauid beareth witnesse) whiche doe erre and goe astray from the commaundementes of God, let vs (remembring the dredefull iudgement hanging ouer our heades and beyng alwayes at hande) returne vnto our lorde God, with all contricion and mekenes of heart, bewailing and lamenting our sinful life, knowing and confessing our offences, and seekyng to bring furth worthie fruites of penance. For euen now is the axe Mat. iii. put vnto the roote of the trees, so that euery tree whiche bryngeth not furth good fruite, is hewen downe and cast into the fyer. It is a fearefull thing to fall into the handes Hebru. x. of the liuing God : he shal powre downe rayne vpon the Psal. x. sinners, snares, fyer, and brimstone, storme and tempest : this shalbe theyr porcion to drynke. For loe the lorde is Esa. xxvi. cummen out of his place, to visite the wickednes of such as dwell vpon the earth. But who may abyde the daye Mala. iii. of his cumming? who shalbee hable to endure whan he appeareth? His fanne is in his hande, and he wil pource Mat. iii. his floore, and gather his wheate into the barne, but he will burne the chaffe with vnquencheable fier. The day Thessa. v. of the lorde cummeth as a thiefe vpon the night, and when men shall say peace, and all thynges are safe : then shall sodayne destruccion come vpon them, as sorowe cometh vpon a woman trauaylyng with chylde, and they shall not escape : then shall appeare the wrathe of God in the daye of vengeance, whiche obstinate synners through the stubbernes of theyr hearte, haue heaped vnto themselves, Roma. ii. whiche despised the goodnesse, pacience and long suffer-

 I wil not heare : they shal seke me early, but thei shal not finde me, and that because they hated knowlage, and receiued not the feare of the lord, but abhorred my couंसell and despised my correcciō : then shal it be to late to knocke, whē the doore shalbe shut, and to late to cry for mercy, whē it is the tyme of iustice. O terrible voice of most iust iudgement, which shalbe pronounced vpōn thē, when it shalbe sayde vnto thē. Go ye cursed into the fyer euerlasting, which is prepared for y^e deuil and his angels.
 Therfore brethrē take we hede by time, while the day of saluaciō lasteth, for the night cometh whē none can worke: but let vs while we haue the light, beleue in the light, and walke as the childrē of the light, that we be not cast into the vtter derkenes, where is weping and gnashing of teeth. Let vs not abvse the goodnes of god, whiche calleth vs mercifully to amēdement, and of his endlesse pitie, promiseth vs forgeuenes of that which is past : if (with a whole mind and a true herte) we returne vnto him: for though our sinnes be red as scarlet, they shalbe as white as snowe, and though they be lyke purple, yet shall they be as whyte as woolle. Turne you cleane (sayth y^e lord) frō all your wickednes, and your synne shall not be your destrucciō.
 Cast away from you all your vngodlines that ye haue doen, make you new hertes and a new spirite : wherfore will ye dye, O ye house of Israel? seing I haue no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, sayth the Lord God.) Turne you thē, and you shall lyue. Although we haue sinned yet haue we an aduocate with the father Jesus Christ the righteous, and he it is that obteyneth grace for our sinnes, for he was wounded for our offences, and smitten for our wickednes :
 let vs therfore returne vnto him, who is the merciful re-ceiuier of al true penitent sinners, assuring our selfe that he is ready to receiue vs, and most willing to pardon vs, if we come to him with faithful repentaūce : if we wil submit our selues vnto him, and from hēceforth walke in hys waies : if we wil take his easy yoke and light burdē vpō vs to folowe hym in lowlynesse, pacience, and charitie, and bee ordred by the gouernaunce of his holy spirite, seking alwayes his glorye, and seruing him duely in our vocation with thankes geuyng. This yf we doe, Christe wil deliuer vs from the curse of the law, and frō the extreme malediccion whiche shall lyght vpon them that shalbee set on the left hand : and he wyl set vs on his right hand, and geue vs the blessed benediccion of hys father, com-maundyng vs to take possession of hys glorious kyngdome, vnto the whiche he vouchafe to bryng vs al, for hys infinite mercye. Amen.

¶ Then shall they all kneele vpon theyr knees : And the prieste and clerkes kneelyng (where they are accustomed to saye the letanye) shall saye this psalme.

HAUE mercye vpon me (O God) after thy greate goodnesse : according vnto the multitude of thy mercies, do away mine offences.

Washe me throwly fro my wickednes, and clesne me from my synne.

For I knowlage my faultes, and my sinne is euer before me.

Agaynst thee only haue I synned, and done this euyl in thy syght : that thou myghtest bee iustified in thy saying and clere when thou art iudged.

Behold, I was shapen in wickednes, and in synne hath my mother conceiued me.

But loe, thou requirest trueth in the inward partes, and shalte make me to vnderstande wysedome secretelye.

Thou shalt pouрге me with Isope, and I shall bee cleane : thou shalt washe me, and I shal bee whyter then snowe.

Thou shalte make me heare of ioye and gladnesse, that the bones whiche thou haste broken, maye reioyce.

Turne thy face from my synnes, and putte out all my mysdedes.

Make me a cleane herte (O God) and renue a ryght spyrite within me.

Caste me not awaye from thy presence, and take not thy holy spirite from me.

O geue me the coumforte of thy helpe agayne, and stablishe me wyth thy free spirite.

Then shal I teache thy waies vnto the wicked, and sinners shal bee conuerted vnto thee.

Deliuier me from bloud guiltinesse (O God) thou that art the god of my health : and my tounge shall syng of thy righteousnesse.

Thou shalt open my lippes (O Lorde) my mouthe shal shewe thy prayse.

For thou desyreste no sacrifice, els would I geue it thee : but thou deliteste not in burnt offering.

The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirite, a brokē and a contrite herte (O God) shalt thou not despise.

O bee fauourable and gracious vnto Syon, build thou the walles of Hierusalem.

Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousnesse, wyth the burnt offerings and oblacions : then shall they offre young bullockes vpon thyne aultare.

Glorye to the father, etc.

Answer.

But deliuier vs from euyll. Amen.

Minister.

O lorde saue thy seruauntes.

Answer.

Whiche put theyr truste in thee.

Minister.

Sende vnto them helpe from aboue.

Aunswere.

And euermore mightily defende them.

Minister.

Helpe vs O God our sauour.

Aunswere.

And for the glory of thy names sake delyuer vs, be mercifull vnto vs synners, for thy names sake.

Minister.

O Lorde heare my prayer.

Aunswere.

And let my crye come to thee.

Let vs praye.

O LORD, we beseche the mercifully heare our prayers, and spare all those which confesse theyr synnes to thee, that they (whose consciences by synne are accused) by thy mercyfull pardon may be absolved, through Christe our Lorde. Amen.

O MOST mightie god and mercifull father, which hast compassion of all menne, and hateste nothing that thou haste made: whiche wouldeste not the deathe of a sinner, but that he shoulde rather turne from sinne and bee saued: mercifully forgeue vs oure trespasses, receyue and coumforte vs, whiche be griued and wried with the burden of our sinne: Thy propertie is to haue mercie, to thee onely it apperteineth to forgeue sinnes: spare vs therfore, good Lorde, spare thy people whome thou hast redemed. Enter not into iudgemente with thy seruantes, which be vile yearthe, and miserable sinners: But so turne thy ire from vs, which mekely knowlage our vilenes, and truely repent vs of our fautes: so make hast to helpe vs in this worlde: that wee may euer liue with thee in the worlde to come: through Jesus Christe our Lorde. Amen.

Then shal this antheme be sayed or song.

TURNE thou vs, good Lord, and so shall we be turned: bee fauourable (O Lorde) bee fauourable to thy people, whiche turne to thee in wepyng, fasting and praying: for thou art a mercifull God, full of compassion, long sufferying, and of a great pietie. Thou sparest when we deserue punishe-mente, and in thy wrathe thynkest vpon mercy.

Spare thy people, good Lorde, spare them, and lette not thy heritage bee brought to confusion: Heare vs (O Lorde) for thy mercy is great, and after the multitude of thy mercyes looke vpon vs.

OF CEREMONIES

and some retayned

OF suche Ceremonies as be vsed in the Church, and haue had their beginning by thinstitution of man : Some at the first were of godly intent and purpose deuised, and yet at length turned to vanitie and supersticiō : Some entred into the Church by vndiscrete deuocion, and suche a zeale as was without knowlage, and forbecause they were winked at in the beginning, they grewe dayly to more and more abuses, which not onely for their vnprofitablenesse, but also because they haue muche blynded the people, and obscured the glory of God, are worthy to be cut awaye, and cleane reiected. Other there be, which although they haue been deuised by mā : yet it is thought good to reserue thē still, aswell for a decent ordre in the Church (for the which they were first deuised) as because they pertayne to edificacion : Whervnto all thynges doen in the Church (as the Apostle teacheth) ought to be referred. And although the keeping or omitting of a ceremonie (in it selfe considered) is but a small thyng : Yet the wilfull and contemptuous transgression, and breakyng of a common ordre, and discipline, is no small offence before God. Let all thynges bee done among you (sayeth Sainte Paule) in a semely and due ordre. The appoyntmente of the whiche ordre, pertayneth not to pryuate menne : Therefore no manne ought to take in hande nor presume to appoynte or alter any publyke or common ordre in Christes Church, excepte he be lawfully called and autorized thereunto.

And whereas in this our tyme, the myndes of menne bee so diuerse, that some thynke it a greate matter of conscience to departe from a peece of the leaste of theyr Ceremonies (they bee so addicted to their old customes) and agayne on the other syde, some bee so newe fangle that they woulde innouate all thyng, and so doe despyse the olde that nothyng canne lyke them, but that is newe: It was thought expediente not so muche to haue respecte howe to please and satisfie eyther of these partyes, as howe to please God, and profite them bothe. And yet leste any manne should bee offended (whom good reason might satisfie) here be certayne causes rendered, why some of the accustomed Ceremonies be put awaye, and some be retayned and kept still.

Some are put awaye, because the great excesse and multytude of them hathe so encreased in these latter dayes, that the burden of them was intollerable: wherof sainte Augustine in his tyme complayned, that they were growen to suche a noubre: that the state of christian people was in wurse case (concernyng that matter) then were the Jewes. And he counsayled that suche yocke and burden should be taken awaye: as tyme woulde serue quietly to doe it. But what woulde sainte Augustine haue sayed if he hadde seen the Ceremonies of late dayes vsed among vs? whervnto the multitude vsed in his time was not to bee compared. This our excessiue multitude of Ceremonies, was so great, and many of them so darke: that they dyd more confounde, and darken, then declare and setteforth Christes benefites vnto vs. And besides this, Christes Gospell is not a Ceremoniall lawe (as muche as Moses lawe was,) but it is a religion to serue God, not in bondage of the figure or shadowe: but in the freedome of spirite, beeyng contente onlye wyth those ceremonies whyche dooe serue to a decente ordre and godlye discipline, and suche as bee apte to stirre vppe the dulle mynde of manne, to the remembraunce of his duetie to God, by some notable and speciall significacion, whereby he myght bee edified.

¶ Furthermore, the most weightye cause of the abolishment of certayne Ceremonies was, that they were so farre abused, partely by the supersticious blyndenes of the rude and vnlearned, and partelye by the vnsaciable auarice of suche as soughte more theyr owne lucre then the glorye of God: that the abuses coulde not well bee taken awaye, the thyng remaynyng styll. But nowe as concerning those persones, whiche peraduenture will bee offended for that some of the olde Ceremonies are retayned still: Yf they consyder, that wythoute some Ceremonies it is not possible to kepe anye ordre or quyete dyscplyne in the churche: they shall easilye perceyue iuste cause to refourme theyr iudgementes.

And yf they thynke muche that anye of the olde dooe remayne, and woulde rather haue all deuised a newe: then suche menne (grauntynge some Ceremonies conueniente to bee hadde) surelye where the olde maye bee well vsed: there they cannot reasonablye reproue the olde (onelye for theyr age) withoute bewraiynge of theyr owne folye. For in suche a case they oughte rather to haue reuerence vnto them for theyr antyquitye, yf they wyll declare themselues to bee more studious of vnitie and concorde, then of innouacions and newe fanglenesse, whiche (as muche as maye bee wyth the trewe settinge foorth of Christes religion) is alwayes to bee eschewed. Furthermore, suche shall haue no iuste cause wyth the Ceremonies reserued, to bee offended: for as those bee taken awaye whiche were moste abused, and dydde burden mennes consciences wythoute any cause:

So the other that remaine are retained for a discipline, and ordre, which (vpon iust causes) may be altered and chaūged, and therfore are not to be esteemed equal with goddes lawe. And moreouer they be neyther darke nor dumme ceremonies, but are so set forth that euery man may vnderstande what they dooe meane and to what vse they do serue. So that it is not like that thei, in time to come, shoulde bee abused as the other haue been. And in these all our dooynges wee condemne no other nacions, nor prescribe anye thyng, but to oure owne people onelye.

For we thinke it conueniente that euery countreye should vse such ceremonies, as thei shal thynke beste to the setting forth of goddes honor and glorye: and to the reducyng of the people to a moste perfecte and Godly liuing, without errour or supersticion: and that they shoulde putte awaye other

which from time to time they perceiue to be most abused, as in mennes ordinaunces it often chaūceth dyuerslye in diuerse countreyes.
